

THE LAST DAY OF SUMMER

The last day of Summer!
 Ah! what have we done
 To make this Summer more blest?
 Have we squandered its hours
 And wasted our powers
 With senseless song and jest?
 Have we sown one good seed
 Of wise, helpful thought
 In the heart of some dear child?
 Have we guided aright,
 In the dark of it's night,
 Some soul, with accents mild?
 Have we whispered one word of
 Of encouragement true,
 To cheer his tiresome way?
 Have we strengthened with might
 His wish to do right
 By doing our best each day?
 Let us try every day
 More helpful to be:
 More thoughtful, loving and kind.
 For we certainly know,
 As onward we go,
 Some sad, needy hearts we'll find.
 Though the seed that we sow
 We here may not know
 That they fall into good ground,
 When life's Summer's o'er
 And we rest on the shore,
 In our Harvest Home, they'll be found,
 —Winifred Bush Wells.

Resolution of Respect.

Resolved, That in Resolutions passed by Ebenezer
 Sunday school.

Whereas our venerable and much beloved superintendent, Wilson N.
 King has been called from the scene of his earthly existence to that bright and better world above;
 therefore, be it:

Resolved, First, That in his death his country has lost a patriotic citizen, who in time of war defended her as a brave and gallant soldier, and returning to his home devastated by the ravages of war rendered noble service in rescuing his county and state from the rule of ignorance and corruption and at the time of his death was a citizen wise and courageous and exemplar of truth and right, loved, respected, and trusted by all the people.

Second, That the Sunday-school has lost a faithful member, and safe and conscientious officer and a liberal supporter of its ministry and all its institutions.

Third, That we extend to his bereaved family our deepest sympathy and point them with confidence to the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort.

Fourth, That these resolutions be incorporated in the minutes of our Sunday-school, published in the Southern Christian Advocate and the Lexington paper, and a copy be sent to the widow of the deceased.

Plague is Losing Its Hold Steadily.

New York, Aug. 28.—Encouraging results in the fight against infantile paralysis were indicated by the department of health's report for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. today. Only 43 new cases were discovered, or only a little more than half the number during the previous 24 hours. The greatest decrease was in Brooklyn, where the disease first became widespread.

The deaths numbered 25, against 21 yesterday, making the total fatalities 1,826 out of 7,839 cases reported to date.

Puts on Quarantine.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 24.—An absolute quarantine barring children under 16 who are residents of New Jersey, New York or Pennsylvania from entering Virginia was declared today by the State board of health as a precaution against infantile paralysis. It is effective at midnight.

Adults may enter the State without restriction and Virginia children may be brought home if placed in two weeks quarantine after their arrival.

Miss Madge Cleveland's Health was Very Bad--Operations Failed

GAINS TWELVE POUNDS

Her Mother Says Three Bottles of Tanlac Gave Such Great Relief That It Is Hard to Believe It Is True.

There really seems to be no limit to the number of cases wherein Tanlac, "the master medicine," has given relief that can be considered truly wonderful. And the case of Miss Madge Cleveland, of 135 Main Street, Equinox, Anderson, S. C. considering the results Tanlac gave her, takes rank with the most remarkable. Her mother Mrs. L. E. Cleveland, vividly described her daughter's long train of troubles and her many ailments, and expressed deep appreciation for the wonderful effect of Tanlac in building up her health and strength. Mrs. Cleveland's endorsement of Tanlac and her statement regarding the case of her daughter follows:

"My daughter, Miss Madge Cleveland, suffered from a number of ailments, and her system was badly run down and weakened. She had no appetite at all and would eat scarcely more than one biscuit for breakfast. She had twice been operated on for tumor and appendicitis. The first operation was not successful and the second was necessary. As a result, her health was undermined and her condition became very bad.

"She was so weak she could hardly walk, and she was so restless at night that she really was very little refreshed when morning came. She would wake us at night many times with her groaning. She lost a great deal of weight, too. It was her side where the cuts were made when she was operated on that caused her so much pain. And, too, her system was generally out of order.

"She has already taken three bottles of Tanlac, and if I had not seen the improvement Tanlac made in her condition, I don't know whether I fully believe it could be so great, should someone have told me that. She has gained 12 pounds and now weighs 122 pounds—more than she has ever weighed before. She has a very good appetite and it is steadily improving. Really I have told her if she continues to increase the amount of food she eats I will have to make her stop taking Tanlac. And what she eats nourishes her.

"Her health has improved in every way and she is very much stronger. She goes to sleep now just as soon as she gets in bed, and she sleeps soundly all night. Her nerves are quiet and strong now; though they troubled her a lot before she began to take Tanlac. She used to have bad spells of headache, too, but Tanlac broke them up and she has not had an attack since she began taking it.

"Just before she began taking Tanlac, she decided to go on a visit to Pell City, Ala., but was told she could not stand the trip. But she left for that city just two days ago in fine health, so great was the benefit three bottles of Tanlac gave her.

"Tanlac is just a wonderful medicine, and we can't say too much in praise of it, and I certainly am glad to recommend it. The Tanlac did her more good than any of the many medicines she took."

Tanlac the master medicine, is sold exclusively at Harman Drug Co., Lexington; Burnette & Whetsell, New Brookland; Harris-Cain Drug Co., Batesburg; Crosson Drug Co., Leesville; Eargle's Drug Store, Chapin; Dr. W. T. Brooker, Swansea; Pelion Drug Co., Pelion; W. J. Cayce, Cayce; A. E. Leaphart, Gilbert; The Lorick Company, Irmo; W. H. Suber, Peak. Price $1.00 per bottle, straight.

London, Aug. 31. It was officially announced today that the British casualties killed, wounded and missing, on all fighting fronts in the month of August, totaled 4,711 officers and 123,234 men.

Jos. M. Caughman Thanks Voters; Second Race On and Will Appreciate Support.

To the People of Lexington County:
 I wish to take this means of expressing my true and appreciative thanks for the splendid vote I received in Tuesday's primary for the office of County Commissioner; and wish to urge my friends to continue to give me their unstinted support in the second primary two weeks hence. I have made a clean fight. I entered the race with the will and determination to do no man hurt, and I have kept the faith. I will continue to make a clean campaign, and I feel confident of winning, if my friends will keep up their efforts.

I wish now to reiterate my pledge that if I am elected to the office of County Commissioner I shall use my best talents in behalf of the people of my County, irrespective of locality, and shall endeavor to see to it, as far as my office will permit, to see to it that the affairs of the county are conducted upon an economical bases as good government and progressive ideas will permit.

Again thanking you for your support in the first race, and also thanking you in advance for what you may do for me on September 12, I am, Gratefully yours,
 JOSEPH M. CAUGHMAN.
 Lexington, Aug. 31.

A Card.

I take this opportunity to express to the voters of Lexington County my high appreciation for the handsome vote for Auditor received in the primary election, Tuesday.

To those who so loyally supported me, I shall ever be grateful, and to those who saw fit to support my opponents, I still have the highest regards.

The duties in the office shall have my personal attention and to both friends and foes it shall be my highest aim to work to the best interest for all the people in the county.

I am profoundly grateful at this time to the voters for their support. The large majority over both my opponents convinces me that the people not only appreciate but indorse the administration of one who has worked hard to render a service equal to any other man in the State. Again I thank my many friends for their confidence in me and assure them that it will be my highest aim during the next two years to labor in behalf of the interest of all fairly, honestly, faithfully, and efficiently.

 Obedient yours,
 W. D. DENT.

A Card.

To the Democratic Voters of Lexington County:

As you well know I was a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Education. This is one of the most responsible offices within your gift. My campaign was honest, fair and square and I take this method of thanking you from the depth of my heart for the handsome vote given me on the 29th day of this month. With your continued support I will win and educational interests of the county be promoted.

A. D. MARTIN.

Card From Mr. G. C. Steele.

This is to express my sincere appreciation of the support given me by my friends all over the county for the flattering vote cast for me in the primary last Tuesday. As they will note from the tabulated report I am in the second race for the office of Supervisor and wish to herewith tender my hearty thanks in advance for any favor they may show me in the next primary.
 Yours to serve,
 George C. Steele.

Harman Block.

Five stores will shortly be erected on our former lot on Main street, where our residence and office stood before the fire. The property was divided up among the family one day last week, and Dr. Rice B. Harman and Mrs. Iceoline Sarratt have already commenced to clean off their lots preparatory to building a two-story handsome store and Mrs. Sarratt will rebuild the bazaar and home combined.

FOUND OUT.

We live in a world full of trouble and strife,
 When your car undertakes to turn turtle,
 It never occurs when you're out with your wife,
 But when you're with Gladys and Myrtle.

Night Services at St. Stephen.
