

Statement of votes polled at Newberry C. H., S. C., 4th Sept. 1865. Whole No. of votes, 238. E. P. Lake, 183; Robt. Stewart, 182; H. Sammer, 125; J. H. Williams, 103; E. S. Kuit, 82.

We are requested to state that the Brass Band belonging to the 56th N. Y. V., assisted by Prof. N. Schmitt and daughter, will give a vocal and instrumental Concert in the Court House, at Abbeville, on Friday night, next, 9th instant.

Under the present circumstances, while our paper is so limited in size, we most respectfully request correspondents to confine themselves to short articles. Latterly we have had several, which on account of extreme length, had to be left out altogether. It is impossible to insert long communications. Be short, and we will be happy to give your views on all interesting subjects to the public.

So says the Greenville Mountaineer; the doubts of our citizens on this subject are now dispelled. Could not help it. The dashing Adjutant having touched us very vitally last week, so completely clairvoyanced our optics and mesmerized our faculties, that we married Williams the senior partner of Williams & Covert, (in a notice made of that firm,) in spite of the wishes of — God knows who; carried him through dangers by flood and field, and finally set him down snugly at home beneath his own vine and fig tree, to meditate on the sweets of domestic life, where he would in all probability pay greater attention to his business. We humbly beg his pardon.

We are under obligations to the publisher, Mr. Patrick W. Linn, Augusta, Ga., for a neat little pamphlet, bearing the above title. We have not yet read the book, but a glance at the subject, satisfies us that it is well worth the attention of all. There are a number of valuable records in the work. It contains 32 pp., reading matter together with several pages valuable trade advertisements. Price 50 cts., one third off to the trade. Postage paid and sent by mail to any part of the country. Address, PATRICK W. LINN, Augusta, Ga.

We had the pleasure of a brief interview with his Excellency Gov. PRAY, Saturday afternoon. He was on his way to Columbia, for the purpose of conferring with Gen. McLean and Gilmore, the former of whom has command of a the Atlantic States. Gov. PRAY informed us that he was in receipt of a dispatch from President Johnson, sustaining his proclamation with regard to Magistrates administering the oath, and he had hastened to forward the same to Spartanburg and other places, in time he hoped, for the election. Ordinaries and Clerks will resume their functions. As the Governor and General Gilmore have both been mutually disappointed several times in attempts at interview, it is hoped that the present may be a happy moment, resulting in great good to our people.

The happiest period of a man's life is said to be, when having long waited for the object of his devotion, he takes unto himself the fair being who is to become his partner in joys and sorrows, in sickness and health, and he feels himself the proud possessor of a wife. He is perhaps exuberant in the fullness of his joys at that period, he forgets a few minor details, but in a short time he awakens to the sense that there are duties to perform which temporarily were laid aside, but must now be attended to, one of which and not the least in importance is the paying for his marriage notice, which the minister who tied the knot for him, hands to us for publication, at his request. We cannot hold the man of God responsible for this payment, and the man is not deserving of his darling little wife if he neglects to pay for the notice.

His Excellency Governor PRAY has furnished us with the following rules to be observed in making applications for Pardon: The Petition must be addressed to His Excellency ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States. It should state the residence, occupation and age of the applicant. Which of the fourteen exceptions he is liable to, and that he is excluded from the clemency of the Amnesty Proclamation by none of the exceptions. Let him state fairly and truthfully, any circumstances which may entitle him to Executive clemency. He must express his loyalty to the Union, and his purpose in good faith, to preserve and maintain it for the future. He must state that no proceedings have been taken out against him or his property under the confiscation act. There are two oaths to be endorsed or accompany his Petition—one that he has read the Amnesty Proclamation, and is not liable to any other of the fourteen exceptions, than those stated in his Petition—the other oath is that prescribed in the Amnesty Proclamation of President JOHNSON. Where any person is in doubt, as to whether his taxable property amounts to over twenty thousand dollars, he is to make application for a pardon and state his doubts. The valuation of the property must be at the date of President JOHNSON'S Proclamation. All property must be included which is liable to be taxed, lands, money at interest, Bank stocks, &c. It is not necessary for Post Masters, who were not appointed by the President and approved by the Senate of the so called Confederate Government, to apply for pardon. They were not so appointed, and their perquisites amounted to $15000.00, understood the Attorney General has decided in their favor.

As to what petition in the rebellion renders an application for pardon, it may be answered, "directly or indirectly." The Petition should be written on foolscap paper, and folded twice, with the writing and not across. The name of the applicant, and nothing more, should be endorsed on the Petition after it is folded. All applications made to the Provisional Governor will be forwarded by him to the President, unless otherwise directed.—Greenville Mountaineer.

Never make a friend of a coward; his heart is a dung-hill, while suspicion is the only cock that ever crows on it. Were you to save him from drowning, he would swear it was only out of kindness to the squire.

LOCAL ITEMS.

A chance for profitable investment, such as is offered by Mr. Birge, at Frog Level, seldom presents itself. The property will be sold very low, as we can testify. Read the advertisement.

SALE-DAY:—Owing to the immense crowd which visited town on Friday, the attendance on Monday was not so large as usual, but those who did come kept up a lively time. Several sales of furniture, etc., took place, good prices ruling generally.

DEATHS IN THE HOSPITAL.—Private J. Holpp, of Co. H., 56th Reg., was conveyed to his long home by his company, on Friday last. J. Soules, was interred at this place on Sunday last. He was a member of a Florida Regiment, late of the Confederate service. May they rest in peace.

We invite attention to Prof. Schmitt's card, in another column. He is well and favorable known in many portions of the State, as a musical artist of superior merit. As an instructor he always gives satisfaction. He is prepared to give lessons in the entire range of instrumental music, also to tune instruments, for which he is recommended.

FINN TOBACCO.—Users of the weed, those who esteem a fine article of chewing tobacco, can be suited at Marshall & Bro's. The sample laid upon our table, we most emphatically pronounce first rate.

In the smoking line, Matt. Bythewood has that good old brand 'Kyanitic,' which will soothe a man to sleep, or keep him awake, which ever is most agreeable. Have tried it.

OPPOSITE THE ELM TREE is the main entrance to the "Herald" office now. We regret giving up the old door, but the march of improvement made it necessary, and we succumbed with a few tears. Take a few steps further, dear friends, the next time you call, and halt for a moment in the elm tree, then half wheel and enter the new door, you will then see the old, familiar steps, up and down which so many of you have often stumbled, walk up; and we will be happy to see you.

To whom it may concern; and to a man up a tree it would seem that our worthy commander of the street forces, Brig. Gen. Peterson is the sad delinquent. The immense piles of garbage collected and added to daily and weekly, under the impression that they would be removed, are left to increase and become an intolerable nuisance. Small favors are most gratefully received, and that various bridges have been repaired, is subject for congratulation. The streets too have been swept, but unfortunately the filth piles alluded to above have been strangely overlooked. Can our friend do anything in this matter?

Mr. W. T. McFEAR, of Columbia, died in this place on Friday last, after a few days illness, of paralysis. He was attended by the Masonic Fraternity (of which body he was a worthy member) and other kind friends, and all that could be done was rendered to soothe and comfort him until he breathed his last. Mr. McFEAR was by profession a printer, but for many years had been engaged in other business. He was held in esteem by the craft, to whom he was endeared by many courtesies. He leaves a wife and four children.

THE SALE ON FRIDAY.—The sale of Government property attracted the largest crowd of citizens we have seen in town, since the advent of Robinson's old circus, many came from afar, from the burnt district, in hope of picking up something cheap to replenish their exhausted farm stock, the consequence of which competition, was that horses, mules, wagons, &c. brought good prices, with but few exceptions. We learn that the sale footed up some $7000 to $8000. All of the property on hand was not sold, and it may be probable that another sale will take place at a future day. In connection and as a piece of information of interest, we would state, that the total amount of cotton received and turned over to the Government, by Col. Tyler, is three hundred and eleven bales.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Our readers will find it to their interest to attentively read the various advertisements in this issue. MILITARY.—The 1st Maine Battalion, in command of Lt. Col. C. S. Brown, which arrived in town on Friday last, and which was intended to relieve the 56th, now in garrison here, received marching orders, and left on Monday for Anderson, to relieve the 33rd colored Regt., now garrisoned at that place. This will give a double satisfaction to a pleasure to the citizens of Anderson in having a garrison of white troops, commanded by such gentlemanly and clever officers, as we have found them to be; and a pleasure to the people of Newberry, that the contemplated change is so intimately known and appreciated, will remain with us yet awhile. The following officers comprise the command of the 1st Maine, which assumes control of the 1st Sub-Dist. of western South Carolina: Lt. Col. C. S. Brown, Adjt., Lt. H. A. Johnson, Q. M., Lt. A. Q. Hill, St. Mat., Wm. P. Cook, Q. M. St., P. A. Martin, Hon. St. L. R. Carey, Co. C. Command, Merrill M. Snowman, 2nd Lt. J. F. Gagnier, Co. A.—1st Lt. Wm. E. Leighton, 2d S. L. Brown. Co. B.—Capt. R. O. Barrows, 2d Lt. Josiah Chase. Co. D.—Capt. G. L. Tackett, 2d Lt. G. M. Hall.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Editor:—I attended the meeting of the citizens of the District on last Saturday, week, and was not a little amused at the awkwardness manifested in the getting up of the meeting, and their apparent effort to conceal the real object of the meeting. It was, however, evident to the mind of every close observer that the real object of the meeting was to nominate a ticket to represent a certain party, and to exclude all other candidates. The good sense and fairness of the meeting soon vetoed that proposition, which was intended to foster upon the people certain candidates, and thus accomplish party ends by party management. This is not the right way to deal with the people. If there is any important question for the people to decide, bring it out fairly and distinctly before them and let each side select a ticket to represent it, and let the matter be fairly and dispassionately discussed before the people with an honest intention to arrive at the best possible solution of the question. They will then forestall public opinion and maneuver the people into a certain course of action, evidently manifesting a distrust either of the people's honesty or of their willingness to carry out their prospects, where they are fully understood in all their bearings. This District has been ruled long enough by party management, and it is time the people should take matters in their own hands and think for themselves, and not take the issue dished up by any set of political wire pullers as gospel. The country has already been misled by such a course of following in the lead of such men. Let us fellow citizens, in the future, throw off all party restraints and think and act for ourselves as becomes freemen. It is true the party wires did not work as well at this meeting as they did at the meeting held some years ago for the purpose of nominating candidates for the convention to take the State out of the Union. The wire-pullers seem to have let their wires get rusty during the four years since that time, and they did not work so well. But I have no doubt they will soon have their good wires greased and polished up, and the rotten ones replaced by new ones, and then you may look out for the antics of the anatomists, put in motion by the great magician at the other end of the wires behind the scene. I think, so far as I could gather the sense of the meeting on Saturday, that the proposition, to engraft on the constitution a clause repealing all debts or exempting all real estate from liability for debts, is dead or if not dead is so nearly dead that it is best to bury it. It is also most strenuously and selfishly exhortations of the great physician. The shape the matter is now likely to take is not to insert the repudiation clause in the constitution, but to pass a resolution instructing the Legislature to pass such laws. It is not the province of the convention to instruct the Legislature or to try to control its action in any way except by a legitimate constitution. The election of members to the Legislature will take place after the adjournment of the convention, and the people can then give their representatives in the Legislature such instructions as they may see fit. The following are some of the reasons why the convention should not meddle with the question of repudiation, First, because it would be in violation of that part of the constitution of the United States which declares, that no State shall pass any export factio Law or any law impairing the obligation of contracts. If we should send up our constitution to Congress to be approved, with a clause of repudiation, it would be altered, amended, modified or repealed at any time the people desire. Can there be any objection to the people's changing this law (if it should be passed) if upon some second thought they desire to do so? This then is not the proper occasion to moot the question of repudiation. It will be time enough to do when the candidates for the Legislature come before the people. In voting for members for the convention let us lay aside all issues which have business before the convention, and let each select men of the highest practical ability and integrity for purposes, men who have proved their devotedness to the country not only in the councils of the nation, but in the tented field; men who have not hesitated to stre their country in whatever capacity asked, whether of labor, honor or danger; men who have not only had the boldness to express candidly their honest opinions before the people, but have had the disinterested patriotism to risk their lives for the good of the country. It is to such men that we must look in our hour of need, for their good practical counsel. But beware of the men who are always watching the popular current and have not the manliness to express their honest convictions. Beware of the men who lead their country into difficulty and do not rally around her standard when the hour of trial comes. Beware of the politicians who raise issues not so much because they expect to carry them out, but for the purpose of riding themselves or their friends into office and power.
