

THE NEWBERRY HERALD.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1866.

JAS. Y. McFALL

Respectfully informs his friends and patrons that the remnant of his stock, saved from the fire, will be opened in the store formerly occupied by Williams & Ferguson, Mollohon Row, for the use of which he is indebted to the kindness of Mr. W. H. Rutledge. He will remain there until the new store is reconstructed,—not by the Rad's or Thad's, but by Capt Davis.

June 22.

R. B. HOLMAN & CO.

CARD.

Having saved a few goods from the late conflagration, and having removed them to the store room formerly occupied by Mr. W. T. Wright, as a Tin Shop, we will be happy to see our old friends, customers and the public generally.

June 22.

LOVELACE & WHEELER.

NOTICE, NOTICE, NOTICE.

The Administratrix of the Estate of Bennett Perry, Esq, deceased, (Mrs. M. C. Perry) having appointed me her attorney to settle with all those indebted to the above Estate. I hereby notify all concerned that they can find their notes and accounts at Newberry S. C., where I will be glad to arrange with all parties on the most advantageous terms that can be allowed, consistent with the circumstances of the Estate. I will hold these papers at this place until about the first day of September next, at that time they will be placed in the hands of Lawyers in the different Districts where the parties reside, to be sued on. All parties who have demands against the Estate will please hand them to me soon.

H. H. BLEASE,
Attorney.

Newberry, June 15th, 1866.

Auction Sales.

I will sell on the first Monday in July next, before the Court House, the lot of land formerly covered by the Boozer Hotel and Thespian Hall. This is a valuable lot with a stable on it.

6 Boxes of Tobacco, 4 boxes of smoking Tobacco, 2 Horses, 2 Mules, and 100 pair of Shoes.

The reason I sell this lot is to get money to feed the hands I have employed. It takes 250lbs of bacon per week to feed them. I lost all my cotton in the fire that burnt the buildings. This is a valuable lot for business of any kind, as it is near the public square.

H. H. KINARD.

An Appeal,

Which will not fall upon cold ears, is now made by the proprietors, to friends and subscribers, who can render very material assistance in this pressing juncture with but little trouble and cost to themselves. It is simply that each subscriber will exert him or herself to get us one or more subscribers WITH THE CASH; all in arrears immediately pay up; and those whose time have expired renew with the CASH also. This is a small matter friends to each individual, but to us in the aggregate it will be very important. We would have it understood that we are not begging, have had no idea of it, but ask only a favor which will be RETURNED in full value with a paper which every man or woman in the district should feel in duty bound to have. Our loss is heavy, no insurance, and an entire new office will have to be procured at heavy expense, and for cash, therefore now is the time to HELP us not only by new additions to the list of subscription, but by paying up back dues. Who will come up first?

IMPORTANT TO FREEDMEN.—The Scientific American says: "The unpleasant odor produced by perspiration is frequently a source of vexation to persons who are troubled with it. Nothing is more simple than to remove this odor much more effectually than by the application of such unguents and perfumes as are in common use. It is only necessary to procure some of the compound spirits of ammonia and place about two table-spoonfuls in a basin of water. Washing the face, hands and arms with this leaves the skin as clean, sweet and fresh as one could wish. The wash is perfectly harmless and very cheap; is recommended on the authority of a distinguished physician."

The Columbus Sun mentions the case of three or four little white girls, 10 or 12 years old, who will not beg for a living, and have gone to work removing bricks from a burnt lot, thereby shaming numerous lazy boys, both white and black, who are too proud or indolent to obtain an honest living. While we honor the spirit those little girls display, we regret that the people of our city cannot find some employment for them better suited to their tender years and delicate limbs.

STEALING ALONG THE RAILROAD.—We have lately heard of several instances of loss along the line of railroad between this and Charleston. It is becoming a nuisance. Corn is stolen, and even boxes nailed and hooped are broken into. Cannot something be done to put a stop to this plunder?—Winnsboro News.

A Mrs. Heron, residing near Caldwell, Noble County, Ohio, recently gave birth to four children—three girls and one boy. The latter died when a few hours old. Mrs. Heron is only thirty-four years old, and is the mother of sixteen children.

THE ART OF BEING POLITE.—First and foremost, don't try to be polite! If you keep overwhelming your guests with ostentatious entreaties to make themselves at home, they will very soon begin to wish they were there. Let them find out that you are happy to see them by your actions rather than words. Always remember to let bashful people alone at first. It is the only way to set them at ease. Trying to draw them out has sometimes the contrary effect of driving them out of the house! Leading the conversation is a dangerous experiment. Better follow in its wake, and if you want to endear yourself to talkers, learn to listen well. Never make a fuss about anything—never talk about yourself—and always preserve composure, no matter what solecism or blunders others may commit. Remember that it is a very foolish proceeding to lament that you can not offer to your guest a better house, or furniture, or viands. It is fair to presume that the visit is to you and not to these surroundings. Give people a pleasant impression of themselves, and they will be pretty sure to go away with a pleasant impression of our qualities. On just such slender wheels as these the whole fabric of society turns; it is your business then to keep them in revolving order.

WHISKEY AND NEWSPAPERS.—An exchange paper, in discussing the relative merits and estimated value of these two articles, says; A glass of whiskey is manufactured perhaps from a dozen grains of corn, the value of which is too small to be estimated. A glass of this mixture sells for a dime, and if of a good brand is considered well worth the money. It is drank in a minute or two. It fires the brain, sharpens the appetite, deranges and weakens the physical system. On the same sideboard on which the deleterious beverage is served, lies a newspaper. It is covered with half a million of types—it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe. The newspaper costs less than the glass of grog—the juice of a few grains of corn—but it is no less strange than true, that there is a large number of people who think corn juice cheap and newspapers dear.

THREE THINGS.—Three things to love—courage, gentleness and affection. Three things to admire—intellectual power, dignity and gracefulness. Three things to hate—cruelty, ignorance and ingratitude. Three things to delight in—beauty, frankness and freedom. Three things to wish for—health, friends and a cheerful spirit. Three things to pray for—faith, peace and purity of heart. Three things to like—cordiality, good humor, and mirthfulness. Three things to avoid—idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting. Three things to cultivate—good books, good friends and good humor.

SINGULAR DIVORCE CASE.—A singular divorce case came off recently at Cannelton Indiana. A young lady in Perry county was married to, all appearance, happily; but ten days after the celebration of nuptials she filed a petition in the Clerks office for divorce, setting up as a plea that the individual she had married was not a man. The evidence on the trial was sufficient to establish this fact, and the divorce was very properly granted.
