

A Conundrum.

Smith Met Jones

on the road this morning and propounded the following conundrum, which Jones could not answer, but agreed it was a good one when Smith explained:

Smith:

Why is a person with a bundle of goods bought of Jaynes & Garwood like the father of new twins?

Jones:

I am sure I don't know, Smith. Why is he like the father of new twins?

Smith:

Why, that's easy. I thought anybody could answer that. It's because he's got twice as much as he expected.

MORAL Buy your goods here and, like the man with the twins, you will get more than you expected and will be sure to return.

JAYNES & GARWOOD,
