—The first game of base ball played here this season took place Monday afternoon between Richland and Walhalla, resulting in a score of 10 to 12 in favor of Walhalla. There will be several other games in the near future.
—Rev. S. D. McAbee will preach next Saturday at Cross Roads Baptist church at 3.30 o'clock; next Sunday morning, 11 o'clock at Chauga Baptist church. All members are urged to be present, and public respectfully invited.
—Order your ice cream from Green Front Ice Cream Parlor. Immediate or future delivery.
—J. P. Knecht, of Toccoa, Ga., was in Walhalla for a short while last Monday on business. Mr. Knecht moved from this section to Madison several years ago, later going to the Georgia side. He is a prosperous farmer and is doing well in his adopted home.
—Harry R. Hughes, a student in the University of South Carolina, was shaking hands with a number of friends in Walhalla Sunday afternoon. He is looking well, as those who are fed on State fare always do, and says he is getting along well as could be expected.
—District Deputy Grand Master O. R. Doyle, of Calhoun, paid Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., an official visit Friday night. He was accompanied by Prof. J. H. Hook, of Clemson College. The double visit of these two gentlemen was greatly appreciated by the local Masons.
—Free band concert and exhibition on the show grounds every night at 7.30, commencing Tuesday, April 28th.
—The proprietors of the Green Front Ice Cream Parlors are the first to install electric lights in their place of business. Several other places will be lighted in a short while—Carter & Co., the Walhalla Drug Company and the Telephone Exchange—and if the business justifies a larger generator will be installed and the service extended. G. L. Wilson has put in the small system as an experiment.
—Green Front Ice Cream Parlor make their ice cream from pure Jersey cream. Try them.

—D. H. Rabens, of Charleston, is in Walhalla for a few days on business and pleasure.
—W. M. Fennell returned yesterday from Greenville, where he spent several days on business.
—W. S. Cross is greatly improving his premises by having a concrete retaining wall placed in front of his property on College street.
—The Easter egg hunt given to the children by the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church last Monday evening, on Prof. J. L. Kennedy's lawn, was a success in every way. Quite a neat little sum was realized by the ladies, and the children enjoyed the evening immensely.
—Married, on Sunday, April 19, 1908, Charlie Moore, of Long Creek, and Miss Amanda Taylor, of Chechero, Rabun county, Georgia, at the residence of the officiating Magistrate, Gus C. Arvo. This young couple have many friends who extend to them many good wishes for continued prosperity through life.
—Baptist Courier: "Bro. L. T. Weldon writes: 'In addition to my work at Walhalla and Central I have accepted the church at Demorest, Ga., for one Lord's day in the month. The Piedmont High School, a college of five hundred pupils, is located at Demorest. The acceptance of this work at Demorest completes an excellent field.'"
—Last Sunday Rev. C. L. Craig officiated at the marriage of Miss Lois Mae Wyatt and Nick Hayes, the ceremony being performed at Rev. Mr. Craig's home in Walhalla. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wyatt, of Fairview, and the groom a son of Rev. D. T. Hayes. The young couple have the best wishes of many friends.
—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Oconee Knitting Mill last Saturday afternoon an increase of capital stock from $30,000 to $50,000 was authorized. The mill was found to be in better condition than at any time since work was begun, and the prospects are very encouraging. A part of the increase in capital was subscribed at the stockholders' meeting.

—Mrs. Geo. W. Wilbanks, who resides a few miles west of Walhalla, was in town yesterday on her way to visit her daughter, Mrs. B. B. Berends, of Alta Vista, Kansas. Mrs. Wilbanks will remain at Alta Vista for several months, and we wish her a pleasant visit. Mr. and Mrs. Berends are engaged extensively in the poultry business and grain farming in Kansas, and are among the most progressive and prosperous citizens of their section.

—A number of young people from Walhalla enjoyed a delightful evening last Friday at the home of Hon. E. E. Verner, near Richland, where they were pleasantly entertained at a social and dance. This home is proverbial for its hospitality, and the last gathering of young people proved that the present days still have a close kinship to the oft times lamented days of old time Southern hospitality. The home was literally turned over to the young folks, and they made merry with a freedom that comes only through the unlimited bounds of hospitality on the part of host and hostess. There were a number of guests also from Seneca and other points, and all were as one in pronouncing the evening's entertainment the pleasantest of the season.

—A. W. Elrod, of Seneca, and W. B. Qualles, of Alabama, paid The Courier, a pleasant call yesterday afternoon. These gentlemen are in Walhalla for a short while among old friends and acquaintances. They recently attended the reception given in Anderson to the survivors of the Palmetto Sharpshooters, Jenkins' Brigade, of which both Mr. Elrod and Mr. Qualles were members. It has been fifty years since the latter visited Walhalla, and he naturally noted marked changes on every hand. C. L. Reid, of Walhalla, was among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Anderson militia company, and the three, with others, renewed acquaintances and regaled each other with reminiscences of the long past in peace and war. Mr. Reid carried the old battle-scarred flag of the Palmetto Sharpshooters, and it was the admiration of all and brought forth many hurrahs, mingled with tears. The Anderson boys wanted to keep the flag in their armory, but we have not been able to learn Mr. Reid's decision. We wish for the trio yet many years of peace and prosperity.

—Louis Harrison, of Lexington, is on a few days' visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harrison.
—Misses Julia and Olive Maxwell are in Anderson to-day among relatives and friends.
—W. L. Verner left this morning for Columbia to attend the meeting of the State Bankers' Association.
—Mrs. J. D. Verner and Mrs. C. W. Banknight are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strother in Woodbury, Ga.
—Louis A. Brennecke left this morning for Laurens, where he will have charge of a special sale for a mercantile firm.
—J. W. Holleran is in Columbia attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Honor. He is representing the Walhalla Lodge of that order.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. G. McAllister, of Columbia, arrived in Walhalla last Saturday on a visit to Mrs. E. A. Bell. Mr. McAllister returned Monday, but Mrs. McAllister will remain in Walhalla for a more extended visit.
—Candidates announced so far are: For Sheriff, W. M. Kay; Superintendent of Education, J. H. Cantrell, T. A. Smith, Clerk of Court, J. F. Craig, C. R. D. Burns; State Senate, J. R. Earle; County Auditor, R. W. Grubbs; County Treasurer, W. J. Schroder, D. H. Rowland.

—Last Monday revenue officers captured from W. D. Roach, near Walhalla, six gallons of corn whiskey in transit. Mr. Roach was arrested and his horse and buggy, harness, etc., confiscated to the General Government. About the same time John Smith and Will Carver were caught in the act of transporting liquor. The officers seized from them a mule and buggy and harness and four gallons of whiskey. The cases against these parties will probably be tried in Greenville this week.

—Mrs. S. B. Hubbard died at her home in the Fairview section last Monday evening, after an illness of several months. She was a most excellent Christian woman and a consistent member of the Baptist church. She leaves her husband and several children, and numerous relatives and friends, to mourn her death. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hunnicutt. Funeral services were conducted yesterday, and the remains interred in the New Hope cemetery, in the presence of a large gathering of sorrowing relatives and friends. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many in their hour of sorrow.

—News was received in Walhalla this morning of the death, at Calhoun, Ga., of Mrs. Virginia Carolina Wright. Her death occurred at 7.45 o'clock last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Wright was born in Oconee county, July 28, 1843, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Shelor. She moved with her father to Gordon county, Georgia, in 1872, and was married to Calvin J. Wright in 1875. She leaves four children and her husband and many relatives to mourn her death. She was a sister of Jos. W. Shelor, Esq., of Walhalla. There are many relatives and friends in Oconee county will learn of her death with deep sorrow.

—Mart Hopkins, who was recently caught transporting liquor through Walhalla, and was lodged in the Oconee jail, escaped from the jail last Thursday afternoon while Sheriff Kay was engaged in official business elsewhere. Hopkins made his exit from the jail by means of digging through the wall with a spoon in to the brick casing about the bars at one of the back windows. After digging into the wall and taking out a few bricks and burning the wood casing a hole was made through which he escaped. Hopkins' case for violation of the internal revenue laws will be tried at the present term of United States Court at Greenville this week. He stated to a negro prisoner several days before he escaped that he was not going to attend Greenville Court, as he would go to Oklahoma in a few days, but Sheriff Kay was not apprised of this until after the escape. Hopkins' home is near Eleton, and the team and outfit captured with him and his liquor are advertised for sale by the General Government.

—Last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Waite, in West End, Walhalla, the marriage of Miss Jessie Mae Farmer and J. F. Cooke, of Pell City, Ala., was solemnized, Rev. C. L. Craig performing the ceremony. The bride is a handsome young woman, well known here, she having been raised in Walhalla, where she lived until about a year ago, when she went to Pell City with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Abbott. The groom is a substantial business man of Pell City, being manager of the St. Clair County Telephone Company, of which his father, Lafayette Cooke, of Cook's Springs, Ala., is the principal owner. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke left Walhalla Monday afternoon for Jacksonville, Fla., and will spend a week or ten days visiting points of interest in that State. The bride is a young woman of amiable disposition and excellent traits, and we congratulate Mr. Cooke upon his good fortune in winning her for his bride. We wish the happy young couple a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Notes from Ramsay's Creek

(Rev.) J. J. Harrell, Chairman.
Jas. H. Burgess, County Secretary.

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. Follow his advice.

Ayer's
Unless there is daily action of the bowels, poisonous products are absorbed, causing headache, biliousness, nausea, dyspepsia. We wish you would ask your doctor about correcting your constipation by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
