

MRS. JAMES W. MOORE DEAD.

Superintendent Brockman Has Resigned—Mrs. E. C. Verner Better.

Seneca, July 9.—Special: On the 23d and 24th of this month the Woman's Missionary Union of the Beaverdam Baptist Association will meet with the society of the Seneca Baptist church. The societies of the association that are not members of the union are invited to send representatives, two from each society, who will be entertained as guests of the union. There will be two business sessions each day, with lunch served on the grounds. Mrs. C. E. Watson, of Greenville, and Mrs. Clinkscapes, of Anderson, will be present and make talks. The meeting promises to be one of great profit and pleasure, and the members of the various societies of other denominations in town are invited to attend the meetings, making the social feature a delightful part thereof. Delegates should send their names promptly to Mrs. F. M. Cary that homes may be provided.

The summer school goes on smoothly and interest is unabated. Seneca is enjoying having the teachers, regarding their presence as a real privilege. It was a source of regret that Miss Goldsmith, teacher of primary methods, had to leave last week, as she was universally popular.

Seneca people, particularly the patrons of our school, regret exceedingly the loss of Superintendent Brockman, who has decided to give up teaching. He will go to Westminster and engage in merchandising. While we regret the loss of Mr. Brockman and his most estimable wife, we wish them success in the change. They have proved a most valuable acquisition to Seneca in every way, and we send with them to Westminster the good will of our people.

Several boys from Seneca and the community will stand the examination for Clemson scholarships next Friday at the Court House.

News was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Jas. W. Moore, of Hampton, the mother of Mrs. E. A. Hines. Mrs. Moore was to have spent the summer with her daughter, and her death comes as a great shock. The sympathies of the community are felt for the loved ones in their sorrow.

Mrs. E. C. Verner, who has been desperately ill for two weeks, is thought to be some better.

Dr. J. S. Stribling is visiting his brother, W. D. Stribling, at Eaton, Ga. The latter is reported seriously sick.

Mrs. J. L. McWhorter and children returned to Augusta Monday afternoon.

The following letter has been received, which expresses beautifully the interest felt by a far-distant loved one in a sick and aged relative:

"We were all deeply grieved to learn of your illness and suffering. The fortitude with which you have endured many afflictions makes me feel sure that you are ready in this also to preserve the same calm and noble serenity of spirit, whatever may be the bodily ills you suffer. You may also reflect upon how goodly a host of your perfectly watch with sympathetic interest your example of courage and patience, and upon the fact that your heritage of immortality looks as reasonably assured as anything our minds can perceive.

"All of us join in love and sympathy to you, and send greetings to all around you.

Your grandson,

Youth Was Victim of Foul Murder.

Asheville, N. C., July 7.—Sensational developments are expected at the inquest which is to be held to inquire into the death of young Claude Pressley, who was found in a dying condition on the tracks of the Southern railway last Friday morning and died while being brought to the city for medical attention. Officials who have been working on the case profess to have discovered evidence tending to prove that Pressley was not struck by a train, as was at first supposed, but was murdered with a hatchet by a man with whom he had an altercation over a jug of whiskey Friday morning. The body, the officials say, was conveyed in a buggy to a point near where it was found and then placed on the track. Pressley's head was gashed in two places, his skull was fractured in three places, and he had a small gash on his arm. It is held that if he had been struck by a train the body would have been crushed, or if the train had only struck the head it would have been mashed out of shape. Officers claim to have the man who did the killing under close surveillance.

THE LOWER DIVISION MEETING.

Next Session Will Be Held on Saturday, September 30th.

Westminster, July 3.—Special: I was asked by the union meeting in the lower division to write the proceedings of the meeting.

We met with Mount Pleasant Baptist church on Saturday and Sunday, July 29th and 30th, with only a few delegates from eleven churches. The program was carried out as published with an additional speech on "Christian Education" by Rev. F. G. Lavender, and a layman's missionary meeting in the afternoon on Sunday. These meetings are helpful to the members of the several churches, and each church should send delegates.

The next meeting of the union in the lower division will be held with Bethel Baptist church, at Oakway, on Saturday and Sunday, the 28th and 29th of September, 1912, and we urge a full attendance from all the churches, and if any member has a query to be discussed, please send it to Bro. W. N. Bruce, Westminster, R. F. D. No. 2. We are going to plan for the biggest and best union meeting ever held in the Beaverdam Association. Will you help us? If so, start at once.

We had a good meeting this time, and the mission spirit is growing. A collection amounting to $17 was taken for State missions. This will be highly appreciated by the State board.

THE FOURTH WAS ENJOYED.

Millville Sunday School Held Splendid Picnic Last Thursday.

On the Fourth the members of the Millville Sunday school and their friends held an enjoyable picnic at Hetrick Park. There was a large attendance, about three hundred being present. At 11 o'clock interesting talks were made by Rev. W. T. Duncan and Rev. L. M. Lyda. Dinner was served in the shady grove from well-filled baskets, and was enjoyed by all in old-fashioned picnic style. J. C. Bentley, superintendent, and George Thompson, teacher of Class No. 1, planned the exercises of the day and did much to contribute to the pleasure and success of the occasion.

The children from both mill villages attended en masse and enjoyed the day very much. The holiday was well spent, the best of order prevailed, and a high standard of behavior was fixed for similar exercises in the future. And such occasions should be more frequent.

The enrollment in the Millville school is about sixty, and it is hoped in the near future to increase it to at least one hundred. There are several children in both villages who do not attend, but should do so. Efforts are being made to bring all these children into the school, and the parents should lend a helping hand. Here is an opportunity to do welfare work that will count much for the training of children in the right way. May superintendent and teachers receive the help and encouragement they so richly deserve in this important work.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.
