LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

An early Easter service will be held at St. John's Lutheran church next Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. The regular service, with the administration of the Lord's Supper, will be at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The church will be decorated with flowers and evergreen. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

The Rook Club had a most delightful meeting with Mrs. Dresden Smith Tuesday afternoon of last week. Several visitors added greatly to the pleasures of the afternoon. At the conclusion of the game the hostess, assisted by Miss Bessie Taylor, served a delicious salad course, with iced tea. The club will meet with Mrs. Chas. A. Hetrick March 30th.

We are glad to see our good friend, W. D. Dodd, in and out of Walhalla quite frequently at the present time, and to note that he will be with us in a business way in the future. To-day Mr. Dodd is opening a garage where he will conduct a repair shop, in which special attention will be given to auto work of all kinds as well as general repairs to engines, etc. He is located in the room formerly occupied by Robert G. Macaulay. Mr. Dodd and family will continue to reside at Westminster for the present. We wish him success in his undertaking here.

I have about 35 head of good young horses and mules to sell, and they are worth the money. Will sell for cash or good paper. These are all real work stock—just the kind you will need for the heavy spring work. Also have bugles, wagons and harness, silver plows and repairs, Chattanooga plows and repairs—all to go at right prices. Milk cows and beef cattle. Come and see me. W. M. Brown, Walhalla, S. C.—adv.

Charlotte (N. C.) News, March 18th: "Queens College will be represented at the Palmafesta, to be held for one week at Columbia, S. C., March 28 to April 2, and to be participated in by all South Carolina. Miss Carrie Darby Harrison of Walhalla, S. C., is the Queens College representative. She will, however, represent her home county—Oconee—of which Walhalla is the county seat. Recently popularity contests were conducted in all South Carolina to select representatives to attend the Palmafesta, and from these there will be selected at Columbia during the week of carnival a Queen of Palmafesta. Miss Harrison's friends at the college, as well as many of her admirers and friends in Oconee county, are willing to place odds that she will be close to the winner when the votes are counted at the Palmafesta. The current issue of The Keowee Courier, printed at Walhalla, tells of the contest that ended in the election of Miss Harrison as Oconee county's representative at the Palmafesta, which is a unique institution of its kind, and which is expected in time to become of nation-wide interest because of its singular features. Miss Harrison is a member of the junior class at Queens, where she is a popular member of the student body.

On Monday of last week Mrs. Minnie Smith died at her home near Salem, after an illness of some considerable duration. The deceased was well known in Walhalla and other sections of the county, and was the wife of R. E. Smith. Before her marriage she was Miss Minnie Colley, a daughter of the late Rev. J. B. Colley. She was born in Pickens county, Feb. 11, 1871. Her parents moved from Pickens county and located in the Salem section of Oconee when the deceased was but seven years of age, and since that time Salem had been her home. She became a member of the Salem Baptist church in early life, and was a consistent member of that church continuously until the time of her death. The day following her death the remains were laid to rest in the Whitmire cemetery, there being a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends present to pay the last sad tribute to the memory of the deceased. Rev. Abercrombie, of Pickens, but formerly pastor of the Salem Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Jones, the present pastor of the Salem church, conducted the funeral services. Mrs. Smith leaves to mourn her death, of her own immediate family, one brother, J. S. Colley, of Walhalla, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Lee, of Westminster, and Mrs. Jossie Talley, of Salem. Her father, mother and one brother preceded her to the grave. She is also Smith, and three step-children, William and Eugene Smith and Mrs. Bessie Alexander. Mrs. Smith was an exemplary woman, greatly beloved by all who knew her, and her life was full of good works. There are many who will learn with deep regret of her death, and who will join with The Courier in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

Little Mary Louise Rutledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rutledge, has been seriously ill for the past ten days at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. P. Cantrell. We are glad to learn, however, that the condition of the little one is reported to be very much improved.

North Anderson Singing Association.

The North Anderson Singing Association will meet with the Fant's Grove Baptist church next Sunday, March 27th, all day. Everybody is cordially invited to attend, as we are expecting several singers of note, among whom are R. N. Gresham, W. P. Stevenson, W. M. Murphree, R. N. Smith, W. W. Halo and W. O. McKenney. Come, and bring your song books and well-filled baskets, and let us make the day one of praise and service to God.

W. C. Barnett, President.
C. D. Fowler, Secretary.

A curious idea among the Burmese is that people born on the same day of the week must not marry.
