BITS OF NEWS FROM SENECA

The Road to Walhalla is Getting Better Every Day—Personals.

Seneca, May 24.—Special: Mrs. E. Hopkins went to Atlanta last Saturday to be with her sister, who is quite ill.

The eight-months-old baby of Mrs. Khoury, of West Main street, died Friday, the 20th, after an illness of only a few days.

Charles Stribling, of Greenville, was in Seneca Sunday visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. H. Burgess, Mrs. S. K. Dendy and Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Hines will attend Winthrop commencement the first of next week.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Methodist church, Rev. A. E. Driggers, of Clemson College, assisting Rev. M. P. Hardy, the local pastor. Sunday night the church was full to overflowing, many sitting on the lawn outside. Mr. Driggers' subject was "Four Excuses to Becoming a Christian," which he delineated in his interesting and edifying style. Services will continue through the week.

The friends of Mrs. Francis Bowen Adams will be glad to know that she is recovering from her recent illness, at her home in Florence.

The Wizard of Tamassee Chapter, D. A. R., was delightfully entertained last Wednesday evening by Mrs. W. Verner. Owing to a misunderstanding in dates there were not enough members present to elect officers for the coming year. A called meeting will be held in the near future for this purpose.

Mrs. E. C. Doyle was hostess to the Once-a-Week Club on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Burgess, president, was in the chair, and the literary program was given by each member in turn, the subject being "National Social Problems." During the recess the hostess, assisted by Misses Helen Ramsey and Louise Bowen, served a delightful salad course and fruit punch. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Hopkins.

The road between our town and the place nearer heaven is beginning to look like "Joy rides" again. We met one not less than sixty-four-year-old man was seen returning to Seneca the other afternoon. We could hear him coming before we caught a glimpse of him (glimpse is right), and the roar of his approach reminded us of the Charleston earthquake—or would have if we could remember "so far back." All the flying machines aren't aircraft these days. We're thinking of taking to the air for safety.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harper and baby, of Columbia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Harper on Townville street.

Local Notes from Bounty Land.

Bounty Land, May 23.—Special: Miss Pearl Ballenger is on a visit to her brother, Charles Ballenger, in Greenville, and taking in the chautauqua attractions.

The highway from Seneca to Walhalla is almost complete, and quite a number of the employees left a few days ago for Whiteoak, in Lexington county, where they will be engaged in similar work. H. T. Lattimore and J. Russell, two of the foremen, accompanied the force.

Miss Nettie Hubbard, who has been teaching in the lower part of the State, is taking her vacation at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hubbard.

Jefferson McMahan and John Verner, of Clemson College, were at home the week-end.

Miss Susan Doyle, of Augusta, Ga., quite recently of San Francisco, Cal., where she has been for the past ten months, is at home for a ten days' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Doyle.

Tom Anderson, of Greenville, was a week-end guest of his aunt, Mrs. S. N. Hughs.

Miss Emily Corbin, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. D. A. Perritt, during the past scholastic year, and attending the Seneca High School, left Sunday for her home in Cashiers, N. C.

Bill Stone was the fortunate winner in a guessing contest a few days ago, the prize being a valuable saw offered by the Adams Hardware Co., of Seneca, to the one who came the nearest guessing the number of saw teeth in a lot of some thirty-five or more saws. Bill is to be congratulated on his good luck.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Austin and Mr. Hopkins, of Seneca, attended service at Rock Springs Sunday afternoon. The Doctor gave an interesting address on Christian Education. Mr. Hopkins also took part in the services, reading a paper bearing on this line of work.

Miss Grace Verner, who has been teaching at Kirksey, returned Tuesday of last week for a vacation. Miss Verner is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Verner.

Ebenezer R. S. I. A.

The Ebenezer Rural School Improvement Association will meet on Friday, May 27th, at 3 o'clock, at the Ebenezer school buildings. A short literary program will be carried out. Miss Ethel Counts is expected to be at our meeting. All the members are urged to be present. The public is cordially invited.

Cartoonist in Big "Joy Night" Program at Chautauqua

ALTON PACKARD.

Alton Packard, master cartoonist and humorist extraordinary, at the coming Redpath Chautauqua, presents a comedy musical and cartoon revue. Quality and humor in songs, stories and caricature, are the distinguishing features of the program. Packard is known the country over for his picturesque humor, his pictorial philosophy and fun.

To the young men of Oconee:

This is to call your attention to the fact that there will be three vacant scholarships in Oconee county from Clemson College this year—two four-year scholarships, which are worth $140 each per year, and one one-year scholarship, which is worth $140. The one-year scholarship for Oconee county was vacant this year. No one applied for it at all. That means that a boy from some other county received Oconee's scholarship this year. Boys, this ought not to be. I will be glad to have you call at my office at any time to talk this matter over with me.

The examination will be held Friday, July 8, 1921. Get ready, boys, and take advantage of this opportunity of getting an education. Respectfully, L. C. Speares, Superintendent of Education.

Goodly Number Teachers Present at Session, Which Opened Monday.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES.

On Monday afternoon, May 16th, Miss Elizabeth Forney, specialist in dairying, gave a butter demonstration to the women at Oakway, in the grove back of Mrs. Hutchins' store. The demonstration was well attended, and Miss Forney was invited to come again and give a demonstration in butter judging. It is hoped that all who expect to sell butter will attend these meetings, for unless we do standardize our butter we cannot hope for a market, much less a better price.

On Tuesday afternoon fifty women gathered at the home of Mrs. Ottilie Burris, at South Union, and a number of them brought butter for Miss Forney to judge. The scores were as follows: Mrs. Forney, 100; Mrs. Burris, 95; Mrs. ...

The Officers' Council of the Home Demonstration Clubs held a meeting after the butter scoring. Plans were made for community meetings of the various clubs during the summer months. Ice tea and sandwiches were enjoyed by those present.

On Wednesday afternoon the Fairfield Cooking Club met with Mary Lou Reid. The girls made cake and frosting, which they seemed to enjoy.

On Thursday visited garden club and inspected gardens. Friday and Saturday were spent in the office on account of the weather.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN WHITE WITH LEMON.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quart of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—adv.

ALL THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN

Oconee County to Meet in Chautauqua Tent, Walhalla, Next Sunday, May 29th, at 3 P. M.

While the three largest towns in the county are engaged in their Sunday School Contest for Increased Attendance of the people in the schools, it has been decided to hold a grand mass meeting of the Sunday Schools of the county in the Chautauqua Tent at Walhalla on Sunday afternoon, May 29th, at 3 o'clock. Good, live speakers have been invited to be present to address the meeting.

Have your voices in good trim and be ready to make that tent fairly rise from the ground with music that can't be kept down.

This is to be a COUNTY affair, so have your school represented and let us make it a great day in Oconee County Sunday Schools. If the tent won't hold the people, there is plenty of room all around it, and we can raise the side walls, and everybody will be outside, or inside, just as you choose to call it. COME!

Attention, Legionnaires!

The body of Sanford Cain, who died in France, landed in New York on the 21st and is expected to reach Westminster this week. If the body arrives this week it will be buried at Center Methodist church, near Oakway. The father, J. C. Cain, wishes his son to be buried by the American Legion, so let's be on the lookout for the arrival of the body of our former comrade.

A Comrade. Note.—In case of the arrival of the body in time, the burial will be solemnized next Sunday, May 29th, at 3 o'clock p. m.
