COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES. Bee Week in Oconee.

During "Bee Week" in Oconee a total of nine demonstrations were held with the bee-keeping specialist, Mr. Prevost, with a total attendance of 74 persons. Great interest was shown at all points in the county visited. Farmers are more interested than ever before in bee-keeping on account of the low price of cotton.

A total of fourteen old box gums were done away with and replaced by modern hives. To give some idea of the value of the work done, some two years ago Davis Martin, of Oakway, transferred, under the specialist's direction, to two modern hives, and this year has obtained about 300 pounds of first-class honey from them. Figure this at 35 cents a pound.

Many who witnessed the demonstrations will find it easy to continue to transfer their own and their neighbors' bees into modern hives, and this they intend doing.

Coming Events for Farmers.

Watch this column later for dates for the big trip to Wade Drake's farm, where our friend Winters will show us on the ground where his talks are being worked out in practice.

A big tri-county picnic will be held this summer, when farm work has about finished, at Clemson College. Club members, farmers and all others interested in better agriculture are urged to attend this meeting and mingle with farmers from Anderson and Pickens counties.

Also, five good reels of motion pictures have been ordered from the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington for exhibition to the club members, their families, farmers and the public in general. It is expected that free shows will be held at the moving picture shows in the three towns on July 27th and 28th. Such pictures as "Good-bye, Boll Weevil," "Liars and Layers," and "Hunting and Fishing in the National Forests of Colorado" have been ordered.

Trip of Inspection.

On Wednesday, June 29th, landowners along the proposed drainage district of Beaverdam creek have been asked to make a trip of inspection over some of the creeks recently drained in Anderson county. The Oconee agent will meet the party at Townville, and from there take the party to see the Anderson county agent, who will pilot the crowd around. The government engineer has already inspected the creeks proposed for drainage.

Boll Weevils.

Farmers have brought in all types of bugs to the county agent for identification, and they have been rose beetles and other kinds of beetles and weevils. The agent has secured a bottle of DPAID weevils from the State entomologist, and has them in a bottle for showing to those who may wish to see how the real weevil looks.

Along about Aug. 1st farmers will probably find weevils to a limited extent, for they are thick from Anderson county on down, and those boll weevils are good fliers, and they start flying usually along in August. Wet or cloudy weather will increase the abundance of weevils in the State. No need to worry here this year. But—more later.

Black Leg in Young Cattle.

P. J. Shook, of Walhalla, lost a heifer last week, apparently from black leg, and immediately the black leg filtrate solution was ordered from the State veterinarian and administered to his other calves.

W. H. Armstrong, of Richland, treats his usually every year against this disease, treating them himself as the operation is very simple, with a syringe. Washing of the germs from pastures during high water along creeks is the chief means of the disease spreading.

Office Days, Seneca and Westminster.

On the first Saturday of the next month (July 2d) interviews with the county agent may be had at the store of P. C. Ayer, in Seneca.

With the exception of July, when office day will be held in Westminster on Saturday, July 23d, office day thereafter will be held on the third Saturday in the month, at the cotton grader's office.

Any problems the county agent can handle to get assistance on will be cheerfully tackled. Come to see him at these points. Will be at Walhalla the other Saturdays, unless otherwise engaged in the work.

Church Notice.

After the preaching service Sabbath morning, July 2d, the ordinance of humility and the Lord's Supper will be observed at the Seventh Day Adventist church, West Union. Evangelist James Bellingier, of Greenville, will preach in the church Sunday night, July 3d. The public is cordially invited.

HAM, THOMASON MAY LOSE LIFE

As Result of Conflict with Officers Seeking to Make Arrest.

Yesterday (Tuesday) about noon Ham, Thomason was shot by officers in the lower part of the county, the officers being in the discharge of their duty and Ham, Thomason, Andy Sanders and another man not known, resisting them.

Officers Arthur Lollis and Louis Glymph had information in regard to stilling operations in the Knox's Bridge section and were on their way to investigate when they came across three men with various utensils and apparatus used in the manufacture of liquor. The officers were accosted with the inquiry, "What the are you doing in here?" and admonition, none too polite, that it would be well for them to take themselves to other parts.

The three men suspected then began firing on the officers, who were able to seek the shelter of some trees and save themselves. They returned the fire and one man fell seriously if not fatally wounded. As Thomason fell, Sanders and his other companion fled. Examination showed that a bullet had penetrated Thomason's abdomen, going in on the left side at the front and coming out in the back at the right side. His intestines were perforated in nine places, and as soon as Dr. Mayes, of Fair Play, could give him quick attention, he was rushed to the Anderson Hospital for treatment. Dr. Mayes told Thomason that his chances of recovery were slight, and Thomason then said that he wanted to state before he died that he and his companions were to blame for the occurrence, they having fired first.

Neither Sanders nor the other man has as yet been apprehended. Sanders is a son of Alvin Sanders, who has given officers considerable trouble in the past and who last year served a sentence, having been convicted of violation of the liquor law. Word just received in Walhalla from Anderson stated that Thomason died this (Wednesday) morning at 4 o'clock.

Attempt Break Jail.

Another attempt to break jail has been foiled. The culprits were caught in the act of prying loose a section of the concrete floor at the base of the wall in the corridor upstairs, and it was also found that they had been sawing at one of the bars. A prisoner by the name of Standridge, and John Swoford, were the ones engaged in this little enterprise.

Bob Scott, wanted in Oconee on a charge of larceny, has been caught in Greenville by officers. He was taken in the act of stealing before it was known that he was the man being sought for Oconee officers. The Oconee officers will endeavor to get him for trial ahead of the thrashing out of the Greenville charges.

HUNSINGER-MONTGOMERY.

Marriage Took Place in Walhalla. Pleasant Surprise to Friends.

Coneross, June 28.—Special: An interesting event occurred on last Thursday afternoon at the home of Rev. L. W. Langston, at 3.15, when Miss Jane Hunsinger and G. F. Montgomery were united in marriage. The wedding party drove from here in a touring car driven by Mr. Haynes, of Walhalla, brother-in-law of the groom. Only Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, of Walhalla, and J. C. Montgomery, of Spartanburg, and Miss Pearl Hunsinger witnessed the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. Mr. Langston.

This was a pleasant surprise to many of their friends here. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party drove to Seneca, where the bride and groom took the train for Spartanburg, where they visited the groom's father, J. C. Montgomery, and other relatives. From there they went to Laurens, where they were the guests of Mr. Montgomery's brother, John Montgomery, and family, also paying a short call to the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. DuBose. On their way back home they spent some time with the sister of the bride, Miss Bewley Hunsinger, of Greenville. They arrived here yesterday afternoon and are at Mrs. Montgomery's mother's, Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger. They will leave this morning for Walhalla, where the groom will take up his work again as clerk in the V. M. Company's store.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. S. M. Hunsinger, of this community, and the groom is the son of J. C. Montgomery, of Spartanburg.

Mr. Montgomery is to be congratulated on winning a bride so sweet and gentle. He is a young man of noble ambitions and of sterling worth.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will make their home in Walhalla. They have a host of friends to join us in extending to them all good wishes and congratulations.

Dr. W. J. Langston, of Greenville, will fill the pulpit at Coneross again next Sunday. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend all services at the Coneross church.

WILL SOON LEAVE FOR CHINA.

Church People Tender Reception and Shower to Miss Grace Stribling

Westminster, June 27.—Special: On Friday, June 17th, the Westminster Baptist church gave a reception in honor of Miss Grace Stribling, who is soon to leave for China to do mission work. She was received by the ladies in the parlors of the church, which were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and pot plants. Miss Carmen Cross had charge of the "Memory Book," in which each of the guests wrote a heartfelt wish for the young missionary.

The afternoon's entertainment was interspersed with vocal solos by Miss Eleanor Keese and a chorus by members of the Girls' Auxiliary. The pastor, Dr. Andrews, made a short talk of praise and appreciation that expressed the feeling of each one present. Mrs. C. C. Whitmore, president of the W. M. S., also gave an appropriate talk and suggested that, since Miss Stribling was going into a new land and would have many unusual experiences, the ladies would like for her to show how she would try to use an adjoining room were opened, and when Miss Stribling was led into it she was surprised to find a washing machine overflowing with useful gifts of all kinds. As she took the "washing" out a bevy of young ladies hung these tokens of love on a clothes line, which proved to be entirely too short to hold the numerous gifts of her friends.

Miss Stribling expressed her thanks with much feeling and love. During the afternoon refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Indians associated the beaver with the creation of the world and would not kill it.

grade cannot enter any of the standard colleges except on condition.

The parents of children who finished the tenth grade last year are urged to take this under consideration and to send their boys and girls through the 11th grade, especially if they intend to have them enter college. A pupil finishing the 11th grade is entitled to a diploma from the State and can enter any college of his or her choice.
