FIRE OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN, CAPTURED HUFFMAN AND FORD, Six Men and Ninety Gallons of Corn Liqueur in Westminster.

It is Believed—Store and Postoffice at Long Creek Destroyed by Fire
Last Thursday night the postoffice at Long Creek was destroyed by fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin. In the rear of the building in which the postoffice was located a store was conducted by a Mr. Wilson, and this, too, was a complete loss.

Fortunately the government's money—not a large amount—representing the postoffice receipts, was saved, Postmaster Geo. Matheson having carried the cash home with him in the evening.

It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin, and there are indications that the guilty parties may be gotten. The suspicious circumstances center around certain facts in regard to the illegal manufacture of liquor in that section. On several occasions revenue officers have as a matter of convenience stopped at the Matheson for meals and lodging, and on the night previous to the fire had taken lodging there. They were returning from a raid in which two large stilling plants had been destroyed. "And thereby hangs a tale."

George Matheson is one of the best citizens of Oconee county—staunch, honest, open. He is opposed to the illegal traffic in liquor, as are the great majority of the good people of the Long Creek section and other sections of our hill country. And, it is generally believed, and not without good grounds for the belief, that Mr. Matheson has sustained this loss as a penalty for his good citizenship and willingness to give shelter to the men whom the government sends out to suppress moon-shining.

LOCAL NEWS FROM SENECA.

Announcement is Made of October Wedding—Personal Paragraph.

Seneca, Sept. 19.—Special: Mrs. and Mrs. Francis Adams, of Columbia, arrived the latter part of the week on a visit to their homefolks. Mr. Adams returned to Columbia Monday, but Mrs. Adams will remain a few days longer.

Malcom Dickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pat Dickson, of the Oakway section, left Tuesday morning for Columbia for the purpose of entering the Presbyterian Theological Seminary for a four-year course.

There will be preaching Sunday afternoon at the Episcopal church at 3:30 o'clock by the rector, Rev. Guy Frazier. It will be learned with regret that Rev. Frazier has tendered his resignation to the group of churches—Grace church of Anderson, Seneca and Walhalla—which he has served most acceptably for about two years. He has accepted the pastorate of St. Mark's church in Palatka, Fla.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Nancy Evans, of Pendleton, to William Lowry Austin, of Seneca, will be of special interest to a large number of their friends and those of their families in this part of the State. Miss Evans was one of the teachers in the Seneca High School last year and made warm friends here, who will be pleased to know that she will claim Seneca as her home after her marriage in October. Mr. Austin is the only son of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Austin, and is to be congratulated on his good fortune.

Owing to the resignation of one of the fourth grade teachers of our school a few days before the opening session, Miss Nancy Hines consented to supply the vacancy for a short time, until a regular teacher could be supplied, and Miss Hines filled the place most acceptably. The school board was fortunate in securing Mrs. B. T. Craven, who comes highly recommended, and entered upon her duties Monday morning. Mr. Craven is a member of the high school faculty.

Miss Nancy Hines left Tuesday for New York, where she will continue her studies in music this winter at a university. Miss Hines is an accomplished musician and has been a member of the faculty of music at Winthrop College for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brock spent Monday in Anderson.

Mrs. W. R. Davis visited Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Livingston in Greenville several days this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Baskin will move into the house recently vacated by Butler Kelley on Walhalla street.

The Presbyterian congregation had a rare musical treat Sunday at the evening preaching service. Miss Nancy Hines, organist, Marcellus Martens, violinist, and Mrs. Hugh McCaulay, pianist, and with Homer Ballenger's clear tenor voice, held the undivided attention of the congregation. Rev. I. E. Wallace delivered an exceptionally forceful sermon.

Last Saturday morning about two o'clock Federal revenue officers made one of the most "valuable" catches of the season. They were lying in wait for the offenders at intersecting streets that lead out of Westminster in the direction of the everlasting hills of Oconee and toward Georgia.

The officers engaged in the arrest of the parties and the trapping of the cars were R. Q. Merrick, J. Gosnell and Mr. Austin, of the Federal revenue service. They had lain hidden near the road all night Friday awaiting the approach of the liquor car and were chafing under the tiresome business and considering giving up when the sound of an approaching car at 2 o'clock Saturday morning gave them intimation that their long wait had not been in vain. They had their big car across the road so that any approaching car would have to stop in order to proceed beyond the point of barricade. A big Huffman car, however in sight, slowed down, and the four occupants made a jump and a run for liberty. But they were all landed by the officers, who thought that a good morning's work had been finished. They had captured four men, a good car and twenty gallons of liquor, and were arranging matters incident to conveying the captured outfit through Westminster on to Walhalla, when their ears caught the sound of another car approaching from the west. This car proved to be of the Ford species and contained two men and seventy gallons of corn whiskey. These two men also made a dash for liberty, but were taken in tow before they had made much of a start for the tall timber.

Going further into town the men were held by the local officers for a talk with the mayor of Westminster, who, we understand, levied and collected an assessment of $600—one hundred for each of the six men—for breaking local laws. The party was then brought on to Walhalla and lodged in jail, later appearing before Magistrate Hughs, of the State Judicial system, representing Oconee, and County Commissioner Hughs, representing the United States.

The Huffman car party consisted of G. P. Marett, J. S. Ellis, R. D. Bailey and Neill Oglesby, all said to be citizens of Anderson county. Ellis and Marett have been released on bond in the sum of $800 each—$500 for the Federal and $300 for the State court. Bailey and Oglesby had not at the time this was written been able to make bond and were still in jail.

The occupants of the Ford car were Alfred Taylor and W. E. Buttle, also said to be from Anderson county. A similar bond of $800 each was made for these two by Joe H. M. Ashley, of Anderson. The Ford was also let "out on bond" in the sum of $600.

CONCROSS AND COMMUNITY.

Numerous Interesting Church and Society Meetings—Personals.

Concress, Sept. 19.—Special: The B.Y.P.U. was very largely attended last evening. After the program had been carried out the B.Y.P.U. elected new officers, as follows: W. P. Alexander, president; B. W. Alexander, vice president; Miss Janie Alexander, secretary; Miss Beulah Barker, assistant secretary; Miss Lena Abbott, corresponding secretary; Miss Minnie Barker, treasurer; W. P. Haynes, chorister; Miss Codye Alexander, organist; Miss Pearl Hunsinger, Bible readers' leader. Group captains: No. 1, W. P. Haynes; No. 2, Walter Duckworth; No. 3, Paul Barker; No. 4, Colie Abbott.

Lesley and Lyston Morgan and two sons, Ray and Ernest, of near Central, and Stanley Morgan, of near Pickets, spent last Thursday with the Messrs. Barker here.

Mrs. R. A. P. Dean, of Avalon, Ga., spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of W. T. Alexander and among other relatives and friends here.

The W.M.S. at Concress have divided their society into four circles and are meeting in the different homes and doing good work. They are all requested to meet together at the church on Thursday, Sept. 29, to carry out the State mission program, at 2 p. m. They also meet together once every month at the church, the time for the regular monthly meeting being Saturday before the third Sunday in each month at 2 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Janie South, of Ware Shoals, was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Clara DuBose. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Dullose and family, of Greenville, were also recent visitors in the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Montgomery, of Walhalla, spent Friday and Saturday at Concress.

At the B.Y.P.U. next Sunday evening sixteen diplomas will be delivered to the members who have taken the course in the B.Y.P.U. Manual. We have invited an able speaker to deliver the diplomas and also give a talk, and we always extend an invitation to everybody to attend our meetings. Those who are to receive the diplomas are especially urged to be present on this occasion.

On Saturday, Oct. 1st, at 2 p. m. the Blue Ridge school trustees will let a contract for painting the school building. All those interested in the

IMPORTANT MEETING ON THURSDAY NIGHT

The city of Greenville is preparing to stage a great pageant of the Piedmont some time in November, and she wants the co-operation of the people of her own county, Oconee, Pickens, Anderson, Laurens, Spartanburg and Cherokee in making this event the splendid representation that it ought to be. The scope of the proposed pageant is large, embracing the period from 1730 on down to the present.

In order that our people may learn of the proposed pageant in detail and get interesting and valuable information concerning plans and purposes, a meeting is hereby called, to be held at the American Legion Hall, on Thursday (tomorrow) evening at 7:30. Be sure to be present promptly—

All members of the D. A. R., U. D. C., Civic League, and all business men of the town. All are urged to come and take a part. Those who may have old Colonial costumes are requested to bring them with them to the meeting.

Respectfully,
W. M. Brown, Mayor.

ANDERSON'S FALL TRADE WEEK

Great Merchandising Event to Take Place Sept. 26 to Oct. 1.

Anderson, Sept. 20.—Special: What promises to be the greatest merchandising event ever staged in Upper South Carolina will begin in Anderson Monday, Sept. 26, and last through the week to Oct. 1. Nearly three-score Anderson merchants, animated by the desire to give their thousands of patrons of the whole Anderson trading territory a season of genuine bargains and values, have banded together to put on the big Style Show and Trade Week to which buyers from all of Anderson county and contiguous territory are preparing to come.

Under the auspices of the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce not only clothing and dry goods dealers, but hardware, grocery, automobile, music, drug, confectionery and other dealers have come in for the big selling event. A spirit of genuine co-operation has arisen, aimed ultimately at giving the shopper throughout this section bargains, after the buying of which he will always trade in Anderson stores.

The Style Show and Trade Week will be six days of genuine bargains and values, all placed at the disposal of shopping people of the Anderson territory. Every merchant in every line has agreed to place on display his choicest buys straight from the Eastern market at prices rarely, if ever, seen in this section. A concerted effort from Anderson merchants to give every buyer coming here during the week the biggest possible values for his dollar is certain to meet with the approval of people over the section and draw an unprecedented crowd here, not only for one or two days, but during the entire Trade Week.

With the big merchandise event yet several days away, the Anderson stores are already a-buzz with preparations for the opening on Sept. 26. Thousands of dollars' worth of new fall goods of all kinds are being placed on display in the stores. The very latest styles will be ready for the shopper who wants cuts and frills straight from Parisian designers via New York and Philadelphia. For the conservative buyer who wants honest-to-goodness wearing quality from his purchase the stores have an abundance of showings representing values not seen since the ante-bellum days of 1914 and '15.

Every man, woman and child in the whole Anderson trading territory knows that cotton has advanced around 75 per cent within the past 30 days. With this is bound to come a bit later higher prices in all kinds of garments and goods made of the South's great staple. "Buy Now" is the timely advice of every dealer in Anderson. They have bought their goods before the recent advance, and thus will be able to hand out tremendous savings otherwise impossible.

Be ready for the coming feast of bargains to be dispensed in Anderson during the week of Sept. 26 to Oct. 1. Thousands will come here to avail themselves of the offerings, and if you can't come one day, come another—but by all means get here some time during the Week. The half-page announcement appearing elsewhere in this issue of this paper gives full information concerning this big event.

priceless Window Smashed for Loot.

Meaux, France, Sept. 15.—Burglars who secured less than a dollar's worth of booty for their vandalism smashed one of the priceless stained glass windows in the 800-years-old Cathedral of St. Etienne here last night to gain entrance to the edifice.

$150,000 Fire at Batesburg.
Batesburg, Sept. 17.—Fire, discovered in the business section of this place early this morning, caused a loss that will reach $150,000, with insurance of $50,000 to $75,000.

Carl Simpson, of Iva, visited relatives in this community Saturday. M. M. Alexander, of Texas, is on an extended visit to J. M. Hopkins, near here.

Center Township Singing Association
The Center Township Singing Association will meet with Mount Pleasant church (better known as Black Jack) on the fourth Sunday afternoon, Sept. 25th, at 2 o'clock. All good singers and lovers of music are invited.

J. W. King,
Secretary and Treasurer.
