LOCAL NEWS NOTES OF SENECA.

R. M. Tribble Continues Seriously Ill. Young Folks Coming Home.

Seneca, Dec. 13.—Special: Mrs. Kate Smith and Mrs. Lula Gaillard, of Walhalla, were shopping in Seneca recently. Eugene Simon and Reed McCary, of Pendleton, were business visitors here last week. Mrs. J. H. Adams is expected to return to her home here Friday, after a pleasant visit of ten days in Adairsville, Ga., with her daughter, Mrs. Frank King, and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brock had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clayton and baby, of Anderson. Mrs. L. A. Edwards, Mrs. John Edwards and Mrs. Frank Alexander formed a congenial motor party on Tuesday, going to Greenville for the day. Mrs. W. R. Davis, Miss Sara Davis and Mrs. H. F. Alexander are to go to St. Augustine, Fla., to spend several weeks. Miss Leona Kautman, of Walhalla, was among the out-of-town shoppers in Seneca recently. There are many in Seneca and throughout the county who will regret to learn that the condition of R. M. Tribble does not indicate any improvement. Mr. Tribble has been in declining health for more than 12 months, and for six or eight months he has been confined to his bed most of the time, and seems to grow gradually weaker. Mrs. Gordon Carson and two children, of Holly Hill, are expected to arrive Thursday night to spend until after Christmas with Mrs. Gordon's mother, Mrs. W. S. Hunter, and family. Miss Nancy Hines is expected to return home from New York next week. She has been taking a special post-graduate course in music. The December meeting of the D. A. R. will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Verner. The members are requested to assemble promptly at 4 o'clock. Miss Marie Belotte will spend the holidays at home, after a successful term in Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn. In the next few days the young girls and boys will be turning their faces homeward for the Christmas holidays. Among the number from Seneca are Misses Frances Alexander and Lela Barron, Lander College; Camille Wood, Anderson College; Alice Adams, Nina Harper and Madaline Jilworth, Grace Alexander, Greenville Woman's College; Brenice Bun, Chocoma College; Marie Belotte, Maryville College; Edgar Hines, of Porter Military Academy; Jim Shirley, Bailey Military Institute; Roderick Helter, John Morris, Will Anderson, McGarvey Cox, Sloan Stribling, Clarence Elison and Francis Carey, Clemson. Miss Louise Dendy will spend the Christmas season at home, coming from Dunn, N. C., where she has been teaching in the city schools. Miss Clyde Smith, of the Abbeville school faculty; Miss Nell Hines, a teacher of history in Danville, Va.; High School; Miss Mary Hines, of Winston-Salem, N. C., are expected to arrive in the next few days to be with homefolks during Christmas holidays. Miss Typhaine Burgess arrived on Tuesday morning from Baltimore, where she has been for four months. She will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Burgess.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

See our Xmas boxes of soap, in steel lock boxes that are easily worth the price of it all. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—adv. At the last meeting of Walhalla Lodge, No. 67, K. of P., the following officers were elected to serve for the year 1922: Arthur Brown, C. C.; Guy Cox, V. C.; J. H. Norman, Prelate; R. G. Macaulay, M. of W.; T. B. Shelor, K. of R. and S.; C. W. Pitchford, Jr., M. of Ex.; J. W. Shelor, M. of F.; J. B. Mauldin, M. at A.; Ralph Hatrick, I. G.; D. B. Fitzgerald, O. G. The new officers will be installed at the meeting to be held on the 2d Thursday in January, 1922, (the 20th.) The Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co. will operate their bins for full time until Dec. 24.—adv.-49-50. E. N. Holden, of Whetstone, left at The Courier office last Thursday four fine turkeys, the four weighing 12 1/2 pounds. They are of extra good quality, sound and firm, having attained their great size without becoming pithy or strong in flavor. Mr. Holden bought a 10-cent paper of seed, planting them in rows on about a fourth of an acre of good land, and has already sold $20 worth of turkeys, though the crop has not been more than half taken up. The entire yield, Mr. Holden states, will average individual types quite as large as the four left with us. Until further notice we will exchange one ton of 7 per cent bright cotton seed meal for one ton of good, dry and sound cotton seed. Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co.—adv. 51. Rev. M. J. Stansell reports to us that his dog, a black and white female setter pup, about ten months old, bit his little daughter and also the son of Jos. Medlin, on Monday last. The dog left home, and so far Mr. Stansell has been unable to locate her. Several people have been bitten, as well as a number of animals, in different sections north of Walhalla. Mr. Stansell brought the two children to Dr. J. J. Thode, who is giving them the Pasteur treatment. Rev. Stansell requests that if any one has seen the dog, report will be appreciated by him or Dr. Thode, and if the animal is killed, bring the head to Dr. Thode, so that he may ascertain whether or not the dog was mad. It will be learned with no small degree of pleasure that the two children bitten have shown no serious symptoms at all. The best assortment of good shoes to be had in the county are on display at J. H. Alley's West Union, S. C.—adv.-49-52. The following announcement of a coming marriage, which is taken from the Savannah Morning News of the 11th, will be of interest to many in this State and Georgia: "Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. VanDiver announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, to McCurry Neville, of West Union, S. C. The wedding will take place the latter part of January." The announcement comes as no surprise to friends in Walhalla, both Miss VanDiver and Mr. Neville being well known to our people and deservedly popular. The fact of the coming marriage has been an open secret for some time, and the announcement but brings the approximate date of the happy event nearer to a certainty. Miss VanDiver and her mother have spent the summers here for several years, and they count their warm friends by their acquaintances. Mr. Neville will be the recipient of a wealth of congratulations. Rub-My-Tism for rheumatism.—adv. The many friends of Mrs. W. B. Aull sympathize with her in her recent bereavement in the death of her father, Calvin J. Deal, who died at his home at Landis, N. C., Tuesday of last week, Dec. 6th, after an illness of two weeks. The immediate cause of death was an attack of severe heart trouble. Mr. Deal was 67 years of age, having been born near Enochville, N. C., Dec. 22, 1853. He was one of the staunch church men of his State, a man of considerable wealth and a liberal supporter of the church and all its institutions. In his will he bequeathed to the Lutheran Orphanage in Virginia the sum of ten thousand dollars, carrying out his liberal policy to the end. Mr. Deal is survived by his wife, five sons and one daughter, those being Arthur, Silas and Rev. James Deal, all of Rowan, N. C.; Clarence Deal, of Detroit, Mich., and Claude Deal, of Charlotte, and Mrs. W. B. Aull, of Walhalla. He also leaves nineteen grandchildren. The deceased was a staunch Lutheran and a devout and consecrated Christian. "His life," says the Salisbury Evening Post, in commenting on his death, "was ideal. As a citizen he was one of those that comprise the bulwark of the citizenship of the country. Loyal and patriotic, honest and true, plain and simple, but firm and courageous in all of his dealings with humanity, he was a man in every sense of the word." The funeral took place on Wednesday of last week at Mount Moriah Lutheran church, N. C., the interment following in the cemetery of that church. Both Rev. and Mrs. Aull, of Walhalla, attended the funeral and interment, Mrs. Aull being at her old home before her father

Local Notes from Bounty Land.

Bounty Land, Dec. 13.—Special: Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stribling, of Seneca, were late guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. McDonald. Miss Julia Davis left the latter part of last week for Atlanta, Ga., where she will probably spend some time with her aunt, Mrs. Lou Dean Thompson, who has been quite ill for about two weeks. The many friends of Burns Gillison, of Clemson, regret to learn of his late illness and hope for his early convalescence. Miss Lura Perritt, of North Augusta school faculty, is expected to arrive home the latter part of the week to spend the Christmas holidays with her homefolks. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Shanklin and little daughter Sara, of Branchville, S. C., are visiting their parents, Hon. and Mrs. E. E. Verner and Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin, and will remain until after the holiday season. The W. M. S. of the Rock Springs church will be entertained next Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Keaton. Mr. and Mrs. Barbara Shanklin, of Anderson, were spend-the-day guests of Mrs. Julia D. Shanklin recently. Miss Sallie Davis will spend some time with her uncle, W. R. Davis, near Seneca, during the absence of Mrs. Davis and daughter, Miss Sara, who leave in a few days for St. Augustine, Fla., and other points of interest in that State. The numerous friends here of Henry Davis are delighted to know of his return a few days ago from "all over the West." Mr. Davis left this State about thirty years ago and has been back only once, about 21 years ago. We hope for an early visit from him to his many friends in our community. J. A. Dendy and your correspondent motored to Cashiers Sunday for a visit to our cousin and sister, Mrs. M. F. Alexander, going by way of Highlands, N. C., and returning by Salem. It was a most delightful trip, regardless of the many experiences of prising out of the mud and having to be pulled up a couple of the steep places by horses, and to walk about four miles for help to saw a gigantic spruce from across the road, and the numerous petty freaks all cars are heir to. But there is always a great deal to be thankful for. The mountain people were very kind and willingly helped us out of trouble. The day was fair, and we were often reminded of the quotation, "From the day we are born 'til we ride in the hearse, there's nothing so bad that it couldn't be worse." The Walhalla-Highlands road will be fine when finished. They have a good grade all the way, and some excellent work and engineering were in evidence. Rainfall and Temperature. Below is a record of meteorological observations taken by H. W. Brandt, co-operative observer of the Weather Bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, during the week ending December 11, 1921, at 7 p. m., (The instrumental readings are from government standard instruments exposed in the manner recommended by the chief of the Weather Bureau):
