

"TO THINE OWN SELF BE TRUE, AND IT MUST FOLLOW AS THE NIGHT THE DAY: THOU CANST NOT THEN BE FALSE TO ANY MAN."

By Steek, Shelor Hughs & Shelor.

WALHALLA, SOUTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1922.

New Series No. 691.—Volume LXXII.—No. 17.

The Keowee Courier Heartily Endorses the Co-operative Cotton Marketing Movement. We believe it to be to the best interest of both Producer and Consumer. If we had Cotton to sell we would sign the contract for its Sale by Co-operative Methods. We believe every Oconee farmer should sign the contract. THE TIME IS NOW SHORT—ONLY FOUR MORE DAYS. ACT AT ONCE.

Peanut Meal

Peanut Meal in 100-lb Sacks, $1.85 per sack. A good Feed for cows and hogs.

At the price of cotton seed meal you can make quite a saving by feeding Peanut Meal.

The analysis is { Protein28 Fat06

C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, WALHALLA, S. C.

It Pays to Buy for Cash.

WESTMINSTER R. F. D. NOTES.

Youngsters Enjoy Easter Party—The Ladies Busy With Club Work.

Westminster, R.F.D., April 22.—Special: The grown-ups have parties quite often everywhere, and enjoy them to the fullest, but the little folks of our neighborhood had their cups of happiness simply overflowing Saturday afternoon when little Miss Margaret Mitchell entertained with an Easter party celebrating her fifth birthday. She received her guests on the lawn, and immediately the festivities began. It was indeed a most beautiful sight to see about 25 little folks romping over the spacious lawn, playing games dear to the hearts of childhood, swinging in the shade of the trees and hunting eggs everywhere. After that came the funniest part of all. They had an impromptu stunt party of all their own. We were again carried back to the days of yore when we, too, were "kids," and felt proud of ourselves; when we, too, said, with proper rhythm, "I had a little dog, his name was Rover; when he died he died all over." All of this was saying the best for the last, when Mrs. Mitchell invited them to the dining room, where the tables were lovely in their Easter appointments of rabbits and eggs, and the usual cake, lighted with the mellow light of five little candles. Here they were treated with delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake.

Mesdames Mary Cromer, of the Ford community; Lonnie Prater, of Townville; Fant Marrett and Owen Campbell, of Anderson, were recent guests of Mrs. R. P. Harris.

Mrs. W. N. Glymph was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary at the regular meeting on April 15. At the close of the program delicious refreshments were served.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. T. A. Durham delightfully entertained the Home Demonstration Club. The subject for the afternoon was "Poultry," and our State agent, Miss Atkinson, gave a very instructive and highly appreciated talk on this subject. She was accompanied by Miss Ethel Counts, our County Agent, and we were indeed glad to have them. The bad roads of Oconee had kept Miss Counts from coming for the past few months, and it was a great pleasure to have her with us again. After the meeting of the Poultry Association, the following program was carried out:

Song—Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Reading, Romeo and Juliet—Mrs. T. U. Mitchell.

Instrumental solo—Mrs. T. A. Durham.

Gardening Notes—Mrs. L. B. Marrett.

Essay, Easter—Mrs. L. M. Glymph.

During the social hour the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. M. G. Glymph, served a delicious sweet course.

The May meeting will be held with Mrs. L. B. Marrett.

Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Long Creek, preached an able sermon to a large congregation at Beaverdam last Sunday morning.

Gilman Thompson, of Greenville, and Miss Mary Thompson, of Westminster, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sheldon recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and family, of Lavonia, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Waters, of Toccoa, Ga., spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. T. U. Mitchell.

B. N. Singleton spent the weekend with homefolks in Westminster.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETINGS.

Walhalla Democratic Club met in the Court House at 3 p. m., with W. L. Verner as chairman and M. R. McDonald, secretary.

A motion was made and carried that the chairman appoint the delegates to the county convention, and that those present be appointed.

Those present were: W. L. Verner, M. R. McDonald, J. W. Shelor, E. L. Herndon, W. J. Stribling, J. R. Earle, Frances Earle, J. M. Moss.

The following additional delegates were appointed: Miss Addie Tatham, Mrs. J. H. Darby, Mrs. John A. Ansel, Mrs. C. W. Bauknight, Mrs. Jas. M. Moss.

J. B. S. Dendy was elected president of the club.

Executive Committeeman—J. W. Shelor.

Committee on Enrollment—D. A. Smith, J. S. Abbott, Sam H. Snead, All empowered to fill vacancies.

M. R. McDonald, Secretary.

The Salem Democratic Club met on April 22d, reorganized and elected the following officers: W. H. Talley, president; S. S. Meroney, vice president; A. C. Whitten, secretary; P. L. Green, executive committeeman. Delegates to county convention—F. W. Whitten, W. L. Littleton, John Callas, J. L. Talley, M. A. Moss, Berry Childress, Harrison Littleton, C. R. Abercrombie.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES.

Poultry Calendar.

This is one of the best growing months of the year for chicks. Dust all hens and chicks with good insect powder. Pay particular attention to head lice that may be on the baby chicks. Provide chick size charcoal and ground bone or meat scraps in the mash hopper; feed when practical. Sour milk should be fed constantly. It is a good supplement for meat scraps. Furnish plenty of green feed for the chicks. Watch for crows and cats. Clean summer quarters at once. Spray house to kill vermin. Make spring cleaning in the poultry yard.

The Dairy Specialist will be in the county from the 4th to the 6th of May, giving instructions in scoring and standardizing butter. Will be glad to hear from any communities that are interested.

Ethel L. Counts, County Home Dom. Agent.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES.

Last Days of Marketing Campaign. SIGN NOW!

Daniel Speaks on Marketing.

Dr. D. W. Daniel, of Clemson College, well known throughout the State as a speaker of great ability, has consented to deliver an address on Wednesday evening, April 26th, (11:30 afternoon,) at 8 o'clock, in the Sealea High School auditorium, in the interest of the co-operative cotton marketing campaign.

There is perhaps no speaker in this or adjoining States who casts a greater charm over his hearers than Dr. Daniel. Those who have heard him know that there is a treat in store for his audience at all times.

This is the final meeting of the campaign, and persons all over the county should come to hear his message.

More Signers to the Contract.

Additional signers to the co-operative marketing contract last week include: J. A. McPhail, J. B. Shirley, Earle Grant, W. H. Rice, Mrs. Edlie Harris, W. W. Bearden, Hayne L. Martin, Walker A. Sanders, J. P. Vaughan, D. J. McMahan, H. L. Coe, J. N. McDonald, Dean Davis, E. M. Smith, W. R. Lynch, J. A. Sloan, D. E. Nicholson, R. S. Nichols, M. L. Land, E. M. Gambrell, J. H. Addis, Dr. B. F. Sloan, James Phinney, C. H. Whitmore, J. L. Duckworth, Eunice E. Abbott, E. M. Morgan, L. A. Taylor, G. L. Addis, J. R. Peay.

One hundred and forty of the leading farmers of Oconee have signed. Those wishing to sign can get contracts at the banks. THIS IS THE FINAL OPPORTUNITY, as the campaign closes this week. ACT NOW.

Final Days at Hand.

The campaign for signatures will end with the last of April, which will be Saturday night of this week. The campaign in the State has assumed whirlwind proportions during the past week, and the present week bids fair to break all records for the rush to the dotted line for efficient, business marketing.

All signers are urged to see that no one is denied a chance to sign the contract during these last few days. Oconee's quota will probably be reached this week with the good work of the signers, all of whom will have active charge of the sign-up all over the county these final days of the campaign. Contracts are at the banks.

All signers are urged to do their full duty in getting more signers to the contract and putting Oconee across in great style.

The hearty co-operation of the business men will be of great assistance in the success of this campaign, and their full assistance is urged.

Help push Oconee over the top with the other successful counties. Climb aboard, men, for prosperity! The entire South is looking at us—and believes we shall not fail.

Bees Meetings Scheduled.

The bee-keeping specialist, E. S. Prevost, of Clemson College, will be in the county for a series of demonstrations in transferring bees to modern hives and other kinds of work with bees at the following meetings next week:

Monday, May 1st, at 2 p. m.—Geo. M. Ansel's, Walhalla.

Tuesday, May 2d, at 10 a. m.—R. F. Lowie's, Cross Roads.

Same date, at 2 p. m.—Hopkin's Vineyard, near Seneca.

Wednesday, May 3d, at 10 a. m.—L. P. Rankin's, Bounty Land.

Same date, 2:30 p. m.—Earle Lowry's, Shiloh.

Every one is invited.

Geo. R. Briggs, County Agent.

Well Known Baptist Minister Dead.

Richmond, Va., April 23.—Rev. Jas. M. McManaway, D. D., one of the best known Baptist ministers in the South and Middle West, died here this afternoon. Dr. McManaway had held pastorates in Virginia and North Carolina, Georgia and Missouri, and was an associate editor of the denominational papers in the Middle West. He was born in Bedford county, Virginia, in 1856, and was an alumnus of Richmond College and of Louisville Theological Seminary.

Richmond Club to Meet April 29.

For the purpose of reorganizing and electing delegates to the county convention, the Richmond Democratic Club is called to meet at Richland Academy on Saturday, April 29th, at 5 o'clock p. m. J. D. McMahan, Chairman.

COTTON MARKETING CAMPAIGN.

Last Days of the Work in this State Bringing Gratifying Results.

Columbia, April 24.—South Carolina is in the throes of the closing stages of one of the greatest campaigns ever waged in the history of the State, and which promises, before the end of the week, to result in one of the greatest victories ever recorded in the State. The campaign to sign up 400,000 bales of cotton by May 1, to be sold through the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Co-operative Association, which has been in progress since last August, is closing amidst scenes of the greatest enthusiasm almost everywhere in the State—scenes that have never been equalled in some sections, not even during the famous war drives.

Victory in the drive is declared by the leaders to be almost certain, but taking no chances on the final outcome, the workers are out in the field day and night, pushing the fight every minute. Over 150,000 bales of cotton were signed in the last two weeks, and this week is expected to see all records smashed. Hundreds of farmers who had been debating the matter ever since the beginning of the campaign signed up last week, and several hundred more are expected to sign this week. In fact, the drive is beginning to assume the proportions of a landslide.

Bankers and business men, believing that the co-operative marketing of the State's principal crop will mean more for the future welfare of the State than anything that could be proposed, are out in the field actively at work. Many leading business men of the State have almost deserted their places of business this week and are giving their full time to the prosecution of the campaign.

"We are on the very eve of the greatest victory ever won in South Carolina," declared Harry G. Kaminer, president of the association, to-day. "The farmers of the State are signing a new declaration of independence. They are going to have a say-so in the price of their cotton. We expect every county in the State to go over the top. We do not believe we shall be disappointed."

QUEEN OF PALMAFFESTA, 1922.

Horry's Candidate Won the Honors this Year—Delightful Occasion.

There are many in Oconee who will be interested in knowing who won as Queen of Palmafesta in Columbia last week. We clip this item from The State regarding the event:

Palmafesta Queen Crowned.

"Robed in a gown of Oriental splendor, and attended by the fairest of the fair of the youth of South Carolina, Miss Floramae Holliday, of Galivants Ferry, Horry county, was last night crowned Queen of Palmafesta of 1922, and so pronounced the most beautiful woman in a State renowned for the gallantry and courage of its men and the beauty and charm of its women."

"The coronation ceremony was invested with all the pomp and dignity common to the days when knight-hood was in flower, and had some knights from the Court of King Arthur, clad in armor, stepped into the auditorium at the steel building when the gentle maiden of Horry county was ascending her throne, he would have felt that the old days had indeed returned, and he would have been happy to have paid homage to so fair a sovereign."

"The ceremony in sheer stateliness and beauty of setting surpassed anything of the kind seen in South Carolina in many years, and was witnessed by a throng that literally packed the auditorium to the doors. An hour before the ceremony was scheduled to begin practically every seat in the house was taken, and men and women were beginning to seek those places where they could stand and see the Queen of Palmafesta receive the homage of her subjects. So great was the attendance that there were hundreds who were unable even to enter the auditorium, and in order to give all Palmafesta visitors an opportunity to see so beautiful a ceremony it was announced last evening that the coronation would be repeated to-night."

Wilton R. Earle Dead.

(Anderson Mail, April 24.) Wilton R. Earle, 37 years of age, son of the late Preston Earle, and formerly in business in Anderson, but for the past several years a farmer of Townville, died Saturday afternoon at the home of his brother, Elias Earle, a resident of near Clemson College. Mr. Earle had gone to the home of his brother for a short visit, and while there was taken ill with influenza, which went into pneumonia, from which he died.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and interment was made at Silver Brook cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and one child, and a sister, Mrs. Lowry, of near Seneca; one brother, Elias Earle, of near Clemson College.

Mr. Earle will be remembered in Anderson, for several years ago he was engaged in the automobile business in this city. Later he went to Townville, and for the past several years had been engaged in farming.

The above notice of the death of Mr. Earle will be read with deep regret by many friends in Oconee. He and his brother were known a few years ago as among the most extensive and aggressive farmers of the

Don't Get Any Further Behind with your Spring plowing and harrowing. I have several good used Tractors with implements which can be bought at the price of a good mule. At this price a Tractor will pay for itself within the first season. For those who desire to have Plowing or Harrowing done within the vicinity of Walhalla, I will be glad to do your plowing, harrowing or terracing for you at a nominal charge an acre or by the hour. Arthur Brown, Walhalla, S. C. "Oldsmobile Sets the Pace."

FOR TIME AND ETERNITY. Read This—It May Result in Saving Some Life and Some Soul.

The writer was awfully shocked a few days ago when he learned from a reliable source that there were only three—(3) persons in Oconee county who are contributing regularly to the Near East Relief.

The question comes to my mind, What is the cause of this indifference? And the answer, "We are all thinking too much of ourselves, our social enjoyment, our luxuries, our business prospects, our anxieties of various kinds, to entertain a serious thought for EVEN THE STARVING."

Friends of Oconee, let's stop and think seriously for a moment, just like we were at the Judgment Bar of God—and just as sure as the Word of God is true we will have to face these people there.

When we gather those near and dear to us around the family table, spread with substantial, sustaining food, may the Lord help us to think of His little ones who are STARVING FOR ENOUGH TO KEEP THEM ALIVE.

When we lay ourselves down at night on comfortable beds for rest, may the Lord help us to remember His little ones who are in rags and have not even a shelter to protect them from exposure.

When we awake in the morning and find "all is well," and we look out upon a promising, peaceful country, may the Lord help us to think of His little ones who are homeless, without even a ray of hope for the future except as it comes from the friends of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Some of us can do nothing; some can do but little; others can do more. However, let all who can, come to the rescue. We will feel better when we have discharged this duty—and every day it is TOO LATE FOR SOME of them, and the opportunity for us, so far as they are concerned, is sealed!

Send your gifts to Miss Addie Tatham, county chairman, at Walhalla, S. C.

Wilton R. Earle Dead.

(Anderson Mail, April 24.) Wilton R. Earle, 37 years of age, son of the late Preston Earle, and formerly in business in Anderson, but for the past several years a farmer of Townville, died Saturday afternoon at the home of his brother, Elias Earle, a resident of near Clemson College. Mr. Earle had gone to the home of his brother for a short visit, and while there was taken ill with influenza, which went into pneumonia, from which he died.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and interment was made at Silver Brook cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and one child, and a sister, Mrs. Lowry, of near Seneca; one brother, Elias Earle, of near Clemson College.

Mr. Earle will be remembered in Anderson, for several years ago he was engaged in the automobile business in this city. Later he went to Townville, and for the past several years had been engaged in farming.

The above notice of the death of Mr. Earle will be read with deep regret by many friends in Oconee. He and his brother were known a few years ago as among the most extensive and aggressive farmers of the

Let's Figure! COME AND LET ME FIGURE WITH YOU ON WHAT YOU NEED! JUST RECEIVED Carload Fresh Cement. Carload Lime. Carload Uncle Sam Re-Cleaned Oats to sell at right prices. Car of Webber and Columbus Wagons, High Point Buggies, Harness, Stalk Cutters, Disc Harrows, the Old Genuine "Oil-ver" Plows and Repairs. MULES, HORSES AND CATTLE. All I ask is that you come and let me show you. My prices are away down. IF YOU RIDE, RIDE RIGHT! HIGH POINT BUGGIES! It will be a pleasure to fill your orders. Remember: Brown Has It or Brown Gets It! W. M. Brown, WALHALLA, S. C.

DRIVER OF BUGGY IS KILLED.

Reckless Auto Driver Smashes Into Buggy, Causing Death—No Clue.

Rock Hill, April 23.—Fred Hutchison, aged 65, unmarried, who resided in the India Hook community, eight miles from the city, was almost instantly killed last night when his buggy was struck by an automobile driven by unidentified persons. The accident occurred on Oakland Ave., near Winthrop College. A man driving a Ford car was seen to strike the buggy in which Mr. Hutchison was riding. The car was backed out and turned back toward the city, no notice being taken of the man struck. The victim was dying when spectators rushed to his aid, and he expired in a few minutes.

The coroner's inquest was held to-day and the verdict was to the effect that Hutchison came to his death as a result of being hit by an automobile driven by a party unknown. Two negroes were some distance away and saw the collision, but were not close enough to recognize the driver or car number. Efforts of officers to secure a clue to the identity of the party so far have failed. The buggy was little damaged, one spoke in a rear wheel being broken. One light of the automobile was broken out by the impact.

Townville section. The Courier joins with others in extending to the bereaved ones sympathy in their sorrow.