The U. D. C. chapter held its initial meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. S. Abbott, with the president, Mrs. C. M. Bowen, in the chair. After roll-call and the reading of the minutes the first business for consideration was to name the chapter. By a large majority "The Grays of Oconee" was accepted, and, as the name speaks for itself, honor is conferred on all officers and privates who were the gray in the war of the 60's. Fifty-two applications have been filed, and others will come in before the next meeting in July, which is the final date for charter members to be enrolled. The grant of honor was given to the chapter of Ganney, who was invited to meet with the chapter to complete the organization of the same. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Sarratt and she conducted the organization in such a delightfully informal manner that the members were free to make all the queries they wished to know in reference to U. D. C. organization. The rooms were given an added touch of beauty by large bowls of sweet peas and nasturtiums. As the guests were leaving they were served punch and cake on the open porch by Misses Frances Holleman and Clara Myers. The "Grays of Oconee" U. D. C. chapter will meet with Mrs. W. F. Dead—Was Prominent Political Figure and Known as Orator.

Columbia, June 2.—Former United States Senator W. P. Pollock, of Cheraw, died at his home at 7 o'clock this morning of apoplexy. He had not been ill long.

Senator Pollock served in the Senate from December, 1918, to March of 1919, filling the unexpired term of Senator B. R. Tillman. He was prominent in county and State politics, having been at one time a leading candidate for Governor.

He was a son of A. A. Pollock, of Abbeville county, Virginia, and Rebecca (Peggy) of Marlboro, Va. He was born near Cheraw on Dec. 3, 1870. He won an appointment to West Point on competitive examination, but was rejected on account of his physical condition. He had a long and honorable record in politics in his native county and in the State at large.

Notes from Mountain Rest.

Mountain Rest, June 2.—Special: It continues to rain and prospects look gloomy for the farmers.

A. L. Phillips is quite ill with pneumonia, but we hope to hear of an improvement in his condition soon.

Rev. L. H. Raines filled his regular appointment at Double Springs Sunday and gave a very interesting talk on the subjects that were discussed at the Baptist Convention, which he attended recently at Jacksonville, Fla.

A movement has been started here to separate the Double Springs union church and to build a new Methodist or a new Baptist church, which we think would advance the interests of both denominations in this section.

C. H. Thomas, of Greenville, was a recent guest at F. G. Barker's.

W. P. Henry and family have moved back to their summer home here, to the delight of their many friends here.

Lucius and Bobbie Lee Raines are visiting their father, R. H. Raines, at Tugaloo, Ga.

MRS. VANCE GUILTY OF MURDER

Georgia Jury Surprises Court by Not Adding Recommendation to Mercy.

Atlanta, June 3.—Mrs. Cora Lou Vinson was convicted by a jury in Superior Court here to-night of the murder of her husband, Dr. W. D. Vinson, and sentenced to be hanged on July 28th. The verdict without a recommendation to mercy was more than even the Solicitor had expected and the judge was openly surprised by it. Counsel for the defendant at once made motion for a new trial, and stated that an appeal would be taken in the event that the new trial should be denied. All arguments before the court will be made under the provisions of the Georgia Code of 1907, which require that the jury recommend a new trial acting as a "supersedeas" and necessitating a second setting of the date for hanging even though the motion should be denied.

Mrs. Vinson shot her husband in a drug store here in March while divorce proceedings were pending. He had filed a petition for divorce, she claiming that she had threatened to kill him. In the trial for murder Mrs. Vinson said she thought that her husband was about to shoot her.
