DEATH CALLS THREE CITIZENS.

Walhalla Mourns the Passing of Two Gentlemen and One Lady.

Monday and Tuesday brought sad announcements to the people of Walhalla, three citizens having passed to their reward between Sunday night and Tuesday morning.

A. P. Crisp.
The death of A. P. Crisp, which occurred about 6 o'clock Monday morning at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mrs. W. O. White, was a distinct shock to his many old friends here. He had but a few days previously come to Walhalla from his home in Newberry to visit relatives, and was in the best of health, apparently. After having supper Mr. Crisp, with others of the family group, adjourned to the living room, and as he took a seat it was noted that his head swayed to one side as if he had suffered temporary weakness. He was asked what was the matter, and replied simply, "I don't know." A stroke of paralysis had come to him, and he never spoke again, though he was apparently in a semi-conscious state for some time.

Mr. Crisp was 71 years of age and most of his life was spent in Oconee county, and he had held a number of positions of honor and trust, in every instance giving back to the people or to business associates the positions entrusted to him better and more honorable for his having held them. It was only last year that he resigned as president of the Enterprise Bank of Walhalla when he and Mrs. Crisp moved to their new home in Newberry.

Mr. Crisp was a native of North Carolina, but came to Oconee county when quite a youth with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crisp.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Bessie Crooks, of Newberry, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Otto H. Schumacher, Jr., and Mrs. G. E. Rhodes, of Walhalla, and the following sisters: Mrs. W. O. White, Mrs. K. B. Fretwell and Mrs. J. W. Alexander, of Walhalla, and Mrs. L. N. Robins, of Mountain Rest.

The funeral services were conducted yesterday at 10 o'clock at Double Springs church, eleven miles west of Walhalla. Rev. E. S. Jones, a former pastor of the Walhalla Methodist church, and now presiding elder of the Cokesbury district, conducted the services.

Col. R. A. Waite.

Col. R. A. Waite died on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home on West Main street. He had been ill for several weeks, but it was not generally known that his condition was serious. He was a native of Wisconsin, but had been a resident of Walhalla for some thirty years. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Mrs. D. P. Robins. He was a member of the Walhalla Baptist church. He had made many personal friends during the years since making his home in our midst, and he was quite well known for several years prior to this time, having spent several summers in Walhalla before coming to stay.

Miss Marla Ansel

died at her home on Main street on Monday night about 8 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks, due to complications incident to advanced years. Miss Ansel was one of the best known women of our town, a devout and consecrated Christian and a consistent member of the Lutheran church. She is survived by one brother, Ex-Governor M. F. Ansel, of Greenville, and one sister, Miss Kate Ansel, of Walhalla, and many other relatives here and elsewhere in the State. Her funeral services will be held at St. John's Lutheran church this (Wednesday) morning at 11 o'clock, the interment to take place in the Lutheran cemetery immediately after the services at the church.

There are many friends of the bereaved families in Walhalla who will join with us in extending condolence in their hour of sorrow.

Postpone Sunday School Convention.
Owing to conflict in dates, the Oconee County Interdenominational Sunday School Convention, scheduled to meet at Richland church on the 15th of August, is postponed to a later date, when a stronger program can be arranged. Also, so that all may attend the joint meeting of Orr's Regiment and the American Legion on the 15th at Walhalla.
J. P. Stribling,
Chairman Local Committee.

At a congregational meeting of St. John's Lutheran church last Sunday the resignation of Rev. W. B. Aull as pastor of the church was accepted, on his insistence that this course be taken. After the acceptance of his resignation Rev. Mr. Aull was asked to supply the pulpit of the church until such time as the congregation is able to secure a regular pastor, and he has accepted the supply work. Services, we understand, will be conducted at the Lutheran church without interruption, Mr. Aull serving the congregation in the capacity of supply for the time being.

THE LOCAL NEWS FROM SENECA

Preparatory Prayer Services for the Great Gipsy Smith Meetings.

Seneca, Aug. 8.—Special: Miss Frances Alexander entertained informally at a mid-week morning party in honor of her college friend and guest, Miss Robison, of Sumter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank King and two small boys, Martin and Harold, motored from their home in Adairsville, Ga., the first of the week on a visit to Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. Dora Adams. Mrs. King is pleasantly known in Seneca as Miss Margaret Adams before her marriage and has a host of friends here who heartily welcome her back to her home town. Mr. and Mrs. Chamblee accompanied them to Seneca and they returned to Adairsville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Auld and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Auld and daughter, of Elberton, Ga., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Reid Sunday.

Cottage prayer meetings were held Tuesday evening in the homes of G. W. Ballenger, J. O. Fields, W. P. Reid and Henry Lindsey, in different sections of the town. The cottage prayer meetings will continue to be held in preparation for the Gipsy Smith, Jr., revival meetings in September. The union mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday evening will be conducted by several young boys in the Methodist church. It is hoped that there will not be a vacant seat in the church when our boys conduct the prayer meeting for their first time.

Piedmont Presbyterian held an all-day county institute in Seneca Presbyterian church Thursday, which was encouraging and gratifying over the educational and inspirational atmosphere which prevailed. The program was brim-full of spiritual food and the social hour, during the intermission for lunch, was most pleasant. As the assembly was brought together in the dining room of the church, a similar institute was held in Anderson Wednesday and again in Easley on Friday. These institutes are of untold help toward the strengthening of the auxiliaries, especially of the women's organizations. The Piedmont Presbyterian is composed of the Women's Auxiliaries of the Presbyterian churches in Anderson, Oconee and Pickens counties.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gignillat, Jr., are expected to arrive in Seneca this week, after spending a few weeks in Highlands.

Miss May Stribling returned to Greenville the first of the week, after visiting in and around Seneca for about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Holland have been in Townville and Anderson the past week in the homes of Mr. Holland's relatives.

The social calendar of the past week was brought to a close Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Walter S. Brock entertained about two dozen friends with a porch party as an attention to her house guest, Mrs. S. J. Corpening, of Lancaster. Bowls of bright garden flowers were used in decorations. After a time spent in conversation, Mrs. Percy Crayton, of Anderson, gave two readings, which were thoroughly enjoyed. Delicious block cream, with angel food cake, was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Misses Winnifred Adams and May Stribling. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. T. S. Crayton, Mrs. Percy Crayton, Mrs. Archer of Anderson, and Miss Pearl Leavell, of Mississippi.

Mrs. S. J. Corpening, of Lancaster, spent several days in Seneca the past week, being the guest of Mrs. Walter S. Brock. This being her first visit to Seneca since Mr. Corpening served the Baptist church as pastor, she was most cordially received and heartily welcomed, receiving numerous attentions from friends during her visit.

Carra McKee, Sec. Pres.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perrin, of Orangeburg, spent a short while in Walhalla last week at the home of Mrs. Perrin's mother, Mrs. Hettie Macaulay.

A wedding which will be of interest here and elsewhere in the county was solemnized at Orangeburg on Wednesday evening, Aug. 2, when Miss Marie Bryant and Garwood Jaynes were united in wedlock. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bryant, in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. Mrs. Jaynes is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bryant and is well known in Walhalla, having taught school here last year. Mr. Jaynes is engaged in business in Walhalla with his father, C. G. Jaynes. After a short trip through the mountains of North Carolina Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes will be at home in Walhalla. The Courier joins with others in wishing the young couple much happiness.

Explosives Found Under Locomotive

Southern Pines, N. C., Aug. 5.—Twenty pounds of explosives, so placed as to explode with the first movement of the driving rods, were found under the disabled engine at Manley this morning, according to Sheriff Blue, of Moore county, investigating the assault by 25 masked men on five strike-breakers and a guard, who were working on the engines Friday night.

Governor Cameron, Monday, offered a reward of $400 for the capture of each member of the crowd that assaulted the Seaboard strike-breakers. None of the six, it developed to-day, was seriously hurt.

Young Wife Killed by Husband.

Black Mountain, N. C., Aug. 5.—Mrs. Joseph Lytle, aged 28 years, was stabbed to death by her husband at this place this afternoon. Lytle was subdued with difficulty by several men, who tied him securely to await the arrival of the sheriff. Lytle afterward seemed to realize what he had done, and said that there was nothing for him to live for. They have three small sons, the eldest 8 years old.

$100,000 Church Lost by Fire.

Americus, Ga., Aug. 5.—The First Methodist church of this city, one of the largest in the State, was burned to the ground this morning, causing a loss of more than $100,000. The church was built twenty years ago and recently a pipe organ was installed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Greenville Man Dies of Wounds.

Greenville, Aug. 5.—Jess Fuller, about 35 years of age, died about 7 o'clock this morning at the city hospital as a result of wounds said to have been inflicted about 1.30 this morning in West Greenville by Cole Dodson, who is being held without bail in the county jail. Fuller was found early this morning by officers on the ground in a yard at West Greenville, with a bullet in his abdomen. He was rushed to the hospital for treatment.

It was this morning recalled by officers that Fuller was tried for the murder, about ten years ago, of J. E. Liddell, who lived in the mill section near the city, and who was found dead on the road not far from his home, on Christmas eve. Owing to the time that this murder was committed it has always been referred to as the "Santa Claus murder." In the trial Fuller was acquitted by the jury.

Keowee Singing Convention.

The Keowee Singing convention will meet with the Whitmire Methodist church on next Sunday, Aug. 13th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Let all singers and lovers of good music come and bring books.

Jesse Sloan, Secretary.

ROAD FUNDS ARE EXHAUSTED.

Supervisor Shockley Makes Statement Concerning Road Work.

To the Citizens of Oconee County:

As there are no funds on hand to pay for such work, I wish to put all citizens of our county on notice that if you are compelled to repair a bridge or fix a mud-hole on the public roads in the county, you need not file a claim for such work before the Legislature meets in January, 1923, to provide funds for said work.

I make this statement in answer to dozens of letters I am receiving from all over the county, requesting me to let the writers work on the public roads and wait until the county has the funds to pay for same.

I certainly regret more than any one else the fact that I am unable to employ you to do this work, for it is important, and I realize the necessity of such work being done in the emergency of the present.

As I have only about one thousand dollars left now of the small appropriation which I received this year, you can readily understand the proposition I am up against.

Owing to the number of bridges that I have had to rebuild and repair this year, on account of the heavy rains, I have had to draw on the funds I had secured in order to maintain the chain gang, and that leaves me practically without anything.

Thanking all for kindness in offering to do this emergency work and wait for the pay, still I must put all on fair notice that I see no way to secure the money to pay for same until after the Legislature adjourns, possibly about March, 1923.

Thanking you again for your hearty co-operation, I am,

Yours truly,
J. C. Shockley,
Supervisor, Oconee County.

Erby Cox Killed by Lightning.

Long Creek, Aug. 7.—Special: It was a great shock to this community on last Friday afternoon when it was learned that Erby Cox had been killed by lightning. He had been plowing all day and had just come in and was sitting on the porch when he was struck by lightning and death came instantly.

The deceased was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cox.

Erby will be greatly missed in this community, for he was loved by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his death his father, mother, seven sisters and three brothers.

The remains were laid to rest on the day following in the cemetery of Holly Springs church, the services being conducted by Rev. L. D. Chambers and Rev. W. H. Blackwell. The following cousins were the active pallbearers: Charles and John Cobb, Kenny Adams, Garnet Smith, Clarence and Ernest Cox.

We join with others in extending to the bereaved ones sincere sympathy in their deep sorrow.

GOING OUT AFTER MORE BALES.

Resolved to Go After Hundred and Sixty Thousand Additional.

Columbia, Aug. 7.—Special: The chairmen of the various county branches of the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Co-operative association, meeting in Columbia on last Wednesday, heard reports from the board of directors as to the progress made by them in their plans for handling the crop of 1922 and resolved to go out and sign up 160,000 additional bales, thus making the South Carolina association the biggest in the belt. They declared that they believed it now to be the best.

The chairmen were enthusiastic over the report made by the board of directors, and were liberal in their praise of the directors for the work they have done. They were told by the board that they had been assured of much more than enough money to finance the crop. The sales manager and various officials of the association were introduced to the chairmen.

L. D. Jennings, of Sumter, made an earnest appeal to the chairmen to go out and sign up 160,000 more bales. He said that co-operative marketing built upon a solid foundation and that it would endure forever. He pointed out the great advantages that would accrue from it.

Every person present at the meeting pledged to devote his full energies to putting the new campaign over.

The South Carolina association now has approximately 440,000 bales signed up. The signing of an additional 160,000 would make the total sign-up 600,000 bales—the largest of any State in the belt.

Sad Death of an Infant.

Salem, Aug. 7.—Special: On July 13th the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rogers, of this place, was made brighter by an addition to their family—a little boy. But it only came through this world to make heaven brighter, for little Ralph lived only a few days, and on the 26th of July the angels came and bore his spirit back to the God who gave it and to a brighter world than this, where there is no sin, nor death, neither darkness, for God Himself is the Light, and He doeth all things well. So we can say with Job, "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." Little Ralph budded on earth to bloom in heaven.

Jesus has taken a beautiful bud out of our garden of love, Borne it away to the City of God, home of the angels above.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Houston Pressley, of the Wesleyan Methodist church, and the remains were laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery on Thursday at 11 a. m., in the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends of the family. Friend.
