

THE SUMMER WATCHMAN—SUPPLEMENT.

THE LATEST YANKEE SCANDAL.

We have become so accustomed to the scandals of the North, that we had well nigh overlooked the latest outrage upon Religion, Morals, and public decency, in that Moral vineyard, and very superior region of this very superior land...

And this dreadful affair is the result of the Free Love, Fourierite, Communist, Woman's Rights isms which live and flourish at the North...

A wise old-gentleman, who knew all about it, on retiring from business, gave the following sage advice to his son and successor...

If you would increase in wisdom, you must reflect. The mere sight of things amounts to nothing. A fool may go around the world and return a fool at last...

A little boy, having broken his rocking-horse five days it was bought, his mamma began to scold, when he silenced her by inquiring...

Great talent renders a man famous; great merit procures respect; great learning esteem; but good breeding alone insures love and affection.

Value no man for his opinion, but esteem him according to his life; corresponds with the rules of piety and justice. A man's actions, not his conceptions, render him valuable.

If men were wise in little things, If there had fewer rusty feelings, To isolate their kindly feelings, If men were wiser than their right, Would rise together and restore it— If right might might In every light, The world would be the better for it.
