We learn, by a communication Mr. R S. BRADWELL, that Mr. A. A. ALLEN, sole agent for this State for "BOTTOMS HORSE POWER," will shortly make Sumter a visit for the purpose of selling county rights of the same.

Mr. F. HALTOM FOLSOM, who well deserves the liberal patronage he is receiving, has presented us with beautiful gold collar button, which is appreciated accordingly. Mr. Folsom has recently received some new and beautiful jewelry for sale, which may be found at the Confectionery establishment of Maj. JOHN W. DARGAN.

Most of our planters have planted corn-many of them have finished -The season has been too wet since, for it to come up well, and there will probably be considerable re-plant-Cotton lands are being more thorough-

CONFUSION AND EXPENSE.

The legal contusion and general chaos of law and the practice and forms of law, produced by the enactments of the last Legislature, and now reigning in this State, are certainly without a parallel in its history. Our "wise legislators" have upturned the whole thing, and in their attempt to substitute, have lest everything in merry confusion .-We need "Philadelphia Lawyers" now, if never before, in this section.

All this has been done under the pretext of simplifying the practice, when in fact, the complications, the when in fact, the complications, the already laborious duties of the legal profession, and costs incident to all suits, have been increased more than a hundred fold. Every person who contemplates building or repairing should write at once for Mr. Toule's price list.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dr. A. L. SCOVILL is the inventor of several edicinal preparations which have become very popular, and have been liberally used. Among and "Liverwort and Tar." For the past six years a better Lung remedy has been offered to the public. Read the following letter from Dr. Scovill referring to it: Mesers. J. N. HARRIS & Co.,

GENTS :- I make the 'ollowing tatement from a perfect conviction and knowedge of the benefits of ALLEN'S LUNG BAL-SAM in curing the most deep scated Pulmonary Consump ion! I have witnessed its effects on the young and the old, and I can truly say that it is by far the best expectorant remedy with which I am acquainted. For Coughs, and all the early stages of Lung complaints, I believe it to be a certain cure, and if every family would keep it by them, rendy to administer upon the first appearance of disease about the Lungs there would be very few eases of fatal consumption.—
It causes the plegm and matter to raise, without producing constipation of the bowels. It also gives strength to the system, stops the night sweats, and changes all the merbid secretions to a healthy state. Yours respectfully.

Popularity is a protty good guarantee of merit in this crutinizing and intelligent age, and tried by this oriterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first criterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first among the invigorating and regulating medicines of the present day. To the wants of persons congaged in indoor employments, especially in crowded factories where even with the best possible ventilation the atmosphere is always in some degree polluted, this salubrious vegetable tonic is paculiarly adapted. The nature of the ingredients is no mystery. It consists of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, tinet red—or rather surcharged—with the fluid extracts of sanatous roots and barks and herbs. The pharmacopein has its tinetures, but what are they? The piece of only a single root or bark or plant is present in each. Not one of them combines the three properties of a tonic, an alterative, and an apofrient. All these elements are breaded in the Bitters; nor are these the sum of its medicinal recommendations. It is also a blood deperent and an autispasmodic.

The baleful effect which air that has been par tially exhausted of its exygen by frequent breath ing produces on the vital organization, is noto rious, and when to this devitalized atmosphere i rious, and when to this devitalized atmosphere is superadded the mephitic vapor of hot air furnaces, it becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up, even for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere, a wholesome tenie and alterative is urgently required. This grand disideratum is supplied in Hostetter's Bitters, which as a strength su-taining, health protecting agent has no rival either ing, health protecting agent has no rival either among officinal or advertised medicines.
