E. J. Shaw, Chairman—Laurence Seymour, J. A. Fullwood, Benjamin Seymour, (colored,) Thomas Pringle, (colored.)

COMPLIMENTARY.

We are indebted to Dr. Wm. Tutt, President, through E. H. Guy, Secretary, for a card complimentary, to the first grand annual Fair of the Cotton States Mechanics and Agricultural Fair Association, which will open at Augusta Geo., October 25, and continue for five days.

FIRE.

We learn that the Rail Road Depot at Lynchburg, the stores of Messrs. Furstenburg and Moore & Buddin, and a considerable quantity of cotton, were destroyed by fire on Monday night last. Cause of the fire unknown.

PLANTERS WAREHOUSE.

The splendid advertisement of this popular establishment, published on another column, in the absence of a notice like this, would attract the attention of our readers generally. But we take pleasure in making special reference to it, as characteristic of the spirit of liberality which marks the conduct of the business of that house.

THE SUMTER BOOK STORE.

This establishment has been considerably enlarged, and many new and valuable books have been added to the stock, besides fancy articles, and a general variety of stationery. Prices low down.

F. H. FOLSOM.

The advertisement of Mr F. Haltom Folsom, which appears in our columns to day, informs the public that he has a stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Spectacles, &c., now on hand. We take pleasure in commending him to public patronage, as a young man worthy of confidence and support.

BETHEL BIBLE SOCIETY.

We are requested to state that the next Annual Meeting of the Bethel Bible Society will be held at Bethel Church, (Sumter Circuit) on the fourth Sabbath of the present month of Oct The annual Sermon will be preached by Rev. H. M. Mood, and a collection taken up in aid of the cause. The friends of the Bible generally are invited to attend.

COURT.

The Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions for Sumter County, Judge John T. Green presiding, is now in session.

Judge Green commands the respect and confidence of all parties. He is both honest and able, and dispatches business with facility.

There is considerable business on the sessions, or criminal side. The civil business before the term is comparatively light.

Solicitor Samuel T. Atkinson is in attendance, we are pleased to see, in good health and spirits.

HOMICIDE.

A difficulty occurred at Sumter, on Wednesday night last, between Edgar Bishop and Charles Robinson, two colored men, which resulted, the next day, in the death of the former. The deceased was stabbed in four places—the mortal wound being in the left lung, near the heart. Robinson was committed to jail, to await his trial.

The verdict of the jury of inquest—C. M Hurst, Coroner—was as follows:

"That the said Edgar Bishop came to his death from wounds inflicted by some sharp instrument, supposed to be in the hands of one Charles Robinson."

OPINION OF COUNSEL

In Reference to Election of Town Council of Sumter.

Supposing a valid Election to be held on the second Monday in October, 1870, for Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Sumter, under the Act approved February 26, 1870, p. 267, at what time will the term of office of the present Council cease, and that of the newly elected members commence.

There is no express provision in the charter on the subject, and the question is not entirely free from doubt, but our own opinion is, that the present members of the Council will cease, and that of their successors will commence as soon as the election is declared.

The Act of 1866 (13 Stat. 48) and the amendments thereof contained in the Act of February 26, 1870, constitute the present charter of the Town of Sumter. The members of the present Council were elected on the 2d Monday in January last, under the Act of 1866, and that Act does not in express terms, declare when the term of office of a newly elected Council should commence, or when it should expire. The 5th Section however, provided that the election for Intendant and Wardens, should be held annually on the 2d Monday in January, and the 34th Section vested all the rights, powers &c., created by the Act, in the members of the Council in office at the time of its passage (December 20, 1866) until the 2nd Monday in January thereafter, "being" as the section goes on to declare, "the end of their term of office, at which time and at all future elections an Intendant and four Wardens shall be elected for said Town," and construing these two sections together, it is plain to our mind that it was the intention of the Act of 1866, that the term of the officers of the Council to be elected on the 2nd Monday in January in every year, should commence with their election and should terminate with the election of their successors on the 2nd Monday in January thereafter. By the 9th Section of the Act of February, 1870, the time for holding the election is changed from the 2d Monday of January, to the 2d Monday of October in every year and by the 15th Section of the same Act, the 34th Section of the Act of 1866, is repealed. A municipal corporation is but an Agent of the State Government, created for the purpose of aiding its principal in the discharge of its duties, especially those relating to police. Its charter is in the nature of a simple power of attorney, and its officers are like sub-agents, having no vested right, in any constitutional sense, in the tenure of their offices. The Legislature of the State may deal with the charter of the corporation as it pleases. It may alter or mollify its provisions or abolish them altogether, at its mere will and pleasure, and in like manner, it may extend or reduce the term of its officers, or deprive them at any time of their offices, with or without an election; and perhaps, the only restriction which constitutional law imposes upon the exercise of this absolute power, is where vested private rights of property have been acquired by contract under the authority of the charter. These the Legislature cannot divest, nor even impair, but with this exception whenever a question arises as to whether a change has been made in the charter, or in the tenure of office of the corporate officers, by legislative enactment—it is simply a question of construction—what does the enactment mean?

As we have already said, there is no express provision in the charter, either in the Act of 1866, or the Amendments of 1870, fixing a period for the commencement and expiration of the term of office of the Intendant and Wardens, and it is only by interpretation that we have reached the conclusion that the Act of 1866, intended it to commence at one election, and end at the next, the election being fixed by the same Act, for the 2d Monday in January. When therefore the Legislature by the amendment of 1870, changed the time for holding the election and at the same time repealed so much of the Act of 1866, as indicated the 2d Monday in January, as the time at which the term of office was to commence and end, is it not plain that it intended to change the time from that day to the day at which the election was now to be held. What other object could there have been in repealing the 34th Section of the Act of 1866—a Section which had ceased to have any operation except for the purpose mentioned—that is for the purpose of indicating the 2d Monday in January, as the day for the commencement of the term of office of newly elected members of the Council. It would have been better if the Act had contained an express provision on the subject, but still we think the intention is sufficiently clear.

Upon the question whether a valid election can be held on the 2d Monday in October next, or at any other time, until there has been further legislation on the subject, we have little, if any doubt. The 9th Section of the Act of 1870, provides that the Intendant and Wardens of the Town of Sumter "shall be elected on the 2d Monday in October of every year," and the 10th Section after providing amongst other things, that the Intendant and Wardens for the time being, shall give ten days public notice of the time and place of holding the election, and shall appoint three members of the corporation as Managers of the election, &c., contains two provisos—the first, declaring that, at the first election to be held after the passage of the Act (26th February, 1870) the Clerk of the Court, &c., shall give the ten days public notice aforesaid, and the second, "that at the first election held after the passage of this Act, the following three members of the said corporation to wit:

shall constitute the Managers thereof." It is manifest, therefore, that there can be no election under this Act on the 2d Monday in October. The Legislature in effect provided that the first election after the passage of this Act, should be held by Managers to be appointed by itself, but failed to make the appointment, leaving the blank for the names of the Managers, in the second proviso, unfilled.

It seems to us, therefore, that the present members of the Council will be entitled to hold over until under further legislative action, a valid election shall be held—the intention of the charter by necessary implication, being, that the members of one Council shall hold until their successors are elected.

The Five Dollar Sewing Machine purchased by me, January, 1866, from the Family Sewing Machine Company, 86 Nassau-Street, N. Y. has been in almost constant use ever since. It has not been out of order once. Has cost nothing for repairs, and I find it simple and reliable in operation, and always ready to sew. Those friends of mine who use them with the new improvements are very much pleased. The one I have I would not part with.

A TORPID SYSTEM.

Sometimes, without any assignable cause, the physical strength and animal spirits give way and a strange torpor falls alike on the body and intellect. There is little or no pain perhaps, but the natual vigor and elasticity of the nervous and muscular system seems to have departed, and an indifference to the pleasures of life, and even of its grave responsibilities, takes the place of that earnest interest in both which characterizes every well balanced mind when in a healthy condition.

This state of partial collapse is often the premonitory symptons of some serious malady. It indicates unmistakably that the vital powers are languishing and need a stimulant. In such cases the effect of a few doses of H stetter's Stomach Bitters is wonderfully beneficial. The great tonic wakes up the system from its drowse. The secretions and the circulations receive a new impetus. The relaxed nerves recover their elasticity under the operations of the specific, like the slackened strength of a musical instrument in the process of tuning. Lethargy and debility are replaced by energy and vigor, the spirits rise, and life that almost seemed a burden while the season of depression lasted, becomes once more enjoyable. That such a radical change should be produced by a remedy entirely devoid of the powerful alkaloids and minerals so extensively used in modern practise, may seem incredible to those who pin their faith on the medicinal efficacy of active poisons, but if these skeptics will take the trouble to enquire of those who have tested the corrective and alternative virtues of the Bitters under the circumstances described, they will find the statement to be true.

CHARLESTON ADVERTISEMENTS.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Geo. W. Williams & Co., Charleston, and Williams, Haines & Co., Merchants, N. Y. Mr G. T. Allen is the old and reliable representative of the former.

These houses are well known for their mercantile strength, activity and probity. They will make liberal advances on cotton consigned to their reliable representative, for the manufacture of the Carolina Fertiliser, which has been proved by the certificates and experience of more than one thousand planters, the past two years, to be a most valuable manure, though its best effects may be modified by injudicious application and peculiarities of season—drought, rain in excess &c.

PHŒNIX IRON WORKS.

These works, through years, have maintained high reputation, and kept pace with the advancing mechanism of the day: They are now elaborate—their busy hum enlivening all that portion of the city in which they are located. Engines are manufactured, and boilers, which are warranted as good and cheap as they can be obtained in the North. We direct particular attention to the advertisement. Surely our people should patronize and build up, at home, such enterprise as this. It is one of the main sinews of the strength and development of a country.

STOLL, WEBB & CO.

The name of this house is thoroughly identified with the Dry Goods trade of Charleston. Their liberal system of advertising, application to business, and general fairness and liberality in dealing has built up for them an extensive trade, both in the wholesale and retail department.—Buyers are directed to their advertisement on another column, for information concerning this popular establishment.

C. GRAVELEY.

Mr. Graveley has long been engaged in the Hardware business, and has imported to as great an extent, probably, as any Southern house. He is also one of the most reliable business men of Charleston. By reference to his advertisement, it will be seen that in addition to Hardware, Cutlery and Guns, he deals in Agricultural Implements. Send your orders to him.

FOGARTIE'S BOOK DEPOSITORY.

We take pleasure in directing attention to the advertisement, with Catalogue No. 42, of this well known Book Depository, to be found in our columns. This concern enjoys large advantages and keeps on hand a very satisfactory stock of works, standard and miscellaneous, school books, &c., besides the general variety usually connected with such an establishment.

EDWARD PERRY.

Mr. Perry keeps a large stock of Books, Stationery, &c., Paper Bags and Wrapping Paper He sells cheap, and has secured by close attention to business, a large trade. Attention is asked to his advertisements.

SAFETY LAMP.

Mr. J. P. Browne, of 136 Meeting Street, and 51 Broad Street, Charleston, is agent for South Carolina for Perkin's & House's Non-Explosive Kerosine Lamp. Many advantages are claimed for this lamp over those now in use.

Messrs. Green & Walsh are agents for Sumter, and will be pleased to furnish these lamps, or give any information desired concerning them.

CHARLESTON HOTEL.

This old and popular first class Hotel continues to maintain its reputation. In fact, we think it safe to say that it is kept up, with as little variation, in as good style of accomodation, as any house in the country, North or South.
