A PALPABLE HIT.

Gen. Brown, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Tennessee, in a recent speech at Chattanoga, made the following telling hit:

"I have thus been over the entire platform, and am sure there is nothing in it to which any reasonable man could object. The Radicals, of course, object. I suppose if we had adopted the Ten Commandments as a platform, some one would have objected. I am sure the Radicals would, for there is, I believe, one of them which says, 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

KING WILLIAM AND THE CAPTIVE EMPEROR.

The following is the reply of the King of Prussia to the letter of the Emperor Napoleon, in which he resigned his sword:

Monsieur my Brother—While regretting the circumstances under which we meet, I accept your Majesty's sword, and I beg of your Majesty to appoint one of your officers invested with full powers to treat for the capitulation of the army which has so bravely fought under your orders. On my side I appoint General Moltke for this purpose. I am your Majesty's good brother.

Before Sedan, September 1, 1870.

HOW ADVERTISING PAYS.

The New York Journal of Commerce says of one of the oldest banking houses in the country: "We are pleased to learn from its managers that they trace in their business the benefits of judicious advertising. Any one would suppose that such a bank, so long established and so widely known, might sell its bills and drafts and obtain collections enough to satisfy any reasonable ambition with out a dollar of outlay for advertising.—And so it might be said of Messrs. Brown, Brothers & Co., Duncan, Sherman & Co., and other leading bankers, whose advertisements appear all the year in our columns. Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., who are more exclusively known than any other house on the continent, pay us annually more money for advertising their business than any of their would be rivals. If a house is not well known it should become so by liberal advertising, and the better it becomes known, and the larger its business, and the more independent it would seem to be, the better still does it pay to advertise it. Advertising is not only a means of success, but it is at once the evidence of it and a guarantee of its continuance. —Many noble houses date the decadence of their trade from the suspension of advertising.

The Baltimore Sun adds: "If this is true of such extensive and well established houses as those named—and that it is, no one can doubt—how much more forcibly does it apply to smaller financial, mercantile and other business enterprises and particularly to those seeking to establish a trade."

"BE NOT WEARY."

"Oh dear," said Miss L. with a sigh, "I've been a Sunday School teacher for five years; I've gone regularly through all kinds of weather—sunshine or rain; I've always managed to fill my place at the school; I've talked earnestly to the children about their souls, and tried to lead them to Jesus; but it seems all of no use; it has done no good. I've met with no encouragement from my Master. He hasn't given me one little golden ear towards a sheaf. I must give up" * * * * "Mother, dear, I'm dying; but I'm not afraid to die—though it seems a sad thing to leave this bright world and you, mother. But I love Jesus, for he has died for me, and taken the sting of death away; and now what seemed once so dark and sad, is all bright mother, for he has promised to be with me through the valley of death, and beyond there's Heaven, where it's all joy, and I shall be there. When I'm gone, mother, you will send and tell Miss L. all about me, because she was the first who told me about my Saviour, and entreated me to love him.' Miss L. didn't "give up;" she toiled on, and met with a rich reward in her work. Disheartened teacher, "go thou and do likewise," for in due season thou shalt reap if thou faint not.—Selected.

— A weakly widow advertising for an agent was overwhelmed with applications. The printer made it a goat.

— If misfortune comes into your house, be patient and smile pleasantly, and it will soon stalk out again, for it can't bear cheerful company.

— A Beautiful Thought—Slander issuing from red and beautiful lips are like spiders crawling from the heart of a rose.

— What a man wants—all he can get. What a woman wants—all she can't get.

The Brooks Portable and Revolving COTTON AND HAY SCREW PRESS.

THE BEST AND CHEAPEST PRESS NOW OFFERED TO THE FARMER.

Its excellency consists in its simplicity, strength, portability, compactness and convenience. Two hands can pack a bale of cotton weighing 500 pounds without the aid of a horse.

It took the first premium over eleven Presses at the Mechanics' Agricultural Fair of Louisiana on the 15th of April, 1869; and over sixteen Presses at the same place in 1870.

It will last a man his lifetime, with ordinary care.

Orders solicited early, as we could not supply the rush last fall.

Manufactured at CHARLESTON, by W. S. HENERY, and at COLUMBIA, by GOLDSMITH & KIND.

I will have one on exhibition in a short time. Send for descriptive catalogue to

THESE ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

but a Pure Aromatic Cordial, Prepared Solely from the Choicest Herbs, Roots and Barks, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Angelica Bitters," a Restorative and Invigorator of the System, and a Perfect Appetizer. They are entirely free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Remedy for all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits. Can any one who uses this Bitters, according to direction, long remain sick or unwell.

ONE BOTTLE will convince any one of its merits, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair, as in Consumption, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Copious Discharges of Urine, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, which are the offsprings of Dyspepsia, they exert such control these Bitters.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French, and Spanish.
