

Our Charleston Correspondence.

CHARLESTON, October 20, 1870. Our "City by the Sea," never sparkled more brightly in the Autumn sunshine than during these passing pleasant October days.

the success of the Reform party. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor has given general satisfaction to the community, inasmuch as it is believed to effect a decided improvement on the State Legislature.

THE SUMMER WATCHMAN. The Summer Watchman has been for the largest circulation (especially in the surrounding country) of any paper published in Sumter, and was established in 1850.

THE WATCHMAN. The State has been carried, by the infamous means employed, by a large majority, for Scott and Ransier. The figures have not yet been announced.

THE PEOPLE'S LITERARY COMPANION. The People's Literary Companion, for November, comes to us as bright and as fresh looking as the green fields after a gentle rain.

THE MARION CRESSENT. The Marion Cresent, of the 26th ult., gives the following account of the disturbance at that place on the preceding Saturday.

SINGULAR TABLEAU OF DEATH IN A TENT. About three weeks ago, there passed over Fort Sullivan a terrible thunder storm and in it old Yellow Hawk, an Indian peddler gave up the ghost.

AN ORDINANCE TO PREVENT THE PURCHASE OF COIN. BY TRY PRODUCE DURING THE HOURS OF NIGHT.

True, money is a little tight just now, and he who wants to borrow the fifty lucre must needs pay an unusual discount; but then you know cotton is down; and the factors are carrying all they dare; and planters are holding back for better prices.

THE FAIR OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY to be held here the first week in November will doubtless be an event of unusual interest.

THE STEAMER GEORGIA, of the Clyde Line, which has recently arrived here is, beyond question, the handsomest ship on the Southern coast.

Such a dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are too intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other, so that dyspepsia and derangement of the brain are inseparable.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING OF THE COMPANY will be held on this (Wednesday) evening, Nov. 2, at Engine House, at 7 o'clock.

The State election which has just taken place, although not resulting in our success, has been a most interesting and profitable one.

It has shown that the people of this State are becoming more and more patriotic and more and more intelligent.

The result of the election is a proof that the people are becoming more and more patriotic and more and more intelligent.
