REPORT. Special attention is directed to the advertisement of a lady, seeking employment as teacher in this issue. We are happy to be permitted to say, in this connection, that she possesses first class qualifications as a teacher, and has been successful to a marked degree in that connection.

OUR READERS are referred to the announcement, in prose and poetry, of Mr. JAMES N. GRANT. He invites the rich and the poor, to visit his store, as he is well prepared to cater to their wants, having received a large and well assorted stock of Groceries and Family Supplies. Also a variety of Toys and Confectionery for the Holidays.

A poetical writer has solved the mystery that Caldwell's Book and Shop, cannot be excelled in quality and price. Read the poetical advertisement in to-day's paper, and give him a call, and judge for yourselves. His Shows are of the best quality, and sold at reasonable prices.

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS. Will observe the notice of Mr. T. J. COCHRAN, County Treasurer, in this issue, and pay up. Be sure to read the advertisement of Mr. J. P. BLAIR, of Mayeville, in this issue. He has a fine variety, and among all the rest, a host of goods things for Christmas. We take pleasure in commending this establishment to liberal patronage.

STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS AND TRAINED ANIMALS COMBINED. Will exhibit here on Friday, the 9th inst. They have received favorable notices from the press wherever they have exhibited, and have obtained immense audiences by their intrepidity and skill.

SALES DAY. Many people were in town on Monday last, and much real estate changed hands. The following tracts of the Cololough Estate were sold at the prices named: Tract No. 1, 737 acres, sold at $5.00.

MASONIC. At a regular Communication of Claremont Lodge, No. 64, A. F. M., held Thursday December 1, 1870, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: Bro. T. V. WALKER, W. M.
