

HAMPTON'S MARCH TO WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Florence, N. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Mount Olive, N. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Magnolia, N. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Wilson, N. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Halifax, N. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Richmond, Va., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

At Washington, D. C., March 28.—The progress of Hampton through the Carolinas is marked by the heartiest demonstrations of popular regard for him and interest in his mission.

The Weekly Union Times

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. 1 Copy, one year, IN ADVANCE, $3.00. 2 Copies one year, " " " 5.00. 10 " " " " " 20.00.

ADVERTISING. One square or one inch, first insertion, 75 cents. Each subsequent insertion, 50 cents.

What has become of the Spartan this week? If you want to read something rich, just read the article on our first page headed "Touching Blaine."

This is the year for boy babies. Four in this town since 1st January, and not a girl mixed in. All democrats, showing an increased majority for Hampton in this county, at the next election.

Our friend Burnside has treated us to a Roast which would be hard to beat even in the Philadelphia market. It was rolling in fat, tender and juicy—such beef as an Englishman would grow fat and contented upon.

The Trial Justices of this town are grumbling awfully at the dullness of business. There's no murders, marriages, fights, thefts or other business-like occurrences transpiring in this neighborhood.

After deducting the Insurance upon the property destroyed by the late fire in Newberry, the net loss to that town is over $100,000. As the Newberry Herald says: "This loss would be very heavy at any time, but is especially so now in the depressed condition of all sorts of business."

Messrs Smith & Dunbar are putting up a neat and convenient Market House on their Livery Stable Lot, and propose to keep a regular supply of the finest quality of fresh meats in regular city styles.

At the annual Easter Election held by the Congregation of the "Church of the Nativity" at Union the following gentlemen were elected: Wardens—W. MUNRO, R. W. SHAND.

Our neighbors of the Spartanburg Herald are like the railroads, they don't tote fair. Why didn't you say plainly that the Union merchants complain bitterly because they have to pay more than twice as much as the Spartanburg merchants for freight from Charleston, over the Spartanburg and Union road?

If any of our Farmers wish to fence their eyes on a sight that would make a Kentucky stock raiser move to this section for good pasture, we invite them to come to town and look at our friend Schoppaul's Clover patch, next to his Store.

Easter at the "Church of the Nativity." In accordance with a custom observed for many centuries, the Episcopal Church in this town, on Easter Sunday last, was beautifully decorated.

An address of welcome was made by Hon. A. M. Kelley, ex-Mayor of Richmond. After returning thanks for the oration Governor Hampton said that he interpreted the demonstration as a tribute to the cause he represented, viz: Good government, home rule and reform.

An incendiary fire. We regret to state that our friend N. B. Eison met with a very severe loss last Friday night, by the burning of a large new dwelling house which was just receiving the "finishing touches" from the workmen to enable him to occupy it.

The Honors Paid Hampton in Washington. Washington, March 30.—Governor Hampton was besieged with visitors to-day. Early in the morning quite a number of gentlemen, friends and admirers, congregated at the lobby of the hotel, all anxious to get a peep at him.

The Charleston Papers announce the death of Mr. John E. Carew, which occurred in that City, on the 30th ult. He had attained to the ripe age of three score years and ten.

A National Ticket for 1880.—A Presidential ticket for 1880 has already been put forth, with the names of Everett for President and Wade Hampton for Vice President.

At Washington, D. C., March 30.—Governor Hampton was besieged with visitors to-day. Early in the morning quite a number of gentlemen, friends and admirers, congregated at the lobby of the hotel, all anxious to get a peep at him.

Railroad Freighters Again.

There is an erroneous impression upon the minds of a large majority of the people, regarding the complaints made against the present schedule of Railroad freights.

It is not the aggregate amount of freight the roads receive that we complain of, but we think it too partial and unjust to make Shelton, Santuc, Union and Jonesville pay over double the freight that Spartanburg does, particularly as the latter point is from twenty to forty miles further.

We take the broad ground that the policy of Railroads in South Carolina has been suicidal to their stockholders and ruinous to the State at large.

Let us contrast the towns, villages and business along the Airline road with those upon all the roads of South Carolina: From Atlanta to Charlotte the Airline road is studded with new and flourishing towns, and numerous mechanical enterprises are established.

On the other hand we find the towns along the Railroads in this State becoming depopulated, property depreciating, trade seeking cheaper railroad facilities and a general depression among all classes of business people.

No! it is the policy adopted by the Airline road, to secure all the legitimate business along its line, and increase that business as much as possible by reasonably low and equitable freights, attracting trade and population to those towns and building them up.

What have we seen the past few months? The wagon roads running along the S. & U. R. R., for thirty miles, lined with wagons hauling cotton to Spartanburg, where it is either shipped on the Airline road at moderate rates or by the S. and U. R. R. at the rate of $43 a car load.

On Tuesday evening (10th) the young men of the Spartanburg Silver Cornet Band will give one of their delightful Concerts in the Court House in that town, under the auspices of Prof. Neaves, one of the best Teachers and Performers in the Country.

A Fatal Accident. On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

TROOPS TO BE REMOVED!

HAMPTON'S GOVERNMENT ASSURED! THE VICTORY COMPLETED! The People Rejoicing! SOUTH CAROLINA SAVED!

It is only necessary for us to publish the following to send a thrill of joy through every honest heart in this county. We can say nothing that would add to the satisfaction and enthusiasm which the official announcement that the troops are to be removed will inspire among the people throughout the whole State of South Carolina.

WASHINGTON, April 3. SIR: Prior to my entering upon the duties of the Presidency, there had been stationed, by order of my predecessor, in the State House at Columbia, S. C., a detachment of United States Infantry.

Let us contrast the towns, villages and business along the Airline road with those upon all the roads of South Carolina: From Atlanta to Charlotte the Airline road is studded with new and flourishing towns, and numerous mechanical enterprises are established.

On the other hand we find the towns along the Railroads in this State becoming depopulated, property depreciating, trade seeking cheaper railroad facilities and a general depression among all classes of business people.

No! it is the policy adopted by the Airline road, to secure all the legitimate business along its line, and increase that business as much as possible by reasonably low and equitable freights, attracting trade and population to those towns and building them up.

What have we seen the past few months? The wagon roads running along the S. & U. R. R., for thirty miles, lined with wagons hauling cotton to Spartanburg, where it is either shipped on the Airline road at moderate rates or by the S. and U. R. R. at the rate of $43 a car load.

On Tuesday evening (10th) the young men of the Spartanburg Silver Cornet Band will give one of their delightful Concerts in the Court House in that town, under the auspices of Prof. Neaves, one of the best Teachers and Performers in the Country.

A Fatal Accident. On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

On Tuesday evening last a fatal accident occurred, on the Mt. Tabor road, a few miles beyond Mr. E. F. Vaughn's. It appears that Mr. J. Munro Smith and his wife had come to town that day on horseback, to transact some business, and on their way back Mr. S. stopped at Mr. Vaughn's and sent his wife home.

Governor Hampton in Washington

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Governor Hampton, accompanied by Attorney General Connor and Senator elect Butler, with a committee of Charleston capitalists, arrived here this morning, the welcome to Hampton from Richmond, and this point being as warm as further South.

The following letter was addressed to the President by Governor Hampton this morning: WILLARD'S HOTEL, WASHINGTON, March 29.—To the President:—Sir: In compliance with your invitation, I am here for the purpose of uniting my efforts with yours to the end of composing the political differences which now unhappily distract the people of South Carolina.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, W. HAMPTON, Governor of South Carolina.

The President returned an immediate answer by Colonel Rodgers, his Private Secretary, and Governor Hampton, accompanied by Senator Gordon and Attorney General Connor, will wait on the President at 1 o'clock.

Poor Mr. HAYES.—Our correspondents at Washington, whose letters we publish this morning, treat with great severity the conduct of the Fraudulent President in going back upon the promise of his inaugural address, and in failing to respect the pledges given in his behalf to the Southern representatives for the purpose of securing the final declaration of his election by Congress in compliance with the decision of the Electoral Commission.

While we print their observations as worthy of serious consideration, we do not wish to go altogether the length they do of condemning Mr. Hayes as meaning from the first to delude the Southern people, and above all, he hates us to us to weakness rather than deliberate depravity. He is a kind hearted man, very fond of approbation. He doesn't want to be disagreeable to anybody. He would like to make the South happy and to have it support his Administration and praise him; but he is not anxious to offend Mr. Morton or Mr. Blaine.

He is not prepared to break with the leaders of the Republican party, and above all, he hates to say positively before the country that Packard—who is Governor by just the same title as Hayes is President—is the creature of fraud, and never was elected at all. Thus, poor Mr. Hayes is turned about, now in this direction and now in that, changing his mind every day, or oftener, and doing at last, not what he meant to do when he began, but exactly the opposite.

They have, which is not surprising, but the truth is, he has no policy at all. He is not his own man. He does not control what he calls his Administration. He is powerless against the forces that produced his elevation, just as any feeble, undecided, common place character needs must be under such circumstances.

No man who gets an office as Mr. Hayes got this one, can be worth anything in it. A Fraudulent President, if he sets out with good motives, is bound sooner or later to make himself ridiculous and also dishonest.—N. Y. Sun.

Judge Northrop all Right. The Republic publishes a startling interview with Hon. L. C. Northrop, Circuit Judge of the Seventh Circuit of South Carolina. Captioning the interview, the Republic says: "The Judge is a native born South Carolinian, being a descendant of one of the oldest families in the State. When the late war took place, Judge Northrop, his father and his brother all enlisted on the Confederate side. His father and brother were killed, and he survived, to afterwards become a Republican and a firm supporter of Governor Chamberlain."

After paying a high compliment to the manhood and integrity of Chamberlain, he proceeds to describe the situation. The Democrats believe as they have always done, that Hampton received over 1,000 majority of votes in 1876. This is the lawfully elected Governor. They claim that it has been decided in their favor by the courts, and they would eagerly defend it by the last dollar and the last life. I have never seen such profound excitement and inflexible resolution as exists throughout my section. It is in every fibre of the atmosphere, and must be felt and understood. It is of a kind with the frenzy that possessed the people of Paris in 1793.

THE PEOPLE CREATE MONOPOLIES.—The two gas companies of Charlotte have consolidated, and raised the price of gas from one to five dollars, and the consumers are "kicking." This is perfectly natural, and comes from lack of patronage to the new company, the people of Charlotte preferring, like all others, to hold up an old and strong company against a new enterprise, and they have the result of it. We understand that many of the consumers of gas have actually been paying the old gas company double the price demanded by the Centennial Company, which is a closed community, and as good gas. We never knew a community that would build up monopolies that place us in their power, and finally the affairs of the whole country, will be under the rule of combinations of monopolies.—Greenville News.

"HIS NAME IS HAMPTON!"—The Washington National Republican, of Tuesday last, contains the following paragraph: "The next best candidate for the Presidency will be a Southern man, if that party thinks best to run any one in 1880. His name is Hampton. That he will be a formidable candidate no one will doubt. During the last campaign his conduct won for him the respect and confidence of all classes North and South. He was for four years a bitter rebel, but that is counterbalanced by the fact that he has been a gentleman for fifty years."

THE FEDERAL OFFICE.—A Washington telegram of Wednesday to the New York Journal of Commerce says: "The appointment of ex-Governor Aiken, of South Carolina, as Collector of Customs at Charleston, and of ex-Governor Porter, of South Carolina, as United States District Attorney for that State, will probably be made as soon as the gubernatorial contest is settled. Both gentlemen are conservatives."

EXTERMINATING SNAKES.—The citizens of Licksville, Ridgeway township, Osage county, Kansas, have had an unusual kind of excitement in hunting snakes. Last Autumn some of the people saw some snakes going in and out of a hole in Mr. Losh's place, so a number of neighbors concluded to dig them out. A week ago last Saturday a party went to work. After digging a part of the afternoon they came to a den of the reptiles. The result of the slaughter was eighty-six, consisting of rattlesnakes, copperheads, black snakes, and blue racers, some of which were six feet long, and some were as large as a man's arm. Some of the rattlesnakes had as many as ten rattles.

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

OFFICE OF THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

UNION, S. C., 27th March, 1877. To the Shareholders of the Union Building and Loan Association:

The Committee on Finance beg leave to submit the following Report, upon the affairs of the Association, for the second fiscal year, ending to-day.

The business of the year, has been done on the Instalments collected on the first year's transactions, amounting as stated in our first annual Report to.....$ 7,240 00 To which add the instalments collected..... 1,182 60

Making..... 14,378 60 The gross earnings for the second year has been..... 2,176 75 From which amt. deduct expenses viz: Secretary and Treas'r's Salary.....$125 Taxes..... 20 145 00

Leaving..... 2,051 75 As the net earnings for the second year's business. This sum has been made in the use of the first year's instalments, say $7,240 00 for twelve months and the second year's instalments $7,181, for an average time of six months.

The net earnings, divided by the shares issued (158), gives a dividend of $3 40, on the present year's business on each share. The funds of the Association, now invested amount to sixteen thousand six hundred dollars. The committee, after a careful examination of the securities to the twenty-four loans, believe that they are well secured.

We are pleased to add that we find the Books of the Association, kept by our Secretary and Treasurer with great neatness and accuracy, and they show clearly all the transactions of the Association. In this connection we find that the business has largely increased, and the increasing business and capital of the next year will require additional promptness from the shareholders as well as from the barrowers.

The monthly dues should be paid in promptly, the day of our monthly meetings, to enable the officers to keep all our capital loaned out, and drawing interest. And the borrowers should promptly file their applications; (which the Secretary and Treas. will furnish); on the morning after the night of the monthly meeting. This will enable the Committee to examine all the securities offered for loans at one meeting—and then they can make their report to one meeting of the Board of Directors, thus enabling the officers of the Association to give all the attention necessary to the transaction of your business, without drawing too much, on their time, which they are compelled to give to their own business.

If these recommendations are carried out promptly by all interested, it will keep down expense and add additional profits to the Association. The Treasurer's Report, showing the details of the business of the Association is herewith submitted as a part of this report. W. H. WALLACE, Finance Committee. JOHN L. YOUNG, JOHN RODGER, ditto.

TREASURER'S REPORT. To the President, Board of Directors and Shareholders of the Union Building and Loan Association.

On making this my second annual Report, it is gratifying to me to be able to show a most satisfactory exhibit of the condition of the Association. The transactions of the past fiscal year shows a material increase of business and, as a consequence, a corresponding increase of profits over those of the previous year. As the Financial Committee have fully examined the Books and securities of the Association, and prepared an elaborate report on the condition of the year, detailing all the important proceedings, and only necessary for me to give a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the funds, the present value of shares, &c. The statement below shows a net gain of $2,031 73, for the past year, which amount, divided by the number of shares (158) gives a gain of $3 40 on each share. Add to this the profits of the previous year (302 13), the real value of each share is now $3 90, showing a very encouraging prospect for the shareholders in the future; and makes as good an exhibit of the transactions for one year as any Association in the State.

RECEIPTS. To Instalments on 598 Shares.....$7,182 50 " Interest on Loans at 6 per cent..... 680 50 " Premiums..... 1,415 78 " Fines..... 50 45 " Transfers..... 30 00 " Cash on hand from 28 March 1876..... 148 19 Total.....$9,457 42

DISBURSEMENTS. By Loans.....$9,300 00 " Taxes paid Hampton Government..... 20 00 " Cash and Treas'r's Salary..... 125 00 " Cash on hand..... 112 42 Total.....$9,457 42

I cannot allow this opportunity to pass without calling the attention of the Association to the liberality of Messrs. Hill & Hull, who have kindly given us the use of the Hall in which our meetings have been held. For the title of a gentleman who has some papers, it may be stated they are all prepared and in the possession of Hon. R. T. Merrick, a lawyer of Washington, who represented Mr. Tilden before the electoral commission. It is said suit will be commenced as soon as the troops are withdrawn from South Carolina. It is claimed, though the electoral commission had not the power under the electoral law to ascertain facts not presented in the lawful certificates of election of electors, the court would have the power to sift the question by full inquiry into the law and the facts."

We suspect the above is an attempt to bulldoze Hayes. If the Express had left out "suit will be commenced as soon as the troops are withdrawn from South Carolina," we might have thought there was something in it. Much as we would like to see the test made, the above is too transparent, coming as it does just before the order to remove the troops is sent to Gen. Ruger. It is one of Chamberlain's keen ways of intimidation.

EXTERMINATING SNAKES.—The citizens of Licksville, Ridgeway township, Osage county, Kansas, have had an unusual kind of excitement in hunting snakes. Last Autumn some of the people saw some snakes going in and out of a hole in Mr. Losh's place, so a number of neighbors concluded to dig them out. A week ago last Saturday a party went to work. After digging a part of the afternoon they came to a den of the reptiles. The result of the slaughter was eighty-six, consisting of rattlesnakes, copperheads, black snakes, and blue racers, some of which were six feet long, and some were as large as a man's arm. Some of the rattlesnakes had as many as ten rattles.

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."

THE NEW YORK SUN cheers us with the following: "The experience of Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and North Carolina will be repeated in South Carolina with the departure of the carpet-bag thieves. Peace, order and good government are certain to follow, when the people govern themselves. It becomes the instrument of justice and not of corruption. Confidence, credit and prosperity must revive from the existing depression, and whatever contribution to the happiness of the State measurably promotes the good of the whole country."