

THE COLUMBIAN CARAVEL ARRIVES AT HAMPTON ROADS.

Porter Monroe, April 21.—The three Columbian caravels arrived here at half-past 10 o'clock this morning, in tow of three Spanish war ships, and were received with a great display of salutes and by the fleet, and dropped anchor at the end of the American line of vessels.

The day could not have been more beautiful or the scene more impressive as they came in the Roads, decorated from jibboom to tail, with the flags of Castile and Aragon and Queen Isabella, standing out and floating in the gentle breeze. The little fleet were tumbled about off the Virginia coast yesterday in a lively fashion by the northwest wind that blew all day, but they managed to make the capes early this morning, and after taking pilots aboard proceeded in.

At the head of the fleet was the unprotected cruiser Infanta Isabel, towing the flagship Santa Maria, which displays the flag of an admiral. Behind and a mile astern came the torpedo vessel Neva Espana, with the Nina as her charge, and in the latter's wake was the big black protected cruiser Reina Regente, with the Pinta. They were towed by at least a quarter of a mile of hawser, and looked like so many ducks sitting on the water with the feathers of their tails plucked.

When off the fort, the Stars and Stripes were broken out and saluted by the leader. The fort quickly responding. Before the Santa Maria was abreast of the Philadelphia, the Dutch frigate Van Speyk ran up the Spanish colors and saluted them with thirteen rounds. Then the Russian ship General Admiral commenced to salute, and later every flagship in the harbor honored these colorful strangers and the country they came from.

ALMOST A LYNCHING.—Denmark, Barwell Co., S. C., April 21.—Henry Williams, the suspected negro rapist, was spared. The excitement has abated, and the blood-thirsty crowd that have thronged the streets during the past two days are gone. Last night an attempt was made to lynch him. The mob broke open the guard house and started him in the direction of the place where the outrage was committed, but were dissuaded from carrying out their purpose by cooler heads. While Miss Baxter was satisfied that he was the man, he said he could prove his innocence, and he was spared until today to give him an opportunity to do so. He said he had worked for Mr. Alexander Saly, of Orangeburg county, on Thursday, and for Mr. Gault, of the same county, on Friday morning. Men were dispatched last night to bring these men here and they arrived today about noon. They were examined, and testified positively that Henry Williams, the prisoner, had worked for them on the days stated by him. This proved that he did not commit the deed, and that he was not even in this county that morning. He was given an impartial trial before Judge Lynch and his jury acquitted.

But notwithstanding that fact, numbers of the crowd still believe that he is guilty, and had it not been for the advice and counsel of cooler and wiser heads, he would in all probability have been ushered into eternity before this. There is now no danger of his being lynched.

ROCK HILL GETS THE COLLEGE.—A special from Spartanburg to the State, dated April 21, says: The Industrial School Commission, after a long meeting and much discussion, awarded the college to Rock Hill. Much disappointment is expressed by the citizens of Spartanburg, as they felt sure they would get the school. The vote stood 8 to 2. The board adjourned to meet at Rock Hill on May 21. A motion to postpone the election was adopted, but was afterwards reconsidered. The legality of the bonds was longly discussed.

GRAND REJOICING IN ROCK HILL.—Rock Hill, April 22.—There is great rejoicing in Rock Hill over our victory in winning the Industrial College. Amid the ring of anvils and screaming of factory whistles and ringing of bells and the shouts of a thousand enthusiastic and rejoicing men the town is wild with excitement. We esteem this as the greatest day in the history of our young city. A procession with a band of music in the lead is now (1:30 a. m.) making a circuit of the city. No such enthusiasm was ever before known here. We had a hard struggle, but are now happy people. Mrs. Tilman, who is still in our midst, was serenaded this morning in grateful recognition of her friendliness and that of the Governor.

GO THE WHOLE HOOT!—If the State is going in for revenue only, why stop halfway? If the good people of South Carolina are willing that their State should sell whiskey to depress taxes, why should get a little further on this line, pay all the government expenses, wipe out the public debt, build schools and roads? Submit an offer to the Louisiana Lottery Company, and allow a syndicate to make the capital city of South Carolina the State Capital of America.

LAURENCE'S STATEMENT.—The statement of Laurence, who was arrested yesterday, was read in court. It was found that he had been in the city of Rock Hill for some time, and that he had been in the company of the late Laurence. The statement was found to be true, and the case was dismissed.

THE ALLIANCE GAINING STRONG.—Mr. John R. Jeffries, the able and indefatigable State Lecturer of the Farmers Alliance, paid us a pleasant visit Saturday night. He brought very encouraging tidings concerning the nob's order of which he is an important officer. The Alliance in this State is growing as it never grew before. Its present growth is as solid as the oak, but more rapid than the growth of that monarch of the woods. When the Alliance first entered this State, many joined it because it was something new. Men are joining it now from a proper appreciation of its dignity and power, its aims and purposes, and its record of past accomplishments and its hope of future success along the lines it has laid out for its work. The leaders are emphasizing the fact that the Alliance has nothing to do with politics, in the sense of participation.—Col. Register.

AN ATLANTIC WOMAN OVERBOARD.—New York, April 21.—A well dressed woman jumped from the Roosevelt street ferry boat "Arizona" yesterday afternoon. Fisher jumped after her to rescue her. She tried to pull him down with her. They were both rescued after going under water for the second time. The woman was unconscious when pulled on the boat. She was carried to the hospital where she recovered sufficiently to say her name was Mrs. Georgietta Schmidt. The police learned that the woman's husband is John Schmidt, living in the West End, Atlanta, Ga.

TRAGEDY AT MCCORMICK.—McCormick, April 21.—Mr. D. A. Wardlaw, a prominent and highly respected young man of this place, was shot (probably fatally) by Jack Prior, a shiftless character. Price is at large, but a posse of men are scouring the country in search of him. The victim is twenty-two years old, five feet high, black hair, nose, eyes and ears in a black cheviot suit. Wardlaw and Price had a dispute about some trivial matter.

HARD ON THE OTHER FELLOW.—Gaffney City, April 8.—W. J. Shelton, traveling salesman, active of the Columbia Register, is hustling to get the postmaster's job at this place. He is now in Washington, to push his claims. The citizens of the town are circulating a petition, in which they say they prefer the present incumbent, a Republican negro, to Shelton. The most prominent citizens are signing this petition.—The State.

AMENDED THE VENDOR.—Salina, Kan., April 21.—Ray Stout, the Union Pacific agent here, was seriously, perhaps fatally, cut by a negro named Don Adams yesterday. Adams was arrested, found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Stout's friends were not satisfied with the sentence and took the negro from the officers and lynched him.
