During the Spring and Fall Seasons, Extra Copies of the ORANGEBURG NEWS will be circulated for the benefit of our ADVERTISING PATRONS.
Contract Advertisements inserted on the most Liberal Terms. Address
SAMUEL DIBBLE,
Editor "Orangeburg News,"
Orangeburg, S. C.

We respectfully request our friends to send in their Advertisements as early in the week as convenient; and if possible, let us have them by Thursday evening. By this means, we will be able to issue an earlier hour on Saturday, and will be enabled to give more of the latest news, up to the time of our going to press.

Sale Day.

Monday last no inconsiderable crowd gathered at the Village from different portions of the District to attend the Sales of Lands by the Sheriff and Commissioner. Most of these present seemed to have no money or at least were indispensed to venture to purchase, consequently the property was disposed of at the prices annexed:

By Commissioner in Equity:
Snell vs. Rest—158 acres $100.
Salley vs. Corbett—583 acres, $185.
Jones vs. Jones—381 acres, $400; and 205 acres, $55.

Fairy vs. Grimes—180 acres, brought $100.
O'Can vs. Smoke—280 acres, $50.
Com' vs. McMichael—479 acres, $700.
Rickenbaker vs. Haigler—196 acres, $200; and 294 acres, $110.

By the Sheriff:
Reese vs. Barsh—House and Lot in Bräuchville, $40.50.

Simmons vs. Stroman—200 acres, $49.
Martin vs. Phillips—120 acres, $20.
Estate Jacob A. Dantzer—128 acres, $40.
Estate James Williams—121 acres, $38.
Estate J. W. Smith—200 acres, $715.
Estate E. V. Ott—107 acres, $34.

After the Sales, it was announced by Capt. JAMISON, that a public meeting would be holden on Monday next, to discuss the propriety and policy of requesting the Bar of Orangeburg to dispense with the calling of the Civil Docket at the approaching session of the Court of Common Pleas.

We are requested to announce that the Commissioners of Roads of St. Matthew's Parish will meet at their usual place of assembly on Monday next, the 8th instant.

The following gentlemen compose the Board:
A. T. Darby, D. J. Hane, Owen Shuler, J. G. Keitt, J. A. Parlor, E. Y. Shuler, J. L. Parlor, M. K. Holman, T. G. Shuler, W. L. Pore, J. W. Sellers, R. W. Bates, J. W. Barbour, Augustus Avinger, P. W. Avinger, J. D. Zeigler, M. J. Keller and J. C. Holman.

"Our Policy."

We invite the attention of our readers to the article under the above caption, which we this week publish. The topic is vitally important; the style in which the article is written is pleasing and attractive, and the author is one of our most influential and distinguished citizens. These facts will ensure for the communication the attentive reading and thoughtful-consideration of our readers.

We shall be pleased to hear from "Marion" frequently.

South Carolina University.

We have received from the Secretary of the Faculty of this Institution, the Catalogue for the present year. We are pleased to see that the Alma Mater of many of the most distinguished men of the State is recovering from the utter prostration consequent upon the exigencies of the late war. There are now one hundred and eight Matriculates, and three resident graduates on the rolls of the Institution. We wish for it a speedy return to the standard of Scholarship and number of Students which marked its ante bellum history.

The following young gentlemen of the District are among the Students:

LEUCIUS B. BATES, St. Matthew's Parish.
WM. T. C. BATES, " "
D. Z. DANTZLER, " "
F. W. DANTZLER, " "
ABSALOM D. FAIR, Orange Parish.

Mass Meeting of Freedmen.

About three hundred of the freedmen residing in the Village and its vicinage, on last Monday night convened at the School House, for the purpose of organizing a political party. The platform of the Union Republican (Radical) Party, which was ratified in Charleston last week, was adopted—and most of the freedmen present seemed willing to pledge their support—though we are certain that not more than half a dozen (if that many) knew what they were voting for.

During the meeting a collection was taken up to assist in the publication of a Radical journal in Charleston, and though one negro very sensibly remarked that the times were hard, and Charity begins at home—many hard earned shipplasters were deposited in the collector's hat. Fanaticism does not care for the starving of its votaries; its leaders are blind to everything but the success of their policy and their own aggrandizement.

The Southern Cultivator.

The April number of this valuable and well-known journal has been received by us. It contains 48 pages—34 of reading matter, mostly original, and is embellished with a tasteful ground plan of a convenient dwelling.

Terms two dollars per annum, or one dollar for six months. Those desiring to subscribe will address WM. N. WHITE, Athens, Ga.

To Messrs. EZEKIEL & KOHN our editorial table is indebted for a pair of indispensable, (we mean scissors) for which they have our thanks. If all the cutlery of their well known establishment has as good cutting qualities as these scissors, no one purchasing from them will have cause to complain of his bargains.

New Advertisements.

Attention is called to the notice of a House for Sale, fronting Market street.

Our friend "Mac" has arrived home again, with a fine supply of goods suited to the season, and invites an examination of his Spring Stock. See his advertisement.

Our lady friends will observe with interest, the advertisement of Mrs. OLDENDORF, announcing a fine selection of Millinery and Fancy Goods, of the latest Spring styles.

Mr. T. A. JEFFORDS will be in Orangeburg on Friday and Saturday 12th and 13th inst., and will offer for sale a large quantity of Shoulders, Sides, Flour and Corn. See his advertisement.

Rev. A. F. DICKSON's flourishing Classical and Primary School, at the commencement of its second term, is announced in our columns. We hope that the success of this institution will be permanent; for, while no cause is of more importance to us than the education of our youth, none are better fitted for this noble work than the respected principal and the accomplished assistant, who have charge of this school.

We invite attention to the advertisement in another column, of Messrs. H. L. JEFFERS & Co., Factors, in Charleston. These gentlemen are well known to many in the District as reliable, enterprising and energetic; and planters shipping their cotton will find they make good sales, at the most advantageous rates.

Our friends in the timber business will observe a fresh demand for Mill Timber in Charleston. We refer them to the advertisement of Messrs. HUDGINS, OWEN & Co., who offer the most liberal rates for the article, for their extensive sawmill in the city. Give them a call.

Grand Presentation Concert.

The ladies of Baltimore with their usual active benevolence have inaugurated a Grand Presentation Concert in aid of the Southern Orphan Association, to be given at the Maryland Institute, at Baltimore, on the 30th day of April next. There are to be issued 500,000 tickets and each ticket will draw a prize. The prizes are various, from an Engraving up to elegant Mansions and Farms. The tickets are only one dollar each, and the cause is one which commends itself to the sympathy of the Southern people. Messrs. CHARLES S. BULL & Co., are the agents for their sale in this place.

MRS. OLDENDORF

Respectfully announces the arrival of a Fine Selection of MILLINERY and FANCY GOODS, suitable to the Season, and of the most Fashionable Styles.

Among Straw Goods, she would mention "Almas," "Sontags," the very latest; also "Gladiators," Bonnets of every description, and "Sundowns," and "Seasides" in great variety.

Also, Flowers and Fancy Goods generally.
She solicits a call from her Friends, at the Store of Messrs. Charles S. Bull & Co., on Main Street.

NOTICE.

T. A. JEFFORDS will be at his Store in Orangeburg on Friday and Saturday, next, 12th and 13th inst., and shall offer to those in want

50,000 pounds Shoulders from 21 to 12.
50,000 pounds Sides from 12 to 11.
500 barrels Flour from $10 to $14.
1,000 bushels Corn.

PLANTERS in need of these articles, would do well to see him before his return.

NOTICE.

IN accordance with the recent Changes made in the Internal Revenue Law, all Special Taxes, (previously called Licenses,) as also Incomes for 1866, Carriages, Billiard Tables, Plate, of either Gold or Silver and Watches, are to be returned immediately. Special Taxes will date from March 1st instead of May 1st, as formerly, unless Returned within time specified by law a penalty of ten per centum, will be added. Persons neglecting to make returns for any business or occupation for which a Special Tax (or License) is imposed, are liable to a fine of $500.

I will be at my office at Orangeburg, S. C., on Tuesday and Saturday of every week, and will give all desired information. Other days I will visit the different Precincts or Polls, of which due notice shall be given.

THE SOUTHERN DRUG STORE!

For the liberal patronage which I have thus far received from the citizens of Orangeburg District and the confidence shown in me by very numerous friends. I take the opportunity of expressing my sincere gratitude in this, the first issue of the "ORANGEBURG NEWS." The encouragement of past patronage and kindness induces a strong faith in future success, and, while thanking my friends for past favors, I can assure them that nothing will be left undone to deserve their continuing patronage. My Store will be essentially a DRUG STORE; in it will be kept such Drugs and Medicines alone, as I will warrant Genuine and Pure. I have arranged to supply my customers with Medicines of the very best quality afforded in the market. I avoid all cheap useless articles, and yet my prices shall be reasonable for VALUABLE, GOOD, FRESH MEDICINES as any body's.

I invite the PHYSICIANS of the District to call and examine for themselves. They are judges to whose opinions I submit. Send your Orders and they will be filled to your satisfaction. To the Citizens of my native District who have tried me, I say don't give me up, try me a little longer, and you'll not regret it—you'll find I'll stand a long race, as well as a short one; and your faith in me shall not be misplaced. To those who have not yet tried me, now is your time to begin. As before, if you want good, pure, family MEDICINES, such as Laudanum, Paregoric, Castor Oil, Sweet Oil, Epsom Salts, Glauber Salts, Cream Tartar, Carb. Soda, &c., &c., or Dye Stuffs and Paints, and Brushes, Concentrated Lye, &c., or even Patent Medicines of all kinds. Now, just call at that Little Store on Main-Street, and you will be sure to get what you want.

This Drug Store looks small, but your surprise will be great when you enter to find how appearances deceive, and what a quantity of good things are within this same Little Store.

B. M. SHULER,
Druggist.
