A True Sketch.

It was night and dark. It was very cold. The snow fell fast, and the road was rough and slippery. A poor minister was making his way homeward. It had been a cold Sunday, very cold to him. His heart chattered with cold while he offered up the prayers, and preached the words of salvation. The night previous had been cold. Away from his home in an upper room, wearily he had passed the hours of darkness, with inflamed lungs, cold and sleepless. He plods on his way slowly, he is weary, his heart is sad, pictures of the past float before his vision. "Three years and past, I entered on this field of labor. I brought with me a horse and humble carriage. They had been procured by years of self-denial. Times were very good, they said; railroads were building, and men getting rich.-My people got high prices. I had to pay them. I was soon forced to sell my horse. I could not feel him. The carriage followed. I could not keep the money.-Bread doubled three-fold in price. Children, wife and all must have it. Salary no more, nay, less. Still the times were good, they said,-they ran fast, yea, past me. Horses can be hired. I hired them, and had to pay for them. Steamboats demanded fare. Missionary points could not be reached without money. I denied self more and more, and wife helped me; but I could not keep up with the times,-they ran past me. Horses, boats, cars, all left me. And now, I walked, plodding onward, carriageless,-moneyless,-and withered? Crops failed, money crisis came, times changed, they said. Salary less,-flour higher. And yet I live, and we is me if I do not preach the Gospel! Yet no land to cultivate-no house to dwell in. Oh in my bitterness I cry: Why here at all? Why thus in sorrow, wearily travelling onward, into the hidden, the unknown? Cold is the wind and the storm. My coat is thin; yet it has worn well,-years, and more. But well do I remember how long it took to pay for it. Appearances are little,-but these coughs, inflamed throat and lungs, I fear them. But it is soon over. Others have gone, and I am going. There is a rest. The Brotherhood of Christ, I trust, will not forget me. God the Father, Christ my Saviour, I know, will not. They do manifest themselves unto me,-they will finally receive me."

Weary and worn he reaches his home. The storm had made its mark upon him. He passed a restless night. But the morn cometh!

MISCELLANEOUS.

Definitions of Character.

Fine Fellow-The man who advertises in our paper; the man who never refuses to lend you money, and the rich fellow who is courting your sister. Gentle People-The young lady who lets her mother do the ironing for fear of spoiling her hands; the miss who wears thin shoes on a rainy day, and the young gentleman who is ashamed to be seen walking with his father. Industrious People-The young lady who reads romances in bed, the friend who is always engaged when you call, and the correspondent who can never find time to answer your letters. Unpopular People-The fat man in an omnibus, a tall man in a crowd, and a short man on a parade. Timid People-A lover about to pop the question, a man who does not like to be shot at,

and a steamboat company with a case of cholera on board.

Dignified Men-A midshipman on a quarter deck, a chit in a country town, a school committee on examination day, dry goods clerks, and beginners in law.

Persecuted People-Woman, by that tyrant man, boys, by their parents and teachers, and all poor people, by society at large.

Unhappy People-Old bachelors and old maids.

Ambitious Chaps-The writer who pays the magazine for inserting his communication; the politician who quits his party because he cannot get into office, and the boy who expects to be President.

Humble Persons-The husband who does his wife's churning, the wife who blacks her husband's boots, and the man who thinks you do him much honor.

Mean People-The man who kicks people when they are down, and the subscriber who refuses to pay for his paper.

Sensible People-You and I.

When is plant like a hog? When it begins to root. And when is it like a soldier? When it begins to shoot. When is it like an editor? When it begins to blow. And when is it like a lady? When it blooms.

State Taxes.

We extract the following from the Acts of the General Assembly on this subject.

An Act to raise supplies for the year commencing in October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

ARTICLES TAXED "AD VALOREM."

I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That a tax for the sums and in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be raised and paid into the Treasury of this State, for the use and service thereof, that is to say: Upon the following articles there shall be an ad valorem tax paid as property, according to its assessed value, viz: On all real estate, thirty cents on every hundred dollars, except such lands as may be in the possession of the Freedmen's Bureau on the first day of January next; On the capital stock of all gas-light companies, fifty cents on every hundred dollars; On articles manufactured for sale, barter or exchange, between the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the same day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, one dollar on every hundred dollars, to be paid by the manufacturers; On the gross amounts of all spirituous liquors, except on liquors manufactured in this State from fruits in their season, sold from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, ten per cent, to be paid quarterly to the Tax Collectors of their respective Districts; On buggies, carriages, gold and silver plate, watches, jewelry and pianos, on hand on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except when held by dealers for the purpose of sale, one dollar on every hundred dollars.

TAX ON INCOMES.

Upon all gross incomes, derived from the following sources, there shall be paid a tax of the per cent herein specified on the aggregate amount received, between the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, to wit: From employments, faculties and professions, including the profession of dentistry, (whether in the profession of the law the profits be derived from the costs of suit, fees, or other sources of professional income,) excepting clergymen, two dollars on every hundred dollars; On commissions received by brokers, vendue masters, commission merchants, dealers in exchange, (foreign or domestic,) or in mortgages, bonds and other negotiable papers, five dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross amount of premiums received by Insurance Companies incorporated within this State, two dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross amount of premiums received by Agencies of Insurance Companies and underwriters incorporated without the limits of this State, three dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross amount of the receipts of Express Companies, ten dollars on every hundred dollars, to be paid to the Treasury of the State; On the gross amount of the receipts of Telegraph Companies, five dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross amount of the receipts from the sale of pictorial newspapers, or pictorial magazines, twenty-five dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross receipts of newspapers published in this State, two dollars on every hundred dollars; On the amount of sales of goods, wares, merchandize, embracing all the articles of trade for sale, barter or exchange (spirituous liquors and the products of this State, and the unmanufactured products of any of the United States, or Territories thereof, excepted,) which any person shall have made from the first day of January of the present year, to the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, sixty cents on every hundred dollars; On the amount of sales of goods, wares, and merchandize, embracing all the articles of trade for sale, barter or exchange (spirituous liquors and the products of this State, and the unmanufactured products of any of the United States, or Territories thereof, excepted,) which any person shall make from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, to be paid quarterly, at the end of each quarter, to the several Tax Collectors, fifty cents on every hundred dollars; On the gross profits of National banks, two dollars on every hundred dollars; On the incomes derived from the arts of photographing and ducquerotyping, one dollar on every hundred dollars; On the incomes derived from saw-mills, flour-mills and grist-mills, and also from cotton ginned on toll, two dollars on every hundred dollars; On the gross incomes of all railroads, (not exempted by law,) one dollar on every hundred dollars; Provided, That where a part of a railroad only is within the limits of this State, the return of its income shall bear the same ratio to its whole income as the length of the road in this State bears to its whole length; All persons keeping a hotel, shall pay a tax of two dollars on every hundred dollars; All persons keeping restaurants, or eating houses, shall pay a tax of two dollars on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping living stables, shall pay a tax of two dollars on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping billiard-tables, shall pay a tax of five dollars, on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping bowling-alleys, shall pay a tax of five dollars on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping bar rooms, whether connected with a hotel or otherwise, shall pay a tax of ten dollars on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping ferries, shall pay a tax of one dollar on every hundred dollars of gross income; All persons keeping toll-gates, shall pay a tax of one dollar on every hundred dollars of gross income; Each person, or company, keeping a public race-track, shall pay a tax of one hundred dollars; Upon every taking out of a charter, except charters for religious, charitable and educational purposes, shall be levied a tax of twenty dollars; Upon each renewal of a charter, liable to tax under this Act, ten dollars; Upon each public hack, stage-coach, dry and baggage wagon, there shall be paid a tax of ten dollars; On each omnibus, twenty-five dollars.

TAXES IMPOSED FOR CERTAIN PRIVILEGES.

The following taxes shall be paid by the parties herein specified for the privilege exercised by them respectively, to-wit: All persons representing publicly for gain or reward any plays, comedy, tragedy, interlude or farce, or other employment of the stage, or any part therein, or exhibiting wax-works or other shows of any kind whatsoever, to be paid into the hands of the Clerks of the Courts, (or Magistrate in the absence of the Clerk) respectively, (who shall be bound to collect and pay the same into the Public Treasury, excepting in cases where the same is now required by law to be paid to corporations or otherwise,) ten dollars per day; All circus exhibitions, to be paid at the time, fifty dollars per day; Each and every person keeping a dog or dogs, except one for each plantation, and one for each inhabited lot in cities, towns and villages, shall pay one dollar for each dog.

SPECIAL TAX.

The following special tax shall be levied, to-wit: A capitation tax of one dollar per head on every male between the ages of twenty-one and fifty, resident in the State on the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except those incapable of earning a support from being married, or from any other cause.

II. All taxes levied on property, as prescribed in this Act, shall be paid to the Tax Collector for the District or Parish in which said property is located, except that the tax levied by this Act on Railroad Companies, Express Companies and Telegraph Companies be returned to and paid directly into the Treasury of the State.

III. Every employer shall make returns of the names of all persons that are employed by him, and pay the tax of such person or persons, in which case the tax receipt shall be a good and valid set-off in any action for wages by such employee against such employer.

V. That the taxes herein levied shall be paid only in gold and silver coin, United States Treasury notes, or notes declared to be a legal tender by the Government of the United States, or notes of National Banks, or the bills receivable of this State; and also pay certificates of jurors and constables for attendance on the Courts.

VII. Each Tax Collector shall attend at the Court House of the Tax District, (or if there be no Court House, at some other public place) daily for one week previous to making his final return, for the receipt of taxes of their respective Districts or Parishes. All taxes on property imposed by the provisions of this Act shall have reference both as to possession and valuation to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, except where some other date is specially designated. All taxes on income imposed by the provisions of this Act shall have reference to the amount of such income received between the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, except where some other date is specially designated between which the tax shall run.

In the Senate House, the twenty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

W. D. PORTER, President of the Senate.

CHARLES H. SIMONTON, Speaker House of Representatives.

Approved December 21st, 1866.

JAMES L. ORR, Governor.
