READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL ITEMS.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1867.

Important to Subscribers

We are making arrangements to furnish great inducements to the reading public of Orangeburg and the surrounding Districts.

We will announce at present that we will furnish the ORANGEBURG NEWS and the Southern Indicator for one year, at THREE DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS, in advance.

We will furnish the ORANGEBURG NEWS and "Rural Weekly," a charming magazine for Boys and Girls, for one year, at THREE DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS, in advance.

We will furnish the ORANGEBURG NEWS, and The American Farmer, the oldest Agricultural publication in the United States, (which is published at Baltimore, Md.), at THREE DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS, in advance.

These are equal to any in the United States, in their respective departments of periodical literature; and are each published at the same rates as the ORANGEBURG NEWS, $2.00 per annum. Send in your names and the money.

Death of a Promising Citizen.

We are pained to announce the demise on Friday, night, 20th instant, of SAMUEL D. STOCKER Esq., after a brief illness. The deceased was a young man of much promise, and was highly esteemed and beloved by a large circle of acquaintances and friends. In his death, we feel that our community has lost a useful and enterprising member. His funeral obsequies were performed at the Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon; and his remains were removed to the city on Sunday, for interment.

Errata.

We owe an apology to our friend, PAYSAN, for a few typographical errors last week. For "dead," in 2nd line, read "dual." For "blow," in 7th line, read "blown." For "hallowing," (near the end) drop "w."

Public Meeting.

The people of St. Matthews Parish are requested to attend a public meeting at the Parish House, on the first Saturday in October, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Any information regarding Mr. GEORGE M. LUGA, who was in South Carolina just before the war as agent for a patent lathe machine, will be thankfully received at this office.

Fine Segars.

We possess to retail indulging in the luxury of a smoke; but when it is our fortune to meet with a segar that is really a good one, we so much the more enjoy it. Our thanks are due to Messrs. J. D. STOCKER & Co., of a front of this kind, in the pleasantable of a bunch of really fine segars, which by some means, they are able to sell at a surprisingly low price—only 5 cents apiece. They are worth three times the money.

Our Exchanges.

We congratulate our German friends upon the prospect of having a journal in Charleston, in the language of their Father-land, DIE CHARLESTONER ZEITUNG, will be published by Messrs. C. G. BRACKMAN & Co., and will be edited by Gen. JOHN A. WAGENER, so well known to our readers, as the advocate of Immigration. His name alone is a guarantee of an ably conducted journal.

The Houston (Texas) Journal comes to us full of good things from the far Southwest. We place it on our exchange list with pleasure.

The Wilmington (N.C.) Evening Star is a new daily, and claims the largest local circulation in that City. It is edited by Messrs. BERNARD & EVANS, two quondam "Rebs," of facile and sprightly pens; and we say, "Brother ships our hand."

COMMERCIAL.

Office of the Orangeburg News, September 27, 1867.

A wrong impression prevails amongst some of the planters of this District, that it is necessary the tax should be paid on their Cotton before being shipped from this District. This is a mistake. The tax must be paid on Cotton before shipment towards Augusta and Columbia, but there are no restrictions on it being sent to Charleston.
