tian Adrocate with a copy of the reports from the different committees. On motion of Rev. Wm. Carson, the thanks of this body were tendered to the people of Cattle Creek, for the handsome hospitality extended to the members of the Conference; which was passed by a unanimous rising vote. There being no further business, the Conference adjourned, with the doxology and benediction by the Presiding Elder.

B. C. HARD, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CIRCUIT BOUNDARIES AND PARSONAGES.

We believe that the people have become reconciled to the present arrangement of their Circuits and Boundaries, with the exception, as far as ascertained, of the churches of Bethel, Zion and 41 Station, formerly belonging to St. George's Circuit, and embracing about 40 white members, who are destitute of ministerial service. We recommend that the three churches be embraced in the St. George's Cir-

In regard to the Parsonages, we believe that so soon as the people can be satisfied that the present Circuits will be retained, they will enter heartily into the erection of Parsonages for the comfort of the ministers and their families and we so recommend.

JAS, B. BERRY, Chairman.

REPORT / OF THE COMMITTEE ON COLORED POPULATION.

The Committee, on whom devolved the duty of reporting in reference to the colored people beg leave to present the following: We regret that we are compelled to state, Reys. J. R. Pickett, J. E. Penny, John from facts that have come under our own observations and reported by others, that there is in the bounds of our District Conference a wide spread and growing disaffection evidenced by this class of our population towards the Methodist Episcopal Church South. With the exception of an occasional locality, they have generally severed their connection with our Church, and formed themselves into Associations, whose prevailing sentiment seems to be Radicalism, instead of the religion of Christ. This change in their Church relations, and substitution of politics for religion, we deeply deplore, and would arrest if possible. But your committee confess to a feeling of great discouragement in this work. We would not, however, recommend a suspension of effort. We would say to the officials of our Church and especially to the Ministers, local and itinerant, that we should still estemm it our imperative duty, to do what is in our power, to enlighten and save the colored people, whenever and wherever practicaple. There are a few who are still disposed to avail themselves of our instruction, and by persevering efforts on E. WILLIS. their behalf, their numbers may be gradually augmented. To yield to despair, because of formidable obstacles in the way of the discharge of duty, is not characteristic of the times, philanthropic or christian.

We therefore recommend for adoption by his Body the following resolutions:

1st. That as a Church we are as much as ever interested in the moral" well-being of the colored population in our midst.

2d. That we will not relax our efforts, in the use of proper means to calighten their minds, and save their souls from death.

All of which is respectfully submitted. M. L. BANKS, Chairman.
