On Circuit and Parsonage Boundaries. On motion of Rev. John Morris, Rev. W G. Connor, Chairman of the Committee on Education and Church Literature, was requested to visit the Darlington District Conference, and solicit aid for Wofford College. EVENING SESSION .- Rev. W. G. Connor moved that the report on Boundaries be amended, by recommending that 41 Station, Zion and Bethel Churches, be included in St. George's Circuit, or making them a Mission, as the Annual Conference may decide. Cattle Creek Camp Ground, Orangeburg and Indian Fields Camp Ground were put in nomination as inviting the next District Conference; whereupon Orangeburg was selected by a bare majority.

On motion in committee of three was ap pointed to investigate the claim, said to be due Mrs. Jenkins, for the District Parsonage, The following were the committee :

Jas. Stokes, Ben. Pooser, J. F. Riley. On motion of Dr. R. W. Bates, seconded by Rev. J. R. Picket, it was resolved, that Rev. W. G. Connor be-furnished with a copy of the minutes for publication ; and that the Secretary be requested to furnish the Southern Christian Advocate with a copy of the reports from the different committees.

On motion of Rev. Wur. Carson, the thanks of this body were tendered to the people of Cattle Creck, for the handsome hospitality extended to the members of the Conference ; thich was passed by a unanimous rising vote. There being no further business, the Conference adjourned, with the doxology and benediction by the Presiding Elder. B. C. HARD, Socretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CIRCUIT BOUNDARIES AND PARSONAGES.

We believe that the people have become reconciled to the present arrangement of their Circuits and Boundaries, with the exception, as far as ascertained, of the churches of Bethel, Zion and 41 Station, formerly belonging to St. George's Circuit, and embracing about 40 white members, who are destitute of ministerial service. We recommend that the three churches be embraced in the St. George's Circuit.

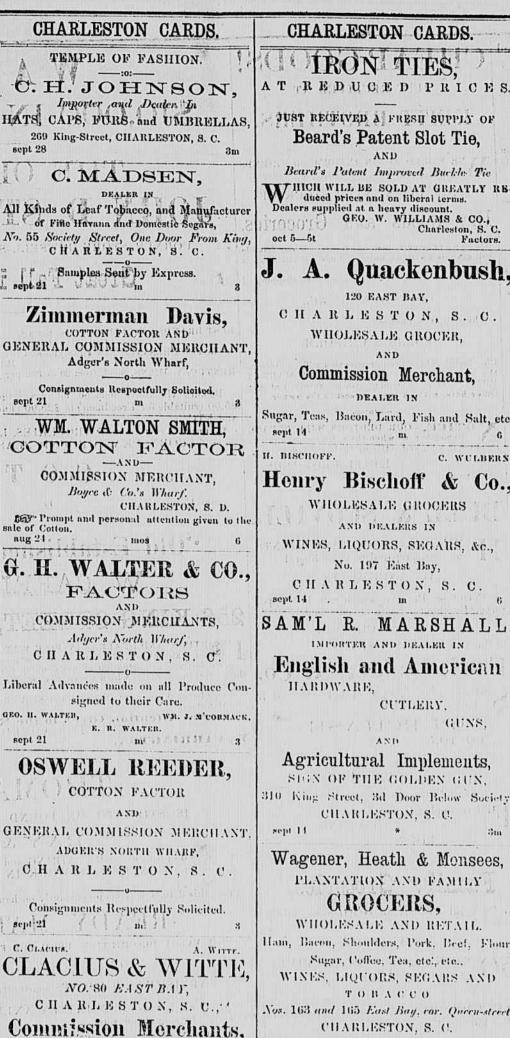

In regard to the Parsonages, we believe that so soon as the people can be satisfied that the present Circuits will be 'retained, they will enter heartily into the creetion of Parsonages for the comfert of the ministers and their families and we so recommend.

JAS, B, BERRY, Chairman.

Meeting adjourned as usual with the bene-diction by the Presiding Elder. AFTERNOON SESSION.—Prayer by the Presiding Elder servations and reported by others, that there is in the bounds of our District Conference a wide spread and growing disaffection evidenced by this class of our population towards the Methodist Episcopal Church South. With the exception of an occasional locality, they have generally severed their connection with our Church, and formed themselves into Associations, whose prevailing sentiment seems to be Radicalism, instead of the religion of Christ. This change in their Church relations, and substitution of politics for religion, we deeply deplore, and would arrest if possible. But your committee confess to a feeling of great discouragement in this work. We would not, however, recommend a suspension of effort. We would say to the officials of our Church and especially to the Ministers, local and itinerant, that we should still estemm it our imperative duty, to do what is in our power, to enlighten and save the colored people, whenever and wherever practicaple. There are a few who are still disposed to avail themselves of our instruction, and by persevering efforts on their behalf, their numbers may be gradually augmented. To yield to despair, because of formidable obstacles in the way of the discharge of duty, is not characteristic of the times, philanthropic or christian.

We therefore recommend for adoption by STOLL, WEBB & CO. this Body the following resolutions : 1st. That as a Church we are as much as ever interested in the moral" well-being of the colored population in our midst. 2d. That we will not relax our efforts, in the use of proper means to culighten their minds, and save their souls from death. All of which is respectfully submitted. M. L. BANKS, Chairman.
