We respectfully request our friends to send in their advertisements as early in the week as convenient; and if possible, let us have them by Thursday evening. By this means, we will be able to issue at an earlier hour on Saturday, and will be enabled to give more of the latest news, up to the time of our going to press.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.
LOCAL ITEMS.
SATURDAY MORNING, NOV., 30, 1867.

An Extra Court
Of General Sessions and Common Pleas will be held at Orangeburg on the second Monday in February next.

The Election.
The probability is that the Convention is defeated in this State, by the non-voting of a majority of the registered voters.
The entire registration of the State amounts to over 125,000; and it is confidently believed that one-half of that number have not voted. If this be the case, there will be no Convention in South Carolina.

Home-Made Wine.
We were the happy recipients, on Monday last, of a bottle of the "pure juice of the grape," from the vintage of the present year; and take this opportunity, in returning our thanks to the fair donor, Mrs. JAMES STOKES, to express the hope that she may ever be as successful in the production of a delightful beverage from grapes grown on our own soil, as she has been in the present instance. While on this subject, we will also say, that we regard the day as far distant, when the vineyards of Carolina will compare favorably with those of Ohio and California, and essay comparison with the vine-clad hills of "la belle France" and the Rhine land over the waters.

27 1/2 Inches Round!
That turnip, weighing six pounds and a half, presented to us by Mrs. J. HAMILTON FELTON (to whom our thanks), measures twenty-seven and a half inches in circumference. It is of the Flat Dutch variety, and is worth looking at. It can be seen at our office until cooking time.
