The Firemen's Supper.

On last Saturday night, the friends of the Young America met to enjoy a social reunion around a festive board. WILLIAMSON, the prince of caterers, had provided at the Orangeburg Hotel, such a supper as would tempt the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. The Committee had made all needful arrangements for the enjoyment of the members and their guests. Wit, spicy yet good natured, added zest to the occasion, and at a seasonable hour, or rather midnight, the company dispersed to their homes in good humor with themselves and all mankind, but especially with the committee of arrangements, and with "mine host" WIL[illegible] of the Orangeburg Hotel.

A Christmas Festival.

The ladies of the Methodist Church propose to furnish a supper at some time during the Christmas holidays, for the purpose of increasing the comfort of their house of worship, by procuring a stove and making improvements and repairs. We wish them much success in this laudable enterprise.

We are requested to announce that a meeting will be held on Monday next, at Rev. W. [illegible]'s Female Seminary at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of making final arrangements.

The supper will be served on Friday night, 20th inst. at the Seminary, and will be, we are informed, such a feast as the ladies of Orangeburg, with their skillful housewifery, know so well how to prepare; and at such a rate of admission that will enable all to participate.

Fire.

At about 10 o'clock on Wednesday an alarm of Fire caused our gallant firemen to man the drags of the "Young America," and hurry towards the Depot, where it was said a train loaded with Cotton was on fire. Before reaching, however, the scene of the expected conflagration the news was received that the fire was extinguished—one bale of cotton only being damaged. The firemen therefore returned, housed their engine and resumed their ordinary avocations.

We congratulate the Rail Road Company on the fortunate discovery of the fire, in time to prevent what would have proved a very destructive conflagration.

Elliott's Varieties.

For three evenings, this company of artists performed for the entertainment of our citizens. We understand that they gave complete satisfaction to all who attended their performances, which were lively, and interesting.

The Southern Cultivator.

From the December Number, which we have just received, we learn that this staunch old agricultural journal has changed hands.—Messrs. CAMAK and REDMOND have retired and the paper will hereafter be Edited by Mr. WM. JONES and Dr. W. L. JONES, Professor of Agriculture in the University of Georgia. Under its former editorship the Cultivator was one of our most valuable agricultural exchanges, and we feel confident that under the able management of its present proprietors it will maintain its reputation.

Our readers will please remember that the ORANGEBURG NEWS and Southern Cultivator can be obtained for one year, for the small sum of $3.50.

The Little Chief.

The last number of the Little Chief published by Messrs. DOWLING & SHORTRIDGE, Indianapolis, Indiana, comes to us bright and charming as a spring lark. It will gladden the little folks like the singing of birds and the opening of flowers—an unobjectionable juvenile monthly, with its delightful pictures and clear print. All the children ought to have it; it also freshens older hearts to look over its pages. Terms: 75 cents per year.

American Farmer, Baltimore.

Every planter should subscribe. The December number contains articles on the—Agricultural Policy of the South—Orthodox Manuring—Clover as Manure—Lime—Rotation of Crop Systems—Fall Ploughing—Colorado Potato Bug—Grape Growing—Sheep—Mutton and Wool—Destruction of Insects—Harvest of 1867—Besides Farm, and Garden Work, Veterinary Department, and a variety of other interesting matter.

Published by WORTHINGTON & LEWIS, Baltimore. $2 a year in advance. With the ORANGEBURG NEWS $3.50.

Burke's Weekly

Is undoubtedly one of the best publications for boys and girls issued in this country, North or South, and it deserves a general support. No boy or girl in the South should be without it. The first issue for January will contain the opening chapter of a thrilling original novelette entitled "Ellen Hunter; a Tale of the War,"—the first of a series of stories for the young, from the pen of a talented lady of Virginia. Now is the time to subscribe. Those who, during the month December, send a year's subscription, can get all the back numbers, from July to January, stitched in an elegant illuminated cover. Terms, $2 a year, or three copies for $5. This and the ORANGEBURG NEWS only $3.50. Specimen copies will be sent on application to J. W. BURKE & Co., Macon, Ga.

CORN AND PEAS.—324 sacks shipped during the same time.

Report of the Charleston Cotton Market for the Week Ending Dec. 12.

Reported for the Orangeburg News by

W. WALTON SMITH, COTTON FACTOR.

On Friday, the 6th inst., our market opened firm, with a good demand, and the improvement in other markets gave an advance of ¼@½c. on the last week's quotations. The demand on Saturday was active, with large sales at a further improvement of ½c., the market closing with an advancing tendency. On Monday unfavorable news from abroad checked the demand, and holders, in order to effect sales, were compelled to submit to a decline of ¼c. on prices of the day before. On Tuesday the market was depressed, and prices declined during the day from ¼@½c. with a downward tendency. The depression continued on Wednesday, and with a light demand, prices fell off ½c. On Thursday, the market was very irregular, the sales showing a decline of ¼@½c. The sales for the week about 4,600 bales. We quote:

AND IRON HOOP FOR BALING COTTON.

Iron Hoops for Baling Cotton being largely in use in the South, and being sold much cheaper than Rope, the propriety of using them in place of Rope, is brought to the attention of the Planters. These Ties are great Preservers of Cotton, when baled, from Fire. Every Tie is perfect, and ready for immediate use.

I will keep constantly on hand a lot of the Universal Tie and Iron Hoop, which I will sell at Charleston prices—12 cents, expenses added.

A sample of the above Tie can be seen at this Office, where it may be compared to the Arrow Tie. Persons then can judge for themselves, which they prefer.
