EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
COLUMBIA, March 27, 1865.
THE invasion of the State has rendered it proper that the Legislative Department of the Government of the State should be convened, that such measures may be adopted as the welfare of the State may require. And for that purpose the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina are hereby invited to assemble at Greenville, on TUESDAY, the 25th day of April, 1865, at 12 o'clock m.

By the Governor: A. G. MAGRATH,
Official: W. S. ELLIOTT, Private Sec'y.
apr 6/65—9

All papers in the State will copy until the time for the meeting of the Legislature.

C. & S. C. Railroad.
AS the immediate reconstruction of this road is highly important, all materials of iron, ties and stringers are needed, and their removal is forbidden by any one.
apr 6/65 WM. JOHNSTON, Pres't.

"Gems" for Children,
IS the title of a collection of admirable stories, mostly founded on facts, and which originally appeared in the Southern Presbyterian and Confederate Bopins, over the signature of "TRACTA."
The rapid sale of this work, (over 1300 copies having been sold,) speaks well for the favor with which it has been received by the Southern public. There is nothing sectarian contained in it, the authors' object being the inculcation of true piety among the rising generation.
Copies can be procured at this office. Price 25¢.
apr 1/65 R. F. MILLER.

Valuable Book Found.
SCOTT'S COMMENTARY, vol. 2, 1 Kings—Proverbs, has been left at this office for the owner, who can get it by calling and paying for this advertisement.
mch 30/65—7

Woodward's Mill
GRINDS Corn on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Two and a half miles below Winnboro. Meal given in exchange for oil and tallow at old prices.
mch 28/65—tw T. W. WOODWARD.

Hdq'r's 7th Reg't S. C. Cavalry.
CAMP NEAR RICHMOND, March 16, 1865.
OFFICERS and Soldiers of the Seventh Regiment of South Carolina Cavalry who are now absent without leave are called upon to return without delay to their command.
Many brave men linger to protect their suffering homes, or to engage the enemy upon their own soil—towards make the same excuse—but by remaining absent from their posts in the army they weaken our strength and postpone the hour of victory and peace. Soldiers must promptly return or be punished as "deserters," arrested as "deserters" and punished as "deserters."
The destruction of railroads is no excuse. Brave men will make their journey on foot, or on horseback, and re-join their posts of duty in the Army. It will be no excuse to a soldier, that he is doing duty in another command; this can only be permitted by an order from the Commander-in-Chief—without his order it is a military crime.
It is especially urged upon men to bring with them good horses; being dismounted will not obtain for them new furloughs, but transfers to infantry.

A. C. HASKELL,
Col. 7th Reg't S. C. Cavalry.

Hdq'r's Armies of the C. S.
11th FEBRUARY, 1865.
GENERAL ORDERS No. 3.
THE discipline and efficiency of the army have been greatly impaired by men leaving their proper commands to join others, in which they find service more agreeable.
This practice almost as injurious in its consequences as the crime of desertion, by the Articles of War, exposes the offender to a similar punishment, and subjects the officer receiving him to dismissal from the army.
It is therefore declared that the provisions of General Order No. 2, of this date, from army headquarters, apply to such men as have left their proper commands and joined others without being regularly transferred. They will receive the pardon promised in that order upon complying with its conditions, or suffer the consequences attached to neglecting it.
The names of such absentees will be forthwith reported to these headquarters by the officers with whom they are serving, and immediate measures taken to return them to their proper commands.
As soon as practicable an inspection will be made, and charges will be preferred against those who neglect to enforce this order.
mch 23/65—6 R. E. LEE, General.

Hdq'r's Armies of the C. States,
11th FEBRUARY, 1865.
GENERAL ORDERS No. 2.
IN entering upon the campaign about to be opened, the General-in-Chief feels assured that the soldiers who have so long and so nobly borne the hardships and dangers of the war, require no exhortation to respond to the calls of honor and duty.
With the liberty transmitted by their forefathers they have inherited the spirit to defend it.
The choice between war and subject submission is before them.
To such a proposal brave men with arms in their hands can have but one answer.
They cannot barter manhood for peace, nor the right of self-government for life or property.
But justice to them requires a sterner admonition to those who have abandoned their comrades in the hour of peril.
A last opportunity is offered them to wipe out the disgrace and escape the punishment of their crimes.
By authority of the President of the Confederate States, a pardon is announced to such deserters and men improperly absent, as shall return to the commands to which they belong within the shortest possible time, not exceeding twenty days from the publication of this order at the headquarters of the department in which they may be.
Those who may be prevented by interruption of communications, may report within the time specified to the nearest Enrolling Officer or other officer on duty, to be forwarded as soon as practicable, and upon presenting a certificate from such officer showing compliance with his requirement, will receive the pardon hereby offered.
Those who have deserted to the service of the enemy, or who have deserted after having been once pardoned for the same offence, and those who shall desert, or absent themselves without authority after the publication of this order, are excluded from its benefits. Nor does the offer of pardon extend to other offences than desertion and absence without permission.
By the same authority, it is also declared that no general amnesty will again be granted, and those who refuse to accept the pardon now offered, or who shall hereafter desert or absent themselves without leave, shall suffer such punishment as the Courts may impose, and no application for clemency will be entertained.
Taking new resolution from the fate which our enemies intend for us, let every man devote all his energies to the common defence.
Our resources wisely and vigorously employed are ample, and a brave army, sustained by a determined and united people, success, with God's assistance, cannot be doubtful.
The advantages of the enemy will have but little value if we do not permit them to impair our resolution. Let us, then, oppose constancy to adversity, fortitude to suffering and courage to danger, with the firm assurance that He who gave freedom to our fathers will bless the efforts of their children to preserve it.
mch 23/65—6 R. E. LEE, General.

State Record of Names of Deceased Soldiers.
SOUTH CAROLINA COLLEGE,
COLUMBIA, January 16, 1865.
UER appointment by the Legislature to prepare this Record, I earnestly appeal to the families or friends of our deceased soldiers to send me at once their names &c., while there is an opportunity to secure accurate information. Hospital registers and reports of casualties from the army are deficient in the information required; it must be obtained at home.
The Record will date back to the beginning of the war, and include all who have been killed in battle or died of wounds, received in battle, or from disease or accident. If you have been so fortunate as not to lose friend or relative, yet remember that it is noble to rescue from oblivion the name of but one friendless youth who had gone from your neighborhood to die in our cause.
Give—1. Name in full. 2. From what District. 3. Rank. 4. Company. 5. Regiment and arm of service. 6. Died, year, month, day. 7. Cause of death, and remarks (as where he died, age, previously wounded, &c.)
Circulars and blanks to be filled, will be sent to such as desire them. No fee or expense is incurred by any one for having the record made. The State is endeavoring to fulfill a sacred obligation in securing now, and recording for posterity, the names of all her sons who have fallen in this war. In 1862, the Convention unanimously resolved that this should be done, "as a token of respect to their memories, and a legacy of inestimable value to their friends;" and the resolution was sent forth, by their order, to be read to our regiments, battalions and companies everywhere. Many a brave soldier may have died in solitude or rushed upon the foe, with the thought in his heart that his name would be honorably preserved at home.

To the Friends of the Soldiers THROUGHOUT THE CONFEDERACY.
QUARTERMASTER GEN'S DEPARTMENT,
Railroad Bureau, Richmond, Feb. 20/64.
THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the Southern Express Company, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.
To secure the advantages thus obtained through the Express Company, the following instructions must be observed:
Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds; be well secured, and plainly marked, and sent at the expense of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations, which are located as follows:
In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery, or to any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.
The Agents of these Associations will here take charge of them, and ship daily, by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.
To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home, the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight preference over everything else; and, in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several railroad companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.
As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the Transportation of these packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their agents who have heretofore acted as travelling messengers. If the Relief Association establish agencies in the rear of other armies, they may enjoy the same privileges hereby secured to the army of Northern Virginia.
F. W. SIMS,
Approved, Lt. Col. and Quarterm'r.
A. R. LAWTON, Quartermaster Gen'l.

Office Southern Express Co.,
Augusta, Ga., Feb. 20, 1864.
The Southern Express Company hereby notify the friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia and elsewhere, that they are prepared to carry out arrangements as announced in the above card, and that they will do all in their power to fulfill its requirements.

Combined and continued under the old popular title of the SOUTHERN FIELD AND FIRESIDE.
THE Proprietors of the Mercury having purchased the Southern Field and Fireside, and finding it impossible to make arrangements which would insure a regular supply of paper, upon account of the irregularity and uncertainty of transportation for the Field and Fireside at Augusta, Ga., the same having to be supplied from the mills at Raleigh, N. C., have removed the Field and Fireside to Raleigh and combined these two sterling Literary Journals. The Mercury is therefore merged into the Southern Field and Fireside, and will be so published until the state of the country will justify a divergent, when both papers will be resumed and continued as heretofore. Subscribers to both journals will receive the paper to the full time of subscription without delay or interruption.
The entire editorial and contributory corps of both papers are retained upon the emerging journal. It is announced, without fear of contradiction, that the extensive and splendid array of combined talent now employed in writing for the Field and Fireside surpasses in genuine merit, ability, celebrity and numerical strength, any combination or engagement ever before attained in the history of Periodical Literature of Europe or America.

Prospectus of the Conservative.
PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY BY
J. B. NEATHERBY & CO., RALEIGH, N. C.
PRINCIPLES:
The true conservative platform—The supremacy of the civil over the military law. A quiet submission to all laws, whether good or bad, while they remain upon our statute books.
No reconstruction, or submission, but perpetual independence.
An unbroken front to the common enemy; but timely and repeated negotiations for peace by the proper authorities.
No separate State action through a Convention; no counter revolution; no combined resistance to the Government.
Opposition to despotism in every form, and the preservation of Republican institutions in all their purity.
We have determined to make the Conservative a permanent paper, for the maintenance of our principles, and to render a vigorous support to the cause of Southern independence. The administration of Gov. Vance will find in the Conservative a steady, honest, straight-forward supporter and defender, as will also the National administration, when its action is not in conflict with our principles.
The Conservative shall be a leading, reliable paper, and will be conducted with vigor, but with a proper regard to truth and right, and the courtesy due to others. It will not encourage or countenance personal or political wrangling and discord. It seeks to unite upon the great and all-absorbing interests of the Confederacy.
It shall be a thorough newspaper, and will give the latest telegraphic and other news most desirable to the public. The proceedings of the Legislature when in session, important action of Congress, and general intelligence will be served up daily for our readers.
OUR TERMS:
For the Daily, one month, $5 00
For the Daily, three months, 15 00
For the Daily, six months, 25 00
For the Weekly, six months, 10 00
No subscriptions to either Daily or Weekly received for a longer time than six months.
feb 13/65

TELEGRAPHIC
REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

No telegraphic reports from any section were received up to the hour of going to press. Should any news be received during the day we will issue it in an extra form, should it be deemed of sufficient importance.

YANKEE FAITHLESSNESS.—Some months ago an arrangement was perfected whereby cotton was to be sent to the North from Mobile, entrusted to the care of General Beall, a Confederate prisoner, who was released from Johnson's Island on parole for the purpose. By him it was to be sold and the proceeds invested in blankets and clothing for our prisoners. We are informed by an officer, who has just returned from Northern prisons, that with its characteristic meanness the Yankee Government has, for several weeks, withheld the supply, and some of our men are consequently again in want. Goods shipped to Elmira, only three days distant from New York City, had not been received in a month, and at Johnson's Island the supply was even more tardy. Meanwhile effort is made to induce our soldiers to take the oath, and when persuasions fail, starvation is resorted to as the next effective expedient. The result is that those who proved true to the cause have returned home swearing vengeance, and will neither take prisoners nor be taken themselves.—South Carolinian.

Southern Editors appear to be particularly obnoxious to the Yankees. We are informed by a soldier who was in Fayetteville when Sherman occupied that town, that the Yankees offered a reward of $10,000 for the body of E. J. Hale, senior editor of the Observer. And in Columbia, we learn they made strict search and enquiry for the Editors. If Editors do not care about visiting Northern prisons, they must keep out of the way of Mr. Sherman.
The Editor of the Wadesboro Argus was captured by Kilpatrick's cavalry when they passed through Anson county, and pretty roughly treated. But fortunately he escaped near Fayetteville.
[Char. Democrat.]

Gen. Hampton, in his dash on Kilpatrick, captured the wagon train and a portion of their artillery, and R. E. Young, A. G. Goodwin, P. F. Frazier, Wm. Morris and wife, who went off with the Yankees from Columbia, S. C., in their late raid through our State, were killed.—Columbia Phoenix.

The Macon Telegraph is informed that most of the negroes allured away by Yankee promises, are returning to their Confederate homes. In one neighborhood, of seventy who left, sixty-nine have returned.

Niles' Register Revived.
PROSPECTUS OF THE COUNTRYMAN!
NILES' REGISTER, the most useful Journal ever issued in America, has been revived in the publication of The Countryman. This journal is a fac-simile of its original in the number and size of its pages, its typography, and all the features which gave value to the standard publications issued by Mr. Niles.
Besides the features of Niles' Register, The Countryman has others which should render it still more attractive, to wit: a department of elegant literature, rejecting the style of Yankee literary journals, and modeling itself after the best English miscellaneous weeklies, but of the same time being stamped with an independent, southern tone, original and peculiar to itself.
An altogether novel feature with it, is that it is published in the country on the editor's plantation, nine miles from any town or village, and devotes much attention to agriculture, rural sports, and everything that interests the country gentleman.
The Countryman is a handsome quarto, of sixteen pages, published weekly on the editor's plantation, near Eatonton, Ga., to which all communications should be addressed.
Our terms are $5 for three months, or $10 per annum.
Send all remittances by express.
