Letter from Madame Levert.

The Mobile Tribune of the 24th gives publicity to the following private letter from Madame Levert, of Mobile, now temporarily stopping in New York.

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL, August 6, 1865.

Dear Friend: I write to tell you of our safe arrival here, at this magnificent hotel. We had a most delightful voyage on to New York. There was not a wave sufficient to rock the immense steamer, the North Star, or a cloud to dim the sunlight during all the weeks of our sea wanderings.

I find New York full of Confederate officers (many just out of prison.) They are most kindly treated here. At a superb supper party given to us by Mrs. -, there were five Confederate Generals—Marmaduke and Wheeler among the number—and Colonels, Ma jors and Captains in profusion.

The Confederates are dired and supped by the very men they fought against. Every one expresses the highest admira-tion of the Confederates, and I have not yet heard one word of bitterness against the South. Two publishers called on me, hearing I intended writing "souve-nirs of the war." They made me great offers if I will publish. I have serious thoughts of doing so. I assure you I will do justice to the heroic Southern soldiers. I often feel it is my duty to let the world know that the annals of all times do not hold a parallel to the selfsacrifice and heroism of the Southern soldiers. They were cursed in many of their leaders, but ennobled in others. I wish you were here to enjoy this delightful hotel and these pleasant days. Major O., of Texas, is here. He says that "Ben Lane is the most gallant man in the world, and the coolest in battle." Although we have not sent our cards to any one yet, many of our friends have found us out, and throngs have been to see me, inviting us to dinners and parties (supper parties at this season!) and every the manifesting the greatest respect and delight to see us once more in New York. It is said that there is an effort being made by politicians here to get up another revolution in the South. So much money was made during the war that they wish it to begin again. God grant it never here are the south. it never, never may.

Bishop Lay.—We are placed under obligations to the Rev. G. M. Everhart, Editor of the Church Intelligencer, for the annexed gratifying intelligence:

[Charlotts (N. A.) Democrat.

"We are happy to announce that Bishop Lay has been released and is now at his home in Lincolnton. He was arrested and taken to Washington for examination in regard to a package of papers, which it was known he had at one time in his possession—the property of the Hon. C. C. Clay. Satisfied with the examination, the authorities promptly teleased him. While in Washington the Bishop was treated with great civility and consideration."

IMPORTANT CONCERNING PARDONS .-The following letter, addressed to the Governor of Virginia, has been furnished us by his Excellency for publication.

It explains itself:
Attorney General's Office, Washington, August 27, 1865. Hon. N. H. Pierpoint, Governor of Virginia: SIR: I am directed by the Attorney General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th instant, and to say in reply that, as far as this office is concerned, you have his full authority for saying that the only influence possi ble to be exerted in the matter of pardons by any agent or attorney, whoever he may be, is to delay the petition. All cases coming under the thirteenth exception, and all petty civil officers having your recommendation, need nothing fur-They are approved by the Attorney-General as a matter of course. The President declares that any intimation that money can assist a petitioner, is a gross insult to his whole office, from himself to his humblest messen-

I am, sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, M. F. PLEASANTS, Pardon. Clerk.

MEETING OF THE GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS—THE SOUTHERN STATES TO BE REPRESENTED .- It will be recollected that, shortly after the close of the late rebellion, the Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the United States, Isaac M. Veitch, Esq., issued a proclamation, in which he invited the Grand Lodges of all the States lately in rebellion to send delegates to the Grand Lodge of the United States, which assembles in this city on the 18th of September. It is a pleasant duty to record the fact that the Grand Secretary has received favorable responses from nearly every Grand Lodge in the United States, and it is now confidently believed that at the coming meeting the Order will once again present an unbroken front, and that one of the old-time gatherings will take place. This is as it should be. Already the members of the Order in this city are making preparations to give their brethren who have been so long necessarily absent a warm reception, and with this view the citizens generally should contribute liberally.

INDIAN AFFAIRS. - Fort Laramie, August 25 .- Advices from Gen. Connor's Powder River Expedition to August 21 have been received.

On the 16th instant, a detachment of Donnor's Pawnee scouts discovered, pursued and killed all of a war party of Cheyennes, numbering twenty-four, who were returning from the mail road with scalps and plunder. There was no loss on our side. Our men captured twenty-nine horses and mules and a quantity of white women and children's clothing, two infantry coats issued at Fort Laramic last spring to the Indians, who subsequently killed Capt. Fouls and four men of the Seventh Iowa mail road, which shows they were direct from the mail line. One of the principal chiefs of the Cheyemes was killed.

The Indians are all moving North with great rapidity, for their villages, Gen. Connor left Powder River on the 22d instant, moving North, and con-centrating his columns, ready and enger to meet them.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA. - Raleigh August 31.—Dr. A. W. Harper re-turned from a special mission through the northern portion of this State, were there is no military force, and reports that three negroes were shot in Northampton county, by the county police, for refusing to return to their former masters after engaging employment elsewhere. The people refuse to recognize the freedom of the blacks, who are whipped most of the blacks, who are whipped most flendishly for even expressing a desire to be free. He also says that a Union man in Harford county was driven from home for employing a colored girl as a servant without consulting her former master. A perfect reign of terror exists in that portion of the State.

A brother of Maj. Gen. Rossean, U. S. A., who was a private in the Confederate army, has been confined in the New Orleans parish prison for the last two months.

Official documents at Raleigh show that North Carolina furnished 118,160 troops for the rebel army.

The corn crop in Indiana and Illinois bids fair to be as large this season as was ever known.

Ex. Senator Foote has written a letter to Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, asking for a recommendation of par-

The National Bank of Wellington, Ohio, was robbed of from seventy to one hundred thousand dollars in Government bonds.

An ordinance has been passed by the Mississippi State Convention for a general election for county, district or ministerial officers.

Albert Pike, of Arkansas, now residing in Canada, has applied for pardon. Two hundred of the Masonic fraternity endorse him.

F. Lehman and S. W. Chadwick have been nominated to represent Cra ven county, North Carolina, in the State Convention.

The corn crop in the Valley of Virginia, it is said, promises a good yield. But few farmers will raise any pork.

The 70th annual council of the Episcopal Church of Virginia, is to assemble in Richmond on the 20th of September.

The Philadelphia Ledger's Washington correspondent denies, "by authori-"that the colored troops are to be disbanded.

The New York Times says that a large amount of cotton was arriving in that city. The stock on hand is estimated at 100,000 bales.

Communication by rail has been opened between Wilmington and Charleston and the road between Goldsboro and Weldon, it is thought, will be in operation within ten days.

Mr. Mansfield Lovell, formerly Major General in the Confederate army, whose defence of New Orleans did not earn him much reputation among the Rebels, is now reported to be editor of the New York Daily News.

The New York Times says that scores of well dressed Southerners may be seen daily on the steps of the New York Hotel. They are in the best of spirits, flush, and in no whit changed from the style of ten years ago.

The cotton crop will be almost an entire failure throughout West Tennessee, the rust destroying it before it matures. It is said the best cotton county in the western part of the State will not yield two hundred pounds to the acre.

MUTINY .- The Courier des Etats Unis says that a mutiny had broken out in Alexandria, Louisiana, among the troops of General Custar's command. General Custar caused the arrest and imprisonment of four captains, twelve lieutepapers addressed to the men of the Seventy for the Second Wisconsin caventh Michigan, now on duty on the slav regiment who will be seventy for the second wisconsin caventh Michigan, now on duty on the slav regiment who will be seventy for the second wisconsin caventh with the second wisconsin caventh with the second with the second wisconsin caventh with the second with the secon the mutiny.

> The Auburn (New York) Advertises, Mr. Seward's home organ, says : "Let us pause a moment to take observations. The soldiers have returned from the war. They are a power in the land. Let us consult them. Unless they are in favor of negro suffrage their votes will defeat the party, and the candidates for office who favorit," > Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has made a requisition on Governor Pierpoint for Generals Ewell, Jenkins, and others, who have been indicted for the burning of Chambersburg. So far, no response has been given. Gen. Jenkins is beyond the reach of civil or military authorities now, having died from the effects of wounds received in the Western part of the State.

> A NEST OF PIRATES .- The captain of a British achooner, which arrived at New Orleans on the 15th instant, reported that about a dozen deserters or discharged men from the United States charged men from the United States army or navy had been engaged in piratical operations on the coast of Honduras, having murdered the crew of a small schooner, and setting sail in it, captured several other vessels. They were last seen near the coast of Cubn, with an English vessel in pursuit,
