LECTURE ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN COLUMBUS.

—A colored "gemman" from Boston, held forth, on Monday afternoon, in the colored Methodist Church, to the freedmen of Columbus, upon negro suffrage. A quarter was charged for each admission. A large number of men, women and children attended, and the Boston "gemman" must have taken in a considerable sum. The lecturer, we suppose, demonstrated very conclusively that suffrage would greatly enhance the happiness of the African race. One of the audience, after the lecture, was heard to say, "I've never seen a man so good as you, I'm gwine to de theatre or circus. Don't reach me at no more quarter dollar Boston nigger shows. Talk better dan he kan myself. Voim an' gwine to pokes bread down a nigger's mouf."

SMART RASCALS.

—There are some smart rascals in Memphis, Tennessee, who, when they find a horse unmarked, they represent themselves as Government agents, and boldly claim the animal as a "U. S." horse, that has been stolen from the Government. If the owner of the horse claims that there are no "U. S." marks on the animal, the rogues produce a glass, which they declare is a magnifying one, and as the lens of this glass has a faint "U. S." lined upon it, the looking through it makes the "U. S." visible, apparently on the horse. This astounds the owner of the beast, and, with cool audacity, the thieves ride off with the horse they have thus appropriated.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE VERDICT OF A NEGRO JURY:

"We de undersigned, bein a Koroner's jury to sit on de body ob de nigger Sambo, now done dead and gone afore us, hab been sition on de said neger aforesaid, and find dat de same did, on de night ob de fourteenth ob November, come to def by fallin' from de bridge ober de river in de said river, and brok his neck, where we find he was subsequently drowned, and afterwards washed to de river side, whar we suppose he was froze to def."

THE HARTFORD PRESS TELLS THE FOLLOWING:

A son of the Green Isle stepped into the telegraph office in this city, and sent a despatch to a neighboring town in regard to a missing trunk. The operator sat down to the instrument, and clink, clink, clink went the message over the wire. The man waited and watched, evidently expecting something. "Your message has been sent all right," blandly remarked the operator. "Yes, yes," exclaimed Patrick eagerly, "but has the trunk come?"

"FATHER, HOW CAN THE SEA RISE WHERE IT'S ALL TIDE?"

asked Teddy. "It sets still child." How can it set when it has a bottom?" Teddy was led out of the door by the hair of his head.

THE INTENT INVENTION IS A "PALPITATING BECOM" FOR THE LADIES.

which is set in motion by a concealed spring when an extra display of "emotion" is required.

LIABILITY OF CONFEDERATE AGENTS FOR PRIVATE PROPERTY IMPRESSED.

An important case was tried before the United States District Court, at Memphis, Tennessee, last week. It was that of Park against Hamilton, and its history was as follows: In the year 1862, while the rebel forces still held possession of Memphis, the defendant, Thomas A. Hamilton, was appointed by the rebel government an agent to seize certain sugars and cotton, the property of merchants whom it was believed were purchasing and holding such commodities upon speculation, in view of the probable surrender of Memphis to the Federal forces, and against the laws of the rebel Congress, and the declared policy of that government, whose officers were instructed to prevent the undue accumulation of articles of prime commercial value at points as seriously threatened as Memphis then was. In obedience to instructions then given him, Hamilton seized a number of hogheads of sugar, the property of Dr. A. J. Park—valued at $75,000—and turned it over to the rebel receiver or quartermaster, or with other sugars at that time seized, sent it South by railroad. No vouchers were given, but a memorandum was made at the time of the value and number of barrels and hogheads, and in some cases, we believe, copies of such were furnished the owners. Dr. Park now brings suit against Mr. Hamilton to recover the value of the property so seized.

On the 28th ultimo the jury came into court and announced that they were unable to agree upon a verdict, and the case goes to the next term of the court.

Another case of importance came up before the court on
