Mr. Reid offered the following resolution, which was unanimously agreed to: Resolved, In the temporary retirement of the Hon. F. J. Moses from the chair, the thanks of the Senate are due, and are hereby tendered him, for the courteous, dignified, able and impartial manner in which he has presided over this body, and that this resolution be communicated to him by the chairman.

Mr. Moses resumed the chair, and upon the resolution being presented to him by Mr. Sullivan, with appropriate remarks, the President pro tem. addressed the Senate as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE: It would be an affectation both of head and heart, if I said I received this testimonial of your appreciation without emotion. A compliment bestowed with such evidence of sincerity, could not fail to awaken a sensibility of which no man should be ashamed.

If I have administered the duties of the chair so as to elicit the commendation of those who over whom I have the honor to preside, I know I have been enabled to do so by your kind aid in maintaining, when necessary, the enforcement of Parliamentary rule. I have endeavored to be courteous, and that I trust is the characteristic of every gentleman. I have, too, endeavored to be just and impartial, and your endorsement in that regard is a source of unfeigned pleasure.

I shall treasure this evidence of your good will and kindness as a boon of which any one may be proud, and shall never in life, cease to remember the pleasant relations which my association with you has induced.

To you, sir, (the Senator from Laurens,) the organ of this body in presenting this flattering testimonial, I return my acknowledgement for the complimentary remarks with which you have accompanied the communication of the resolution.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the Special Order for quarter-past 12 P. M.—a bill to establish District Courts—was discharged, and the same subject was made the special order for tomorrow, at 11 A. M.

PIONEER LINE OF STEAMERS.

FOR Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albatross and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMODIOUS STEAMERS

PIONEER and COMMODORE ADAMS,

WILL leave New Bern for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A. M., connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above named points. On and after the first day of December next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this point at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best market affords. Families traveling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 16th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to WHITFORD, DILL & CO., New Bern, N. C. DAVID WILLIAMS, Proprietor. nov 21/66
