The Senate was not allowed to forgo the usual quantum of Massachusetts philanthropy to-day both Senators Summer and Wilson administering a strong dose in the guise of petitions and memorials from freedmen in Tennesee, South Carolina and the District of Co-In addition thereto the considlumbia. eration of Senator Wilson's bill for the abrogation of State laws making distinction based upon color was again made to occupy some two hours time, Mr. Stewart of Nevada, having called it up in order ix months, to continue the laborious appeals institut ted by the conservatives induce Sumner to recede from his Tuesday's "whitewashing" qualification of the President's message. Nor could Senator Wilson omit this opportunity for reprimanding Mr. Saulsbury for the latter's oracular remarks of the day previous in reference to the speck of war just discernible in the republican ranks. This had the effect of bringing the honorable oracle from Deleware before the House and involved a metaphorical fire between the senators in reference to the purity of the founts from which sheir respective States drew pa triotism and love of liberty. 1f the bill in question is to continue andto draw out as much rhetorical effort after the reassembling of Congress as it has, already produced within the last week, other adjournments must multiply frequently for the physical recuperation of the Senatorial body.
