

The Fairfield Herald.

VOL. 1] WINNSBORO, S. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17, 1866. [NO. 18

THE FAIRFIELD HERALD IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY GAILLARD, DESPOTES & CO. Terms.—The Herald is published Weekly in the Town of Winnsboro, at $3.00 in advance.

Charge of Judge Aldrich. GENTLEMEN OF THE JURY.—I admonish you to bear in mind the circumstances by which you are surrounded. I call upon you to recollect that the law of South Carolina is now what it always has been...

how they shed human blood, because they take upon themselves a very high responsibility. They take all the risks and all the consequences. Now, I have no doubt that the prisoners at the bar, acted with perfect conscientiousness in this matter...

A Frightful Crime. A CITIZEN BEATEN NEARLY TO DEATH BY NEGRO BURGARS—HIS HOUSE EMPTIED—COOL PROCEEDINGS—SOME OF THE PLENDER TRADED, &c. One the most brutal affairs which we have had occasion to record since the murder of Leonard Lane in Newberry...

Outrages in Western North Carolina. A correspondent writes to the Raleigh Sentinel from Franklin, Macon County, N. C., September 23, as follows: His Honor Judge Shipp held court in Cherokee last week. But few decisions of importance were made. The court had its deliberations very much disturbed, on Monday, by the return of some noted individuals from Tennessee...

The City of Norfolk is a New steamer and was built at Wilmington, Del. It is proposed, as soon as the line gets to working, to place on the route another steamer, so that passengers can leave Norfolk both in the morning and evening. The great benefit to the traveling public afforded by this line of steamers cannot be overstated.

The only paper in the South which we have yet seen favoring the adoption of the Constitutional amendment is the Savannah Republican. It is due to our people to say that that paper is conducted by Northern men in a mild way, and that these radical topics are handled as gingerly as possible.

THE FLOW OF GOLD TO THE UNITED STATES.—The London Review has the following: "The efflux of gold to the United States has continued on a somewhat larger scale than had been looked for, although, in fact, amounting to no great sum."