Barrtreld

FAIRFIELD HERALD Published Every Wednesday at WINNSBORO, S. C.,

WILLIAMS & DAVIS.

TERMS-IN ADVANCE. - 12 00 - 25 50

LEGISLATIVE PROCHEDINGS.

Monday, February 14. The senate was not in session. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

R. M. Smith moved that the flag on the state house be placed at halfmast in respect to the memory of Reverdy Johnson, Adopted.

Rice introduced a bill to limit and fix the tax costs of attornoys and solicitors at law.

Barnwell introduced a bill to provide for the redemption of the bills of the president and directors of the Bank of the State.

The house proceeded to the consideration of the general orders. terest and to prevent usury, being Montgomery Moses, judge of the the unfinished business of February seventh judicial circuit, of high 11, was resumed and made the special order for Feb. 15, at 2 P. M. taken up and passed to a third read-the enacting words of the bill. Agreed to.

A bill to provide for the represenstate of South Carolina at the cenphia, Pennsylvania, in 1876, was taken up.

A senate bill (4) to apportion the representation of the counties in the general assembly in accordance with the requirements of the state constitution. Ordered to be engressed for a third reading.

Resolution (By Mr. Ferguson) ments. that the committee on retrenchment and reform be instructed to report a bill reducing salaries was con-Railroad Company.

Sidered. Railroad Company.

Cochran - Dill to provide for the moved to indefinitely postpone the cure the punishment of crime. resolution. Agreed to-yeas, 42; nays, 28. Adjourned.

Tuesday, February 15.

senate a communication from the seats provided for them, when ing the payment of claims against of impeachment. institution, amounting to Bill to provide for the redemption $2,207 33. Referred.

the house:

al statutes of South Carolina, relative to insurance agents' license.

for the appointment of a joint committee to inquire into the sufficiency of the bonds of the comptrollertreasurer, was laid on the table.,

The concurrent resolution from public printing and binding the house to adjourn sine die on February 23 was laid on the table.

approval, several acts, none of which tablish a public road in said county. have any special public interest. After a short executive session, the senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Beatty, from the judiciary committee, reported unfavorably bill the house adjourned. upon the bill to empower circuit judges to issue remedial writs in any part of the state. A motion to reject the bill was lost.

The bill to limit and fix the costs of attorneys at law was rejected. Couch introduced a series of resolutions looking to the impeachment resolutions provide for a committee to go to the senate, and, in the name of the people, to demand such impeachment, and for the appointment to create and establish a state appointed.

The special order, being the ap peal from the speaker's ruling which discharged.

The bill to raise supplies for the fiscal year commencing November 1; amend section 17 of chapter 122 of cold turkey, beer, fried oysters, 1875, was taken up, discussed and the general statutes of South Caroamended. The levy for schools was lina, and all acts amendatory cake, beef toa, mince pie, chamfixed at 2 mills, instead of 11.

prescribing the manner of discussing out. in the house the articles of impeach ment that are to be presented against county treasurers of the respective Judge Montgomery Moses. Adjourned.

Wednesday, February 16.

BENATE.

Representatives P. Simpkins and J. T. Sloan, committee on the part of the house of representatives, appeared and impeached Montgomery Moses, judge of the seventh judicial circuit, of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

remises.

eral statutes of South Carolina, and all acts amendatory thereto, relative to circuit courts, and for other pur the table.

A resolution that the night made in the article strike us as peculiarly applicable to South Carolina.

The tax-ridden people of this oses, reported back the same with with amendments.

pany was laid on the table, the Bill to provide for the redemption next.

of certain obligations of the state

The committee on finance was in structed to make such provisions in the general appropriation bill as will provide for the rewards offered by the governor for all criminals arrested under his proclamations. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Messrs. P. Simpkins and Sloan appeared before the bar of the louse and reported that they had proceeded to the bar of the senate, and, in the name of this body and of A bill to regulate the rate of in all the people of the state, impeached crimes and misdemeanors in office.

Elliott submitted articles against A bill to authorize the land com- Montgomery Moses judge of circuit missioner to reduce the prices at court of the seventh judicial circuit which lands purchased for the land of the state of South Carolina, in which lands purchased for the land commission have been or may herenfter be sold to actual actilization. after be sold to actual settlers was peachment against him for high crimes and misdemeanors in office, which were adopted.

A bill to amend an act entitled tation of the national guard of the "An act to grant the use of a vacant lot in the city of Columbia to the tennial celebration, city of Philadel- Palmetto Lodge, No. 5, of the Indopendent Order of Odd Fellows, on R. M. Smith moved to strike out second time, and ordered to be engrossed.

Adjourned.

Thurs day, Feb. 17.

BENATE. Whittemore submitted rules of procedure and practice in the senate when sitting on the trial of impeach-

Johnston introduced a bill to incorporate the Bishopville and Aiken

Elliott (Mr. Spencer in the chair) payment of rewards offered to se-

The managers of the impeachment of Montgomery Moses, judge of the seventh judicial circuit, on the part of the house of representatives, pro ceded by the sergeant-at-arms, and bers of the house of representatives, The president laid before the entered the senate and took the

The following passed and wont to South Carolina was ordered to lie prominent families in the neighbor on the table.

The concurrent resolution (house) and returned to the house. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Simpkins introduced a bill to fix general, secretary of state and state the compensation of certain officors, and a bill to provide for the

Coleman-Bill to anthorize and empower the county commissioners The governor returned, with his of Laurens county to open and es> vide for the redemption of the bills of the president and directors of the Bank of the State presented for payment of taxes was resumed. Pending the consideration of the

The consideration of a bill to pro-

Friday, February 18.

The comptroller-general sent to the house a communication that the South Carolina Railroad Company is possessed of property valued at of Judge Montgomery Moses. The $1,156,000 including the railroad and its appurtenances.

of one to prepare articles of impoach- department in the State of South ment. Both committees were duly Carolina received its third reading, passed and was sent to the house. Joint resolution to appropriate certain funds in the treasury of denied the right of Whipper to enter | Chester county for the payment of his "protest" upon the journal, was grand and petit inrors for the year 1875 was indefinitely postponed. The enacting clause of a bill to thereto, relative to circuit courts, Couch introduced a resolution and for other purposes, was stricken

A concurrent resolution that the counties report the amount of bills of the Bank of the State tendered for taxes for the fiscal year com-moncing November 1, 1875, was ordered to lie on the table. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Senate bill to amend section 20, chapter 17 of the general statutes of South Carolina, relative to insurance agents' licenses, was re

A resolution that the special com- always on hand.

The senato took order in the mittee appointed to investigate the failure of the South Carolina Bank The committee on the judiciary, and Trust Company be required to o whom was referred bill to amend report the result of said investigasection 17, chapter 122, of the gen tion within five days was rejected.

Leslie introduced a resolution the recommendation that it do pass, looking after per diem and mileage. The report of committee on Bill making certain grants to the privileges and elections in the case Cheraw and Chester Railroad Com of J. D. Robertson, was made the special order for Thursday

Bill to provide for the redemp of South Carolina was made the tion of the bills of the president special order for February 17 at 1 and directors of the Bank of the State was indefinitely postponed. Adjourned.

> Saturday, February 19. SENATE.

Cochran presented the present ment of the grand jury of Anderson county, which was ordered to be Corwin introduced a resolution to ppoint a joint committee to invesgate certain charges made against fudge Reed, of the first circuit, and gainst F. J. Moses, Jr., and W. J. future consideration.

Thirty acts were ratified, general y of a local or private character. Gaillard moved to reconsider the ote whereby the senate struck out the enacting clause of an act to amend the general statutes with reference to circuit judges. The motion was tabled by a decided vote. This finally disposes of the scheme to legislate Whipper and Moses out of office.

The senate then adjourned till Wednesday, February 23.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A bill to prohibit the sale of ardent spirits within three miles of Williamston Female College, in Anderson county, was taken up and ordered to be engrossed.

The bill to incorporate the Union Savings Society of Columbia was passed to a third reading.

A bill to prohibit the sale of in oxicating liquors within two and one-half miles from Blythewood Female Seminary, in Fairfield coun ty, was taken up and ordered to be engrossed.

resolution that the house take vas tabled. Adjourned.

A Magic Dining Room.

Some months since an English man named Atkinson bought a accompanied by the clerk and mem- country place near Pithiviers, in France. For many weeks there after curpenters and masons were busily employed in repairing and trustees of the university request. Elliott exhibited the specific articles altering the chateau, and after their work had been completed, Mr Atkinson issued invitations of certain obligations of the State of large dinner party to all the most hood. The guests arrived at 6 Bills limiting the time of commencing criminal actions; to amend county treasurers to report to the at the dinner table noticed with section 20, chapter 17, of the gener general assembly the amount of surprise that there was not even 000,000 on $292,000,000 in the probills of the state tendered in one servant to be seen. The soup payment for taxes, was concurred in was comsumed in silent astonishment. When all had partaken of it the host sounded a whistle, and as if by magic the sonp plates disappeared, and three magnificent silver platters, each containing a roast goose, appeared. Little cries of terror were heard from the ladies. Mr. Atkinson took no notice of his guests surprise, but remarking the use of troops is necessary to se that it was a very warm evening, cure fair elections in the South. He noted that calm satisfaction she had The grand jury was in session for whistled again, and the whole ceiling disappeared; the host's South now, if they are properly used of the worthy Herr at home when it brought in true bills against black coat vanished at the same to protect the votors. Gen. Grant, smoking his evening pipe. She McDonald, supervisor; Joyce, moment, leaving him clothed in a he says, thoroughly understands the pointed to the smoke, and gazed in white suit. The guests, alarmed, whole question, but just as soon as inquiring horror at the railway official: were about to rise from their chairs, he lifts his hand a hae and cry is he pointed to the lable on the carwhen they found themselves, their raised, in which republicans of the riage window and stared blankly who died just in the nick of time to five feet from the floor. They, how- if this projudice against protecting provided for in the regulations, and lector and financial agent of the ever, were soon lowered again to the voters is allowed to prevail the situation was growing strained, ring, and Avery, chief clerk in the abode. A judicial investigation was the states of the South, except his smoking" carriage, which on the instituted, and it was found that own. He says the poor white peo- better-managed continental lines Mr. Atkinson had been for ten ple of the South, as well as the is stil provided, years the chief machinist at Covent colored people, would vote the re-Garden Theatre, in London, where publican ticket if they were not the supposition was that he had but upon analyzing the contents of his stomach nothing but the fol-lowing were found in it:

Pickles, pound cake, lemonade, pagne, lobsters, game pie, fruit coffee, bologna sansage, cheese, sardines and sherry. The jury returned a verdict of "Died through the visitation of friends."

The colored taxpayers of Georgia last year returned property to the value of $5,393,885, upon which they paid $29,969 as taxes. They own 896,558 acres of land, or nearly five acres to every colored poll in the State. They own city and town property to the value of

Extra copies of the News & HERALD

Impertment Questions.

We clip the following from the Louisville Manufacturers' and Merchants' Advertiser. The points country, groaning beavily under their burdens, are beginning to rou-e from The farmer must lay his plans for their slumbers, and from all the years, not only in regard to the mancities in the land we hear cries which ner he would till his soil but in it would be well for those in authori- gard to the products and developty to heed before it is too late. Thus correspondent of the Nashville in the future. The different quali-Commercial and Legal Reporter asks the following pertinent ques-

"If rents, necessaries of life and labor came down on account of hard times, why is not the pay of our officials reduced in the city, county, are necessary. A man may rise beand State in the same ratio? Shall fore day and work till after night. office-holders alone live in clover? Why is it permitted to sell on Sunday, candy, oranges, nuts and dime is done in the proper way and at the novels, when it is contrary to law to proper time, the effort in part will sell on the same day, flour, meal, be a failure. culinary plants, coal and wood!

"If it costs only twelve cents—a fair estimate—to feed a city workhouse prisoner per day, why do we has arrived when the farmer must Whipper. Ordered to lie over for pay for his daily sustenance forty be educated for his calling. The ago house, (the stewardship is valued as educated minds should become close the most remunerative office in the ly connected with rural pursuits gift of our corporation) receives a There is no mistaking the admoni fixed sum for three meals a day for tions of the future on this point the prisoners, who authorizes him to And why should not the husband lay the cloth only twice on Sunday, man be prepared for his manifold and set them at table for two meals duties as well and thoroughly as the only Is it for the praiseworthy lawyer, the doctor or minister purpose of teaching them, on the holy Surely, no sufficient reason exists Sabbath, abstemiousness in the use The lawyer, for instance, is confined of food T

And the St. Louis Commercial, in city, ваув : at the figures above he is not ade- the sacred writings and his own quately repaid for the use of his capital; because, says he:

rents are so high; taxes steadily growing on real estate, which is visible, while those who deal in ture, in all her untold amplitude and bonds and stock, and loan money at boundless research, is still beckon high rates, escape the taxation almost entirely.

"I know plenty of dwellings here, the rents of which do not pay form per cent. per annum over taxes, general and special, insurance and mosphere, the clouds, the storms,

"Let us reduce taxes, by reducing salaries of officials, by reducing the number of men in office, etc., and then landlords can get along and even reduce rents on stores and and money to learn her secrets?dwellings.

Even New York City, with its immense wealth and resources, groans under the heavy weight imposed upon her by reckless extravagance, robbery, etc.

tries, showing a shrinkage of $172,duct of that one city, thereby abridging the disbursements for wages and the trade in materials to that extent.

Troops or No Troops.

The Washington correspondent of the Bultimore Sun says :-"Senator Patterson of South says there are troops enough in the so often detected on the countenance six weeks. At the end of that time chairs and the table suddenly raised North join, against the use of troops. into the coups. The case was not the floor, and they all took refuge during the canvass, he does not look when a gentleman came forward and in hasty flight from the demoniac for republican successes in any of he had amassed a nice little fortune. overawed. He says Georgia, which be carried by that party if the elec-A young man in Chicago was Senator Robertson, the colleague of recently found dead in his bed, and Mr. Patterson, does not appear to concur in these views. He says that he committed suicide by poisoning; does not want any troops to be used in the South.'

MORE RADICAL THIEVERY BROUGHT TO THE BAR OF PUBLIC JUSTICE .-- A special from Jackson, Miss., says that the committee appointed to in vestigate the case of Lieutenant. Governor Davis have reported that cake, tea, chicken salad, whiskey, he is guilty of high crimes and misport, demeanors, and charge that he ac-The copted a bribe of $600 for the pardon of Thomas H. Banontine, charged with the murder of Ann > pænaed to testify agains him before the house of the Lord.

The Needs of Agriculture.

We often hear men talk of the duliness and stupidity of farming. But where is there a field of entervaried forethought as the proper The tax-ridden people of this is no field on the farm that requires more cultivation than the brain. ner he would till his soil, but in rement of his farm for greater capacity ties of the soil must be studied and experimented upon, suiting each kind of product to its particular Successful agriculture must be the election was over McDonald controlled by intelligence. Brains and Joyce wanted to "freeze out" are necessary. A man may rise befor day and work till after night;

may sow with diligence and reap with care, but unless the farm work proper time, the effort in part will

In this connection we may call attention to the benefits derived from agricultural literature. The time which we live in and the circum-"If the steward of the city work- stances surrounding us, demand that The lawyer, for instance, is confined to the statute book, or to long and well settled decisions; procedent is an article on the high rents of that his guide, and he follows it because it is old and universal. The divine "But the landlord claims that even must necessarily confine himself to peculiar theology. If he teaches any thing which cannot be sustained by "The great difficulty here is the enormous taxation, general and special. This is the reason why diseases to which the body is heir. But the agriculturalist enters upor a field without scope or limit. Na ing us onward to heights and depths that seem to know no bounds. She is not only generous in her gifts, but the to be promises. Her laws are the same over all the earth. The atthe heat and cold are not controlled by the fitfulness of uncertainty, but well established rules that she dis covers only to devotees. And shall we be told that it is a waste of time Ohio Farmer.

German Women as Smokers.

A German newspaper relates the following rather ominous incident The Stockholder says as to manu. At one of the railway stations be frauds. When the ring learned and then see how near anybody factures in the city of New York, tween Cologno and Berlin, a lady what was being done McDonald could come to chalking the same they have dwindled to less than one laden with parcels had for some time raised $10,000 from its members length upon the blackboard. And it half their former volume, and in anxiously awaited the arrival of the for the purpose, as he said, of was astonishing how wide astray one proof gives a list of specified indus- express. No sooner did it dash into stopping investigation. Bevis had would go. The fact is, our eyes dethe station than a porter, compas-gone to California, but was called coived us ridiculously even upon the sionating her weariness, hastily home by a telegram, reaching St. commonest thing. At first thought, opened the door of the first lady's Louis three or four days before the carriage he could see, and motioned seizures were made. The descent her towards it, when she started was early in May last, and impar- and could anything but actual meas-back in dismay. A dense cloud of smoke escaped from the compartment, within which she dimly destill continued to tell the ring. There is an old saying that a child 2 mans old is half as tall as he ever scried two female forms in an atti- "things are all right; that he knew tude of profound repose. Between who had that $10,000; that all was the lips of each of the recumbent straight, and that they would surely Carolina reiterates his opinion that dames lay a small meerschaum, while be released." To their sorrow handed the lady into the "non-

A California inventor has patented a contrivance for driving sowing A bill to authorize the Grangers' The dinner was a little freak to gives such a democratic majority, is machines which does away with the Life and Health Insurance Company indulge his fondness for his old fairly a republican state, and could to create and establish a state pursuit. The dinner was a little freak to gives such a democratic majority, is machines which does away with the fairly a republican state, and could be carried by that party if the elecby a lever so nicely that the needle may be made to move at any rate of speed. The machine will run about an hour and a quarter with one winding up.

the funeral of his mother, who was supposed to be dying; but she recovered, and he returned the apparel, claiming that the purchase was conditional. The merchant refused sued for the money paid for them

A convention of husbands is soon to meet at Cincinnati to devise means of protection against the kiss-

A History of the Whiskey Ripg.

A correspondent of the New York World states that the original "crooked whiskey" ring of St. prise that requires so much and so Louis was started in 1872, ostensivaried forethought as the proper interest of Grant. Its leading cultivation of the soil? And there spirits were McDonald Supervisor; promote the cause of the Republioun party, the money was divided among them. This arrangement continued till after the Presidential election, the Government being defrauded of from $5,000 to $15,000 per week by the officials. After rid of, including Megrue, operations Scolding is a habit very easily were resumed more boldly and formed. It is astonishing how soon upon a larger scale than at first one who indulges in it at all becomes All the distillers, with unimportant addicted to it and confirmed in it.

> ring was forowarned by Avery, Yaryan came. Their investigation cost the ring another $10,000 which Brashear took, promising to divide with Yaryan. The former returned to Washington and made out the regulation report, showing everything all night, certifying that Yaryan coincided in the opinion. The latter went to New Orleans from St. Louis, where he passed the winter. On returning to Wash. ngton in the spring of 1875 he discovered the report made by Bra shear, and denied that he coincided in the report.

> revenue agent; all the gaugers and storekeepers; all the distillers and rectifiers, with the exception of one save himself ; Fitzroy, deputy col-Revenue Department at Washing-same plea. At the November term A Richmond man bought some Western District of the State, had clothes so as to be in readiness for previously been tried and found Thomas, in Lowndes county. The committee offered a resolution that made the special order for Monday.

A young man kissed a pretty girl in a prayer meeting at Alburg, Vt., the other evening, and she thought it was splendid until sh) was subpensed to testify against him before

A correspondent the kiss-sing clergymen. A correspondent three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the special session of the impurities can pollute the of the customery white choker, revive the Elizabethan ruff, to be no less than three feet in diameter, and it was splendid until sh) was subpended until sh) was subpended to testify against him before

A man, for stealing an umbrella wore certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the three last named were certified to the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United States Circuit Court, a special session of which met on the United poenaed to testify against him before a justice for disorderly conduct in the house of the Lord.

worth 75 cents, is serving out a entering a not prost as to the with fraudulent worth 75 cents, is serving out a entering a not prost as to the with fraudulent with fraudulent with fraudulent the house of the Lord.

The trial of Grant's Military Secrets.

The trial of Grant's Military Secrets.

ry, General O. E. Babcock, the third and last, commenced on Monday last. The trouble in this case is that it requires very different Louis was started in 1872, OBYGIN USED TO General Grant's removal or all bly for campaign purposes in the grant's removal or all bly for campaign purposes in the grant's removal or all bly f testimony to convict him from that Fraser, Distillers; and C. G. Whole influence of the Administra-Megrue, Cashier and Paymaster, tion is being exerted in his behalf, and his conviction will be a wonderful triumph over the President as well as over the ring.—Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel.

A Lecture on Scolding.

Scolding is mostly a habit. There is not much meaning to it. It is often the result of nervousness an the obnoxious persons were got thing and everybody in reach. exceptions, the supervisor, the supervisor, the revenue agents, gaugers and store-keepers, were in the ring.

In 1874, Peter Curran, having been prosecuted by the Government in the supervisor, the supervisor, the supervisor, the supervisor, the supervisor, the supervisor is the supervisor to the supervisor in the supervisor is supervisor. (his case was subsequently settled) the more absence of anything to desired to get out of his trouble, scold at. It is contagious. Once and the ex-members of the original introduced into a family, it is protty ring, suspecting the trick which had certain, in a short time, to affect all been played upon them, and having the members. People in the counsuspicions that the crooked operatry more readily fall into the habit tions had been resumed, opened a of scolding than people in town. correspondence with Commissioner Women contract the habit more Douglass, informing him of the frequently than men. This may be existence of the ring. Penn Brashear because they live more constantly in a secret service detective, was sent the house, in a confined, heated atto St. Louis to investigate. The mosphere, very trying to the nervous system and the health in generchief clork of Douglass, and al and it may be partly, that their Brashear was conquered by a bribe natures are more susceptible and of $5,000. He returned to Wash- their sensitiveness more easily ington with a clean bill. After wounded. The proper remedy for that, Hoag, another secret service the habit, if formed, is to experience man, was sent here, and the ring an endowment of that divine love paid him $10,000 for the satisfactors shed abroad in the renewed heart shed abroad in the renewed heart ry report which he turned in at by the Holy Ghost, the characteris-Washington. Then Brashear and tics of which are that it "is not easily provoked," "thinketh no evil," and "beareth all things."

MEASURING BY THE EYE. - YOARS AGO, says a correspondent, when we went to school in a little weather beaten "chool house, what exciting contests there used to be over the teacher's favorite exercise of having the scholars estimate with the eye the size and weight of different objects in the room ! He would hold up his cano, and have each one tell how long he thought it was, and it was a lucky child that could come within The ring continued its operations half a foot of the right length. He till April last, when information would measure an urchin and was received that Yaryan was in then have the scholars try to reprotown, estensibly working up a rail- duce the measure on the wall. He road case, but in fact secretly on | would mark off an inch or a foot or gaged in looking after the revenue a yard, in some conspicuous place, which should you say was the taller, a 3-year old child or a flour barrel? years old is half as tall as he ever will be; and after a few experiments in measuring, one can easily believe it, but not before The Towers of Silence.

The Prince of Wales and some of his suite were allowed to visit the famous "Towers of Silence," the bodies of the dond 'are 'exposed to be devoured by vultures. were the first Europeans who have ever been permitted to enter the gloomy portals of this strange place of sepulture. The towers are five in number, are circular, and are so well built that the oldest has stood ton.

The ring continued in good spirits, still relying on McDoneld's promises, and those of Joyce, that gether, and the largest cost £80, all would blow over; but in October, having lost all faith in him, the distillers and rectifiers all came into the United States District Court and pleaded guilty; Fitzroy, deputy collector, together with the games and store-keepers, made the gangers and store-keepers, made the yards of land and defrayed the exof the same Court McDonald and be formed and some idea may Avery wore tried and found guilty. cometery. They are under the Joyce, under indictment in the charge of the Parsee sect, who are western District of the State, had noted for their rigid exclusiveness. and it was something of a surpriso guilty. Sentence was suspended on to the natives as well as foreigners used as State's evidence. Sentence that the permission was granted. The origin of this singular method of disposal of the dead is due, no trict. At the November than a doubt, to the representations. to take back the goods, and has been trict. At the November term of the the Parsess regard the elements. grand jury, Constantine Maguire, Fire is too pure to be polluted by Collector of the District; William committing corpses to the flames; water is almost equally venerated, that so is mother earth. Hence this strange custom has been three-last ramed were certified to intent. His counsel notice of a motion for a