Their names are Louis J. Arnold of Clinton avenue, Jersey City, and Frank S. Wayson of Baltimore, Maryland. Prospects for the world's wheat supply, while not so satisfactory as was expected during the first part of the current season, show at the present time no cause for serious alarm. Estimates of the quantity of wheat harvested in 20 countries, including the United States, for 1920, total 2,461,430,000 bushels, compared with 2,381,143,000 bushels harvested last year, according to data compiled by the Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, United States Department of Agriculture.

Although the long-sustained drought throughout the greater part of the Northern Hemisphere was a serious menace to the various crops in many countries, the fall-sown wheat has not been affected adversely so much, as was at first supposed.

Outside of Europe, British India was most seriously affected by the drought. The dryness and the hot winds that have prevailed throughout most of the growing season have resulted in the very low yield of 250,469,000 bushels of wheat, or about 50,000,000 bushels less than the quantity normally consumed in that country.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

reason of the advantages of wise grading and selling in quantities, prices will be increased for me to much greater extent than will be represented by my infinitesimal part of selling costs.

Another highly important fact is the better financing of the farmer which co-operation alone makes possible. The individual farmer controlling 50 or 100 bales of cotton cannot get attention from the great sources of money in America, but organizations of growers controlling millions of bales can secure money to finance themselves and promote gradual marketing and can get money on as good terms as other great businesses get it.

AFTER THE K. C.'S TOO

Atlanta Council Says K. K. K. Not the Only Undesirable Fraternity.

City council of Atlanta has Tuesday adopted a resolution requesting that the New York World and other daily papers, especially The Columbus, Ga. Enquirer-Sun, now engaged in the investigation and exposure of what they claim to be unpatriotic and un-American institutions, include in their investigation the order and ritual of the Knights of Columbus.

There was no mention in the resolutions of the Ku Klux Klan about which certain newspapers now are printing articles, but in the brief debate that preceded the vote that organization was mentioned several times.

The resolution, which was adopted by a standing vote of 11 to 8, was introduced by Councilman Walter A. Sims, who later introduced an ordinance to forbid inter-racial worship in the city of Atlanta.

Action on the request regarding the Knights of Columbus followed an effort by Councilman Hoffman to have it tabled.

DePEW'S MONEY GROWS

His First One Hundred Dollars Has Increased to Eight Hundred Dollars.

Former Senator Chauncey M. Depew yesterday at Birmingham told a reporter for The World about two old bank accounts of his, one left intact for sixty years and the other for fifty years and how he has kept the first $100 he made.

He had forgotten all about the $100 he deposited in the Peewskill Savings Bank sixty years ago, he said, and recently discovered it was still there to his credit and the interest had compounded until the account now amounts to $800.
