BILLION DOLLARS SHY

Senate Tax Experts Think Their Bill Is Inadequate.

Washington, Sept. 24 .-- A shrink-ige of more than $1,000,000,000 in income and excess profits taxes this fis-cal year were reckoned upon by the Sonate Finance Committee in revis-ing the House Tax Bill with a view to raising $3,324,000,000 in internal reve-nue in the twelve months ending June 30.

This was disclosed by the majority report approved to-day by committee Republicans and made public. The estimated total of revenue under the bill is $136,000,000 less than Treasury experts have figured would be returned this fiscal year under the present law, but is $$1,050,000 more than the revised total under the House bill. Estimated returns this fiscal year from income and profits taxes are $1.others all well-known in the musical world. 00.000.000, seconding to the report, as against approximately $3,000,000,000 of actual collections in the fiscal year The opening number on October 6th, will be Anna Case, the American so-prano of the Metropolitan Opera Comof actual concernors in the used year ended last June 30. Only about $50,-000,000 of this difference of $1.120,-000,000 is accounted for by changes proposed in the present law. Treasury officials and committee members ex-plained that the remainder was changed off to shrinkage on account pany, known as a singer without peer on the concert platform to-day Others who will appear are, Tito Schipa, the celebrated tenor of the officials and committee members ex-plaised that the remainder was charged off to shrinkage on account of business depression, diversion of funds to tax-exempt securities and so forth. Declaring that the $3,324,000,000 to-tal proposed under the revised bill was only $52,000,000 more than the treas-ury had estimated would have to be raised through internal taxes, the re-port said that this was "a margin of residual taxes are given by the taxes are the taxes are taxes port said that this was "a margin of safety none too large for the fiscal fiscal guished baritone.
