Avery Hawkins Recaptured.

Supervisor Brown has just returned from a trip to Decatur, Ga., where he went after Avery Hawkins, white, who escaped from the chaingang about four and a half years ago. Avery, with his father, Charlie, and brother, Joe, were convicted of housebreaking and larceny on account of wholesale burglaries of Sharon stores, and sent up for five years each. Avery got away from the Cherry farm stockade a short time after his commitment. The escape was effected during a thunderstorm, and along with him went Wash Harlowe, another white convict. Harlowe was afterward recaptured and served the will have to play three games within balance of his term. Charlie Hawkins and Joe finished their sentences last fall and were discharged. On Friday Supervisor Brown received a wire thirteen games this season against the from Sheriff J. A. McCurdy of Decatur, strongest teams in the Piedmont. advising that Avery was being held pending instructions and the supervisor immediately left for Decatur.

Gastonia Legionaires Elect.

Gastonia Gazette, Saturday: At an enthusiastic meeting of Gastonia Post No. 23, American Legion, Friday evening, Ben E. Douglas was elected post commander for the year 1923. Edwin Hutchison, of Mt. Holly, was elected vice-commander, Miles J. Rudisill, adjutant, Ralph R. Stowe, finance officer, D. R. Williams, war risk officer, W. G. Gaston, historian, and Rev. T. G. Tate, pastor of Olney Presbyterian church, chaplain. The meeting was well attended and marked by the keenest interest of all the members. The new post commander has been an enthusiastic legionaire, since the organization of the legion in Gastonia. He has always taken an active interest in the affairs of the legion, and has been one of the most indefatigable workers in the local post. It was also decided to rent club rooms in the Francum building on Franklin avenue over the rooms occupied by the Gaston Times. The club rooms will be opened up after the first of the year. F. H. Cunningham was name! chairman of a committee to proceed with the organization of a legion post among the colored ex-service men.

Mr. Taylor said that the Gaffney school authorities were willing to let the matter rest as a triangular tie, that they were willing to play Thornwell and have two championship titles but that Thornwell demanded that Gaffney play, the alternative being that Thornwell would claim the upstate title, and that Charleston demanded that the winner of this game play Charleston or Charleston would claim the title for the entire state. Mr. Taylor said that Gaffney was therefore forced to play in self-defense, since she did not propose to be robbed of her laurels by default. Either Thornwell or Gaffney one week as a result of the decision reached yesterday and the Gaffney High school team has already played

THE STATE OF THE S The Gift Supreme

TO BE SURE, Mister Man, you are going to give the One Best Girl, the Mother or Sister a reminder at the Christmas season. There may be some gifts that will last longer and be of more practical utility than a Box of Candy, but there is nothing that will awaken more appreciative and kindlier thoughts in the heart of the recipient than that same box of candy—that is, provided, it is a box of REAL, SURE ENOUGH, CROSS-MY-HEART, HOPE-I-MAY-DIE QUALITY Candy.

Then you'll surely make it a box of

WHITMAN'S or

LIGGETT'S CANDIES There are none other quite so popular as these good candies. You'll find them here in packages of all sizes-half pound and up wards and in every box there is just the same satisfying quality that will bring the smile you'll be remembering in your dreams. Yes, give 'em a package of WHITMAN'S or LIGGETT'S Candies and have no regrets.

OH, YES, WE HAVE OTHER THINGS

Cigars, Cigarettes, Pipes, Perfumery, Toilet Articles, Soaps, Brushes and Combs, Christmas Cards, and just lots of other things that would make acceptable gifts. Just drop in and see 'em.
