

Bad Policy.

We must confess that there is nothing of a political character which grates so harshly upon our ears, and sickens the very soul within us, as to hear Southern men, or men living at the South, prophesying its degradation and ruin.

There are some who assume a surprising degree of confidence in their opinion, that the days of our independence are numbered, and that our honor, rights and interests are soon to be entombed, and "the stone placed at the door of the sepulcher and no angel will be commissioned to roll it away." That such sentiments are honestly entertained by some good and true men, we cannot doubt, yet in other cases we fear the wish is only father to the thought, and its expression but a pseudo regret which covers the real sentiments of a base and traitorous heart.

At no period within our observation has the South been nearer a unit, and if the present, or approaching crisis, is allowed to pass by unimproved, all we fear will be hopelessly and forever lost. The cry of the glorious Union, under Black Republican rule, will be worse than "the bugle blast of the robber band," and to hear our own public men advising submission now, is "snuffing treason on the tainted gale."

TRADE OF CHARLESTON.—We are gratified to learn of the success of direct importations in Charleston. The Mercury of yesterday says:

In passing through Hayne and meeting streets recently, our attention has been directed to the immense number of bales, cases and casks of merchandise of direct importation. Our merchants really seem to be in earnest, and, from conversations, we find that our importers have been enabled to lay their stocks down at prices much below what they have been in the habit of paying Northern houses for the same class of goods.

The fall trade has opened very briskly, and merchants who have visited our city are much pleased with the stock of goods exhibited to them. If the direct importers are to be encouraged, and they certainly should be, our neighbors of Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee should help to grease the wheels. We are sure none will regret a visit to Charleston.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—We learn from the Greenville correspondence of the Charleston Mercury, that a difficulty occurred at the Furman University on Saturday last, between two of the Students, Messrs. Davant and Scaife. Revolvers were drawn, and Mr. Davant's snapped several times without going off. Mr. Scaife fired three times, one ball grazing Mr. Davant's abdomen, the other lodging in the left breast near the shoulder. The wound is not considered dangerous, though the ball has not been found.

The Next Legislature.

"A Constituent" writing to the Charleston Mercury earnestly recommends the following suggestions:

First: Until after the fall election, avoid even the discussion of the modus operandi of resistance. Second: Still more studiously eschew any such issue in the elections themselves. Third: Let every man who himself realizes the importance of the crisis, use his utmost efforts to make others think and feel as he does. And lastly: Let all earnest men in the State—let the Press, particularly, everywhere—unite in urging upon the people that they should demand the services, in the next Legislature, of their wisest and best men—to be sent, in the true spirit of representative government, untrammelled and untrammelled, to "take care that the Republic receives no detriment." Who, upon such an appeal, in such a crisis, dare refuse? The position rises, on occasions like this, to such dignity, that in the language of Mr. Lowndes, it should be "neither sought or declined."

Every district in the State has its discreet and reliable men. Good sense and integrity, thank God, are not rare; and we still have amongst us some who are men of approved wisdom and patriotism—men fit to consult on a nation's destiny. From these two classes should the "next Legislature" be selected. Let us have the right sort of men. "Principles, not men," is a delusive cry, and serves but to mislead. As John Randolph pithily said, "principles without men was like love without women." "Principles and men" is the true motto.

It is not the man who professes most, who answers questions most promptly, or who is most plentiful in pledges, who is most to be trusted in trying times. Look to his antecedents! Has he shown, in his past life, he loved the State more than his own selfish interest? Has he shown a sound judgment and a brave heart? If yes, and the general bearing of his politics accords with public sentiment, it is enough. We do not ask whether ten years ago he was Secessionist, Co-operationist, Union man, Whig or Democrat. Still less, upon this great Southern issue, whether, in the frivolous disputes, confined to South Carolina, he was Convention or Anti-Convention. Was he honest then? Is he honest now? And does he, at this time, believe that submission to sectional Black Republican rule is disgrace and eventual ruin? These should be the only test questions. A Legislature thus composed, will speak the voice, not of a party—not of a mere numerical majority—but, really and truly, the voice of South Carolina.

MORE RAILROADS.—A new railroad project is on foot in Lexington District. The Play says that application will be made to the next Legislature for a charter for a railroad from Lexington to near Columbia. Meetings were held last year, and the sum of $75,000 pledged to the Columbia and Hamburg Road. That amount, says the Play, would have been doubled had the books been opened; but the Commissioners appointed to open books at Lexington failed to get the other Commissioners along the line to act in concert, and so they were not opened. Not content to remain forever isolated from all the rest of the world, she is now going to work, and the Play says if the charter is granted a grand effort will be made to build a road, and it thinks it will be successful.

Meetings have been held at Ridge, in Edgefield District, and resolutions favoring the Hamburg and Columbia Railroad, and providing for the opening of books for subscriptions to the capital stock, were passed. A barbecue and picnic at Bethel Church, on the 18th inst., was also provided for. Several able and practical speakers are to address the meeting.

At a meeting recently held in Atlanta, Ga., Mr. Yancey devoted one portion of a speech he was making to a defence of himself against the charge of disunionism. The Intelligence says:

"He referred to a remark of Mr. Wright at a Douglas meeting here the other evening, in which he (Mr. Wright) is said to have compared Mr. Yancey, in going back to the Baltimore Convention, having succeeded from Charleston, to a growling, cringing spaniel." "If," said Mr. Yancey, "he had uttered that within my hearing, or if he ever utters it again, and it comes to my knowledge, there will be a growling, cringing, whipped spaniel, and that spaniel will be Augustus R. Wright." [The most vociferous applause, which lasted many minutes, attended this announcement; and the fire flashed from Mr. Yancey's eye, as from that of an infuriated lion, as he stamped his foot, and thus repelled the slander.]

TAKE CARE, GIRLS.—The Daily True Democrat, published at Augusta, Georgia, states that young girls wearing straw hats with little bells pendant from the brim, will, in the short space of two months, become cross-eyed. Instances have occurred of malformation of the eyes caused by the wearing of these bells.

E. S. P. Bellinger, Esq., having been nominated as a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned in the State Senate by the death of Hon. Lewis O'Bryan, Mr. B. publishes a card declining to become a candidate.

AURORA BOREALIS.—ALARM OF FIRE.—A few minutes past eleven o'clock last night, the Orphan House Alarm Bell tolled an alarm of fire, which, as usual, caused the instantaneous turn out of the Fire Department. The alarm was caused by a most brilliant display of the Northern Lights, which, notwithstanding the light of the moon, cast such a brilliant red glare over the northern hemisphere, as to deceive the practised eye of many a fireman. Some of the engines proceeded as far up as Line street, when the apparent fire seemed as far off as when they started, and the chase was given up.

The phenomenon, for a few minutes—when the alarm was given—was really beautiful, and was well calculated to deceive a drowsy watchman.—Charleston Mercury.

The Conservatist, A WEEKLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED to the best interests of the Southern States of the American Union, conservative in Politics and Religion, a disseminator of General Intelligence, and an earnest advocate in the cause of Literature, Art and Agriculture, is published at $2 a year, in advance. Every Tuesday Morning in NEWBERRY, S. C., JAMES D. NANCE & CO., PROPRIETORS. JAMES D. NANCE, EDITOR.

Newberry District being one of the richest Cotton Districts in South Carolina, her people are large consumers of every kind of merchandise. THE CONSERVATIST, therefore, furnishes one of the best mediums in the State for advertisers, so far as Newberry District is concerned, while it enjoys a fair circulation in the surrounding Districts. The terms for inserting advertisements are certainly as reasonable as those of any other journal in the country, especially when it is desired to advertise by contract.

THE CONSERVATIST numbers among its contributors gentlemen of the first talent and soundest political faith. With their assistance, the editor will endeavor to make his journal an acceptable and useful domestic family newspaper and fire-side companion.

The political character of the paper is of the strongest States Rights stamp. Believing that the Constitution under which the Confederacy of the American States was formed, has been repeatedly and grossly violated, and that "the Plantation States" have been the only sufferers—that the Union of these States is no longer a policy founded on the principles of right and justice, but that the bond of Union is "the cohesive power of public plunder"—the proprietors prefer that their journal shall rather seem to be a Southern Extremist than appear an uncondemned advocate of the Union at any price.

TERMS.—The paper will be regularly mailed to subscribers out of the town of Newberry at the following reasonable rates of subscription: One copy, per year, $2.00 Three copies, - - - - - 5.00 Five copies, - - - - - 8.00 Ten copies, - - - - - 15.00 Twenty copies, - - - - - 25.00 The money upon these terms always to be paid in advance.

No paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, and no paper mailed until the subscription price is received: unless at the option of the proprietors, when the circumstances call for a different course. All business communications should be addressed to the "Conservatist," Newberry, S. C. Communications intended for publication should be addressed to the "Editor of the Conservatist." Aug. 28, 1860.

THE BLUE RIDGE HERALD, A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER, PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, AT WALTHALLA, SO. CA., MARSHALL & SMITH, EDITORS & PROPRIETORS. Terms—One Dollar and A Half, Strictly in Advance. THE HERALD is devoted to Politics, Science and General Intelligence. Without any party restraints, and free from individual control, it is to be independent in all things—neutral in none, and with this motto, we hope so to conduct our columns as will best encourage and foster the good, while we shall condemn and reprove the evil. We shall make the HERALD a welcome visitor, and full of wholesome reading for the old and the young, the lady and the gentleman. In these attempts we shall need the assistance of the ladies, and we ask them now to give us a word, suited to sex and circumstances. As an advertising medium, we present the HERALD to the public, as enjoying equal facilities with our country contemporaries. WARREN R. MARSHALL, FLETCHER SMITH, Editors & Proprietors. August, 1860.

NEW LAW FIRM. KEITH & WILKES, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. THE undersigned having formed a partnership under the name and style of Keith and Wilkes, and will attend promptly to all business entrusted to them for the Districts of Abbeville, Anderson, Pickens, Greenville, Spartanburg and Laurens. Mr. Keith will practice in the Equity Courts in those Districts. Their office is at No. 8, Brick Range, Anderson C. H., S. C. E. M. KEITH.....WARREN D. WILKES. Aug. 14, 1860.

LAST NOTICE. ALL persons indebted to the undersigned on Confectionary account, are hereby requested to make immediate payment. Those failing to do so by the 15th of September, will find my books in the hands of D. W. BROWN, Esq., for prompt collection. D. A. KEASLER. Aug. 14, 1860.

SAM'L H. OWEN CONTINUES to repair Clocks, Watches and Jewelry at his old stand. All work warranted. Aug. 21, 1860.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY, A Political, Commercial and Literary Journal, PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY.

THE "Mercury" represents the State rights resistance element of the South. Its political creed consists in the principles of the Democratic Party as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States and Strict Construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the Agent of the States; Free Trade, and an Economical Administration of the General Government. Its policy is the union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights and establishing their security.

The "Mercury" gives daily reports of Markets and Marine Intelligence of Charleston Commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Price Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. A connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by telegraph and the earliest news by steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular correspondents in New York, Washington, New Orleans, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters are an additional attraction in favor of lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the South, the Planting and Agricultural interests, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

TERMS—PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Daily, per annum, $10.00 Tri-weekly, - - - - - 5.00 CLERS WILL BE FURNISHED AS FOLLOWS: Five copies of the Daily, - - - - - $40.00 Five copies of the Tri-Weekly, - - - - - 20.00 The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable city reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters. Postmasters are authorized to act as Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money, and may retain twenty per cent. of the pre-payments for their trouble. In the State, Mr. Samuel E. Burgess is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions. R. B. RHETT, Jr., No. 4 Broad Street, Charleston, S. C.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY, Conservative. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, Whig. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, Free Church. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, Liberal. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, Tory. These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory and Radical; but politics forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand, as they have ever stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES. The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of our subscribers about as soon as the original editions. TERMS—Per Annum: For any one of the four Reviews, - - - - - $3.00 For any two of the four Reviews, - - - - - 5.00 For any three of the four Reviews, - - - - - 7.00 For all four of the Reviews, - - - - - 8.00 For Blackwood's Magazine, - - - - - 3.00 For Blackwood and one Review, - - - - - 5.00 For Blackwood and two Reviews, - - - - - 7.00 For Blackwood and three Reviews, - - - - - 9.00 For Blackwood and the four Reviews, - - - - - 10.00 Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING. A discount of twenty per cent. from the above prices will be allowed on Clubs ordering direct from L. Scott & Co. for four or more copies. Five or more of the above works. This discount of Blackwood, or of one Review, will be sent on address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30, and so on. POSTAGE. In all the principal cities and towns these works will be delivered free of postage. We sent by mail the postage to any part of the United States will be $4 cents a year for Blackwood and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews. N. B.—The price in Great Britain of the five Periodicals above named is $31 per annum.
