OBITUARY.

DEPARTED THIS LIFE, on Friday the 21st ult., in Anderson District, Mrs. NANCY FIELDS. consort of Horatio Fields, and daughter of Moses and Rebecca Pressley. She was born in Abbeville District in the year 1790, and married in the year 1818. She was a kind, affectionare and duriful nder, leving and indulgent me her and at the a desobite husband and weeping o morent as releash. She joined the Saptist Church near 25 years ago, and has ever since lived a consistent member thereof. Adorning her profession of religiou by a pious walk and a godly conversation, sharing largely the affection and confidence of her brethren, and the high esteem of all who knew her. Those who knew her best loved her most. And calmly and quietly at life's last hour, she fell sweetly asleep in the arms of that joys and unalloyed bliss. Her husband, children and friends can say of a truth, "our loss is her eternal gain," and though she can never return to DIED, at the residence of her father-in-law, in Anderson District, S. C., on the 27th ultimo, Mrs. SALLIE S. COX, daughter of William and Amelia

We occasionally meet with persons who seem too pure, too angelie, for this sinful world; and when such are called away, we say of them, they were too good for earth. Such a person was the deceased. In early life were seen developing ail those virtues which adorn woman. She was blest with beauty, intelligence and true benevolence, to which was added unquestionable picty. In the morning of her life-in the bloom of youth, she showed her wisdom in first seeking the kingdom of God and his righteousness. About two years ago, after professing faith in Christ, she was buried with she walked in newness of life, a consistent member of the Baptist Church. On the 6th of last June she was married to Mr. William Stanton Cox, a gentleman in every respect worthy of such a wife as she proved herself to be. New tendrils daily clasped the affections of her husband, as he daily became more acquainted with her surpassing virtues. But a few short months had passed, when this happy couple were called to part. The Master calledthe happy bride must go and leave her husband. But, blessed be God, she was ready for the call; IT is unnecessary to recommend this Goods-it those who saw her die, experienced a scene of rejoicing as well as weeping.

When told by her husband that she could not re- truth of the above. cover, she said to him, "I must die and leave you." "Why is it that we must part so soon?" She then exclaimed, "Not my will, O, Lord! but thine be one. I know-yes, I know it-that I am going to Heaven. I'll meet my dear mother there."-Then embracing her husband, she said, "And I'll JUST RECEIVED AT SLOAN & TOWERS, a meet your mother there, too." It seemed that her lot of dying hour was a foretaste of heavenly bliss. To be fully convinced that she was in her right mind, the writer asked her if she knew him; to which she replied, "Certainly I do, and I'll meet you in Heaven." The dying scene was so affecting that one standing by exclaimed, "Behold a saint die! Before she expired, she offered up a beautiful prayer, that God would have mercy on all present. and on mourning sinners, that they might be prepared to meet her in Heaven. Then telling her husband and sisters to meet her in Heaven, she calmly fell asleep in Jesus. Of a truth, "we all do fade as a leaf." Thus has faded away one of the fairest and loveliest of our race. Her life on earth was short; but she fought a good fight. She died at her post. She was faithful unto death; and is now in Heaven wearing the crown of life, and bearing palms of victory in her hands. Husband, no longer weep for thy bride,

Father, sisters, brothers, dry your tears;

Bor The many friends of RLIJAH WEBB, Esq. would announce him as a candidate for Clerk of the Court for Anderson District at the next election.

To the Voters of Anderson District :

"Many Phinnes" have announced my name as a candidate for Clerk of the Court at the ensuing election, and it is due to them, as well as to the voters of the District generally, that I should make a response to the announcement. At the close of my last canvass, I stated publicly that I did not expect to be again a candidate, and my purpose remained unshaken until December last, when my situation was in many respects greatly changedowing to my misfortune, which is known to the District.

I was born and reared in this District, and am, perhaps, the oldest citizen of this town-have always resided here, and hope that my bones may repose in her soil. I have received many favors from my fellow-citizens, and have tried to discharge from my fellow-citizens, and have tree that they have so long confided to me with the trust they have so long confided to me with ing oath:

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the confidence of the con and performance in the office is the best guarantee I can offer the District for a faithful discharge of its duties in the future. Many voters, therefore, stitutionally qualified to vote—so help me God." and my friends generally, are authorized to use my name as a candidate for re-election.

PARMENTER & CAMPBELL'S SEWING MACHINES. (BOOTH'S PATENT.)

THE subscribers call the attention of the public to the above Sewing Machines. These machines are reliable, simple, cheap and durable, and well adapted to sewing different kinds of cloth—from the finest fabric to the coarsest plantation goods. It is wonderful the amount of labor they save. Ladies who have tried them, are completely nated with the rapidity and neatness with which their work is done. These Machines, now offered to the public of Anderson and Pickens Districts by the undersigned, through their regular agent, Mr. John Hammond, are thought to be superior to anything of the kind yet offered in this market, when you take into account the price, the simplicity of their machinery, and the case of learning to sew on them. The learning to sew is often diffi-cult, but on these machines it is thought to be less so than on any machine the subscribers have seen. Price of Machine, $50.00; Hemmer, $5.00. The Machine may be taken either with or without the Hemmer, as the purchaser may desire.
