INAUGURATION OF GOV. PICKENS .- Yesterday, Gov. Pickens was inaugurated, in accordance with the forms usual on such occasions. Owing to the solemnity of this particular case, and the crisis during which he was elected, it was decidedly one of the most impressive that we have ever witnessed. The inaugural was heard with bated breath, and as its firm and decided positions were announced they were received sentence after sentence with loud applause. When the Governor, after having graphically surveyed the dangers which surrounded the State, announced, his readiness to take the oath of office, a feeling of satisfaction ran through the large assembly. All felt election, and it is due to them, as well as to the that in this hour of trial, we had a Goy- voters of the District generally, that I should make ernor at the helm upon whom we could a response to the announcement. To the Voters of Anderson District :

"MANY FRIENDS" have announced my name as a candidate for Clerk of the Court at the ensuing my last canvass, I stated publicly that I did not expect to be again a candidate, and my purpose remained unshaken until December last, when my situation was in many respects greatly changedowing to my misfortune, which is known to the District.

I was born and reared in this District, and am, perhaps, the oldest citizen of this town-have always resided here, and hope that my bones may repose in her soil. I have received many favors Ready-Made Clothing, om my fellow-citizens, and have tried to discharge the trust they have so long confided to me with courtesy, zeal and strict fidelity.
