In answer to many inquiries from farmers for the cheapest plan for far-mers to put up their own warehouses we are getting together a lot of very interesting information as to plans and cost of a very simple, good and cheap Farmers' Union warehouse that most any strong local Union can put up themselves at comparative small cost.

Send in to our bureau all the information you have on thi asubject.

The Founder of The Farmers' Union is

Newton Gresham, the father of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America, died at his home at Point, Texas, April 10th.

Newton Gresham is dead but his work and spirit lives on in the Farmers' Union, which is already the greatest farmers' organization that the world has ever known.

In the Farmers' Union organization Newton Gresham has left to his people, his family and the Southern farmers as well an heritage and monument to his memory that is far greater ment to his memory that is far greater an a mint of gold and m

His South Carolina Union brethren mourn his loss, while we bow to the will of Him who gave him for our good.

Peace be unto his ashes.

Farmers' Union News.

This South Carolina Farmers' Union column is now published in every Southern State from the Rio Grande to the James Rivers.
Texas and Oklahoma papers state that our Farmers' Union members now round up more than six hundred thousand farmers that belong to the union. Cheer up, farmers, your organization is growing, very fast in both numbers and knowledge.

— Tell all farmers, whether they are delegates or not, to come to Andersoy, S. C., on high site, to be present at the organization of the State Farmers' Union.

— Any farmer not already a member of the union can be initiated at Enderson and become a member and representative at this State Union from any county that has no organization already in the union.
