INTERESTING INTELLIGENCE

Two Days Later from the North.

Special Telegraphic Despatches to the Augusta Constitutionalist.

New York, August 17.—The Herald's Quebec correspondent says: The Canadian debt exceeds seventy-five million dollars.
Political affairs are in a very ticklish condition.
But little additional money has been deposited since yesterday.

Relative to Ketchum's robberies they now say the amount is half a million.
The Times's special from Washington says: The Sebesch object to the establishment of colored schools, and are beseeching Gen. Howard to have them removed. They allege, among other reasons, they will cause real estate to depreciate.

Wirtz's trial has again been postponed.
The Herald says that all the soldiers now in the field except those of Sherman's army will have been paid up to the 30th of June last.

A number of citizens from Richmond have been several days waiting to call on the President with a delegation concerning pardons. The self-constituted committee visited the White House yesterday, and were addressed in a friendly way by the President, who inquired where they were from. A member of the delegation, in a pompous style, replied, "We are proud to say we are from the city of Richmond." The President remarked he did not see any occasion for pride on that account, turning his back, and devoting his attention to other business, thus ending the interview.

New York, August 17.—English papers by the China are filled with reports of speculations concerning the Atlantic cable, but contain no definite intelligence.
Fortress Monroe, August 16.—Much excitement was caused by the explosion of a magazine containing a large quantity of powder and ammunition, the property of the late rebel government, stored in a small wooden house, known as the Tre-degar arsenal. Fragments of shells were thrown miles around. Persons living near had to flee for their lives.

Aspy, August 16.—Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon there was no signs of anything from the Great Eastern.

Arrival of the Steamship McClellan at Hilton Head.

The steamer McClellan, from New York on the 16th, arrived at Hilton Head on Saturday. We are indebted to SPAIN & CO., news dealers, Charleston Hotel, for full files of Northern papers of the 16th, from which we make the following summary of interesting news:
The World, of 15th, has the following telegram from Washington concerning:
THE TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.
As the result of careful inquiry, it is believed that there is an unwillingness on the part of a portion of the Cabinet to have Jefferson Davis tried for treason, while there is reason for asserting that the President is persistent in having him brought before a civil tribunal. Chief Justice Chase is expected to arrive here in the course of a few days for consultation with the President as to the time, the manner and the place which shall be designated. The ablest counsel in the United States are also being consulted upon the subject. There is a fixed determination on the part of the Executive that there shall be an immediate and fair trial, by a jury of the country, for high treason.
A Washington dispatch to the Tribune, August 15th, says:
INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION.
The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that where a person purchases trees of nurserymen in all orders previously obtained, and delivers the same at the different stations on the railroad, either by himself or his agents, he is required to take out a dealer's license for each and every station at which he delivers the trees. The same decision will apply to his agents.

A special dispatch to the Associated Press, dated Heart's Content, August 14, via Aspy Bay, August 15, says:
We have just heard, through a schooner named the First Fruit, which arrived at Harbor Grace on August 14, that at four o'clock A. M., on the 6th of August, she saw the Great Eastern and a large screw steamer in latitude 51.40 North, longitude 38 West. At 6 o'clock A. M., on the same day, she saw a steamer with a flag marked "Great Eastern, No. 5." The ships were at the time about five miles Southeast from the buoy, and the weather was exceedingly thick and foggy.
The captain of the First Fruit endeavored to near the steamer, but owing to a calm was obliged to give up the effort.
The screw steamer went alongside the schooner and spoke with her. The captain of the steamer (which is supposed to be the Terrible) informed the captain of the schooner that the cable parted on the 2d instant, and that the buoy was the mark where the cable was last seen.
The captain of the schooner further states that he is not certain of the exact position of the buoy, having had no observations for several days.
The news caused quite an excitement among the fearful inhabitants of Heart's Content.
We had been expecting for several days that some disaster had occurred to the fleet, but were not prepared for the actual announcement when it reached us. We do not, however, give up the expedition as a failure, as when last seen the steamers were endeavoring to discover the location of the buoy, showing that they had not abandoned all hope of eventually laying the cable.
Mr. McKay, the superintendent of the Newfoundland telegraph line, is yet hopeful that the Great Eastern will arrive in the course of a few days with the cable all right.
I cannot describe to you the deep disappointment which prevails among the people in general.
There is nothing like this in the general feeling, after so many failures, that the Atlantic cable is a thing which will never be successfully completed.

All the stations from St. John and other places have gone home, and the reporters and telegraphers are all that remain of the thousands who filled this city.

At the time of the cable breaking it was about six hundred miles distant from the coast of Newfoundland.

The special Washington correspondence of the World, under date of August 15, has the following:

THE WERTZ TRIAL POSTPONED A DAY.
The trial of Captain Wertz was to have commenced to-day, but has been further postponed until to-morrow. This morning, several government witnesses were in attendance, and there are others in the city who can at any moment be summoned. The accused has for counsel Judge Hughes, Gen. J. W. Denver, and Messrs. Peck and Schiele.
The prisoner is a Swiss by birth. When the United States forces captured New Orleans, he deserted his plantation and negroes in Louisiana, and, with his wife and three children, went to Viecheron. In 1863 the rebel government sent him to Europe as a military commissioner. He remained there eight months, when, returning to Richmond, by running the Wilmington blockade, he was appointed an assistant adjutant-general of the rank of captain, and assigned to the command of the Andersonville prison.

General Scheffel, commanding the Department of North Carolina, arrived in town this morning.
Those who have conversed with the general represent affairs in North Carolina as much more satisfactory than is represented in malicious Associated Press despatches from Raleigh.

SPLENDID CAVALRY REGIMENT.
The Sixth regular cavalry, formerly the old Second, which under command of General Robert E.
Lee has just received three hundred new recruits, all of whom have served in the war as veterans.
This regiment is now in splendid condition, and was ordered to Texas a short time since, but is at present in camp near Frederick, Maryland.

CHANGE IN THE PATENT OFFICE.
Commissioner of Patents, Howgway, finding it impossible to remain in his position under the arbitrary ruling of the new Secretary of the Interior, insisted on President Johnson accepting his resignation. The President has declined several times, but to-day finally acceded to his request, and appointed ex-Congressman Theaker, of Ohio, in his place. The latter gentleman has been for several years one of the principal examiners of patents.

PRESTON KING'S APPOINTMENT.
The appointment of Preston King as collector of New York, created as much surprise here as in New York. Even late last night there was not an intimation outside of cabinet officers and high officials of the treasury that such a change had been made. The new collector was observed at the White House yesterday, but as he has made his home with the President since April, that simple fact suggested no mystery. There were no New York politicians in town, save one of small prominence, and they certainly could not have been aware, therefore, of the imminence of the change.
Mr. King left for New York in the morning train.

INDIAN COMMISSIONERS.
The commissioners to visit the Western Indian tribes, composed of Judge Edwards, of the Land office; Colonel Parker, of Grant's staff; General Harney, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Colonel Sherman, of the War Department, starting to-day for St. Louis, accompanied by their secretaries, accompanied by their secretaries, en route for St. Louis and the plains. They will specially visit those Indian tribes who have forfeited their ammunition by joining the rebels in the late war.

PROTEST AGAINST CABINET MEETINGS AT THE WHITE HOUSE.
It is said that Secretaries Stanton and Harlan, and Attorney-General Speed, have protested against any more cabinet meetings being held at the Executive mansion during the summer months, on account of its unhealthfulness.

A LOUISIANA UNION MAN.
The statement that ex-Governor Wickliffe, of Louisiana, is here to be pardoned, is erroneous.
He has been a Union man throughout the war, though residing all the time in that State.

PERSONAL.
Senator Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, and General Horace Broughton, of New York; General Hovey, of Indiana, and Generals Schofield, Wherry and Crocker, are in town. Governor Morton left for Indiana to-night.

PARDONS.
Some thirty persons were pardoned to-day. The only ones of prominence were ex-Senator Benjamin Fitzpatrick, of Alabama, who was at one time Vice-President pro tem; and William Byrd, of Memphis, Tenn. J. T. Sonthorpe, of New York, was also amnestied by the President to-day.

SECRETARY REWARD'S HEALTH.
Notwithstanding the arduous labors of Secretary Seward, since his return from Europe, his health continues satisfactory, relieving the apprehension that the duties of the State Department might prove too exhaustive for his recently shattered energies.

THE DEFEALCATION OF A. P. STONE.
A. P. Stone, a collector of internal revenue of Ohio, was, it is ascertained, a defaulter to the amount of $100,000. His sureties are bound in the sum of $100,000; they are perfectly responsible, and will satisfy the Government.

INTERNAL REVENUE BUSINESS.
Nearly $400,000,000 have passed through the Internal Revenue Bureau since its organization, and so far it has not sustained the loss of a single dollar by any misconduct of any of its officers. The last day's receipts from internal revenue are about $1,500,000.

MOSEBY'S MOVEMENTS.
Colonel J. S. Mosby left Alexandria on Thursday evening for some place in Warren, there to remain until the further orders of the War Department. Such was the excited feelings, it is said, against him on the part of the citizens and soldiers, that his life was in danger while he remained in Alexandria, several persons, whom he had deeply wounded during the war, having armed themselves to kill him.

EMIGRATION FROM BREMEN.
The Department of State has received advices from the United States consul at Bremen, in which it is represented that during the first six months of this year, from January 1 up to June last, 1865, the emigration to the United States through the ports of Bremen, amounted to 12,700 emigrants, in fifty-six vessels, against 15,063, in sixty-two ships, in 1864. During the first six months in 1865, the emigration through Hamburg amounted to 155,800 emigrants, which gives a total addition to our population of nearly 84,000 souls in six months. And from those two ports only a fair larger emigration to the United States is expected this fall and next spring, and an unusual number of vessels have already been chartered for that purpose.

DELIVERY OF SEVEN-THIRTY BONDS.
The delivery of the remaining seven-thirty bonds will be made by the 26th inst. The delay has been caused by the exhaustion of the blank forms of the smaller denominations, six or seven million of which in amount have to be printed to meet the demand.

The Tribune of the 16th, has the following: Rear Admiral D. D. Porter has been appointed, ad interim, chief of the bureau of navigation and detail of the navy department. This appointment fills the vacancy caused by the death of Captain Percival Drayton.

Gov. Brownlow, of Tennessee, in consequence of having received intelligence that the franchise law was not complied with in many places in his recent election in that State, has issued a proclamation making provision for promulgating certain questions to county officers, for the purpose of ascertaining the facts. He also asks for information from loyal citizens on the matter, and absences them of his determination that they should not be cheated by any evasion of the act.

James Mitchell, a son of John Mitchell, reached Fortress Monroe on Wednesday evening, to seek an interview with his father, which was refused by Gen. Miles, the post commandant.

The Washington paper states that the principal hotels of this city have had all the stock of cigars seized by national officers, for alleged infractions of the internal revenue laws.

Gold ordered on Saturday at 141; sold at 141; then rallied to 142, and closed strong. Government bonds were dull and steady, with the exception of 7.30s, which show a decline of 1 per cent.

MEXICO AND THE WEST INDIES.

THE REACTIONARY PARTY.
A REVOLUTION IN HAVANA—THE REACTIONARY PARTY.

RA—POPULATION OF SONORA—THE YAQUIS AND THE FRENCH—THE FRENCH SCIENTIFIC EXPEDI-TION IN MEXICO—PLACES VISITED BY THE EXPE-DITION AND WHAT IT HAS FOUND.
HAVANA, August 9.

A REVOLUTION IN HAVANA—THE REACTIONARY PARTY.
The whirlwind which has so violently and unexpectedly shaken Yankee land has been felt not only in the United States, where it originated, but also in our immediate neighborhood, where it now begins to act. Revolutions, if not civil wars, are contagious; they forcibly inoculate themselves into other people. The island of Cuba, the Island Queen as it is called, queen by the grace of beauty and wealth, has caught the contagion, and is at present engaged in the laborious work of modifying its institutions. The movement has not assumed yet the character of revolution in its own aspect, although intrinsically it presents as radical a reform as any one we have accomplished. As I have already said, the island is divided between two parties—the native party, or Cubans proper, who are demanding an extension of the right of suffrage, a greater amount of local freedom, and the gradual abolition of slavery; and the foreign or Spanish party, or more properly speaking, the party of office-holders, headed by M. Dulce, the Captain-General, who is opposing the reforms proposed by the Cubans, under the pretence that the political assimilation of Cuba (now under an exceptional government) with Spain would be untimely and dangerous, inasmuch as consequence of the diversity of race as the difficulty of abrogating the "patronage" exercised by the planters upon the laborers.

I have now under my eyes the petition of the Cuban office-holders to the Queen, and a letter published in the Epoca of Madrid, the organ of the present ministry, containing the grievances of the Cubans—grievances, the redress of which is supported by the most indisputable moral arguments, and characteristic of the parties whose opinions they represent; that presented by the reac-tionists is especially marked by a vagueness of expression and by generalities about the danger of innovations, the impossibility of extending political rights to all classes, and the formal and distinguished and upon inadmissible moral ground,
