LOCAL MATTERS.

To our City Subscribers .- We would be thankful if there is any failure on the part of our carriers to deliver the Dam's News, if our city subscribers would give us immediate notice. Every effort on our part will be made to secure an early delivery, and if the carriers fail in doing their Ales, Wines, Liquors and Segars. duty, we hope to be immediately informed of it.

WE REGRET to hear of the death of the Hon. R. B. Boylston, Speaker of the House of Representatives of this State, who died a few days ago at Winnsboro'.

WE ARE again indebted to the courtesies of Messrs. M. M. Quinn & Bro. for late files of Augusta papers. We regret that among them was not the Constitutionalist.

CUSTOM HOUSE.-Messrs. J. F. W. WALTER and EDGAR LAZABUS entered upon their duties as Appraisers on yesterday.

ABRIVAL .- Brovet Major-General A. AMES is at the Charleston Hotel, having arrived yesterday morning from Hilton Head.

A DEGRADED SOLDIER .- In passing the corner of Broad and Meeting-streets, yesterday, we saw a fine looking soldier, a member of the 47th Penn. Vol., standing on a barrel, as a punishment, we presume, with a placard marked "thief" attached to his back. It is a melancholy reflection that a man who has faced "danger at the cannon's mouth," should so far forget himself as to be liable to such disgrace, and so public a degradation. We hope this example will be so salutary as to prevent a repetition of this peculiar punishment.

NICKERSON'S HOTEL .- By reference to an advertisement in our paper to-day, it will be seen that this establishment in Columbia is now open. To pass encomiums upon the ability of such a veteran in his business as Mr. Nickenson, is certainly not our province, for his praises are in everybody's mouth. We congratulate our sister city on the re-opening of a fine hotel, under the former courteous and obliging proprietor.

OUR RAILROAD TRANSPORTATION .- The great poverty of our people is evidenced by the tardiness with which our railroads are being repaired. Presidents and directors are persistent in developing such resources as they can command; but funds are scarce, and every bar of iron and every cross-tie has to be paid for in money. At the present rate of reconstruction, it will be some time yet ere the locomotive will range over its former extended routes. In the mean time travel goes on-the primitive times of May and June, in back-breaking, side-aching wagons are passed, and we now ride on springs, in comparative comfort.

But a new business has also been developed out of the necessities of the times. Every village in establishment. the up-country now has its enterprising storekeepers-stocks of goods are permeating to every district, and the work of transporting merchandise to all these distant points, and the hauling of cotton to the heads of our railroads, has developed a wagon business which brings to mind those long-a-go times when railroads were not, and when the sharp crack of the whip, and the merry gingle of bells, cold of prosperity on the old Charleston business mart, which centered around the "Bul"s Head Tavern," on King-street Road, Jone kept in great comfort by our now venerable townsr.an, T. W. Johnson.

But ou. intention was to speak of the facility with which our country friends now dispatch their cotton to Charleston and receive in exchange their as orted stocks of merchandise for the local trade. The business of transportation having been systematized, nothing is easier than to sell the cotton and deliver it in Charleston, buy a stock of goods here, and have them transported to any part of the interior. In the matter of forwarding, we direct attention to the card of Mr. WM. A. COURTENAY, at Newberry Depot. Information in regard to up freights can be had on application to Mr. H. B. OLNEY, No. 11 Vendue Range,

Staten Island, September 1, 1865.

Mr. Dana, late Assistant Secretary of War, passes his whitewash brush over Gen. Halleck thus: "We do not hesitate to declare that, during the whole period of General Halleck's residence in Wash-ington, whether as General-in-Chief or as Chief of Staff, his services, both as an adviser and execu-tive officer, were of great importance and value."

Prince Napoleou has been spending large sums at the Dublin Exhibition. The papers praise him extravagantly-because he is extravagant, no doubt.
