

LOCAL MATTERS.

LATE PAPERS, &c.—We are indebted to Mr. Horace P. Rugg, Market-street, for the following papers, &c., Peterson's Magazine for October, Frank Leslie, Courier des Etats Unis, Shipping and Commercial List, Scientific American, New York Weekly, Herald, Day Book, and others. Purchasers cannot do better than to pay Mr. Rugg a visit.

WE RETURN our thanks to Messrs. M. M. QUINN & BROTHER for the following late magazines and papers: Godey's Lady's Book, for October; Harper's Magazine, for October; The Pilot, Tribune, Herald, Daily News, and Times.

THE MAILS.—We have had recently many complaints of great irregularity in the mails along the line of the Cheraw and Darlington and the Wilmington and Manchester Railroads, and in an interview, on yesterday, with the courteous Assistant Postmaster, we were assured that the mails are regularly made up and properly forwarded to their different destinations. We sincerely hope that the temporary postmasters at the stations, as well as mail agents on the routes, will endeavor to assist the officers here in the distribution of the mails, as without their helping hand the efforts of this office will be useless. We, therefore, respectfully ask all who are in any way connected with the mails to be vigilant and accommodating, so that harmony may exist in the great medium of communication which is now just about assuming a shape in the South.

THE FOLLOWING letter from the Hon. Secretary of the Treasury to one of our prominent citizens will show that it is the purpose of the Government to have all abandoned furniture, books, &c., returned to their owners:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Sept. 15, 1865. Sir: I have received your letter, under date of July 28th last, in relation to the release of certain property, &c.

The several Supervising Agents of this Department have been instructed to restore to loyal owners, and those who have availed themselves of the benefits of the Proclamation of Amnesty, and who are not excepted therefrom, or who have obtained from him a special pardon, any articles of household furniture, books, or personal or family relics which may be in their possession, on certain conditions.

If the articles referred to are in the possession of Agents of the Department at Charleston, you should apply to Supervising Special Agent Callcott for their release.

Respectfully, H. McCULLOCH, Secretary of the Treasury.

THE PEOPLE'S STEAMSHIP COMPANY.—We call the attention of our readers to the notice in to-day's issue of this Company.

The subscription books are opened at the office of Messrs. WILKES & CHISOLM, Mills House.

The Company will be chartered by the States of South Carolina and New York, thus securing to the stockholders many safeguards, which must secure the confidence of the public.

We would recommend this enterprise to our merchants, and that they secure to themselves a first class line of steamers, in the prosperity of which all will be interested, and reap the fruits of our coastwise trade.

FREIGHT FOR LIVERPOOL VIA NEW YORK.—The attention of shippers of cotton in the interior of this State and the adjoining States, is called to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. ROACH, Shipping and Commission Merchant of this city, which appears in our columns this morning. They will there notice the most striking advantages offered to all who are desirous of sending their cotton forward at reasonable rates, either to Liverpool or New York; and every moneyed facility is extended in order to make the transaction financially convenient. All the parties are reliable and well known merchants, and any engagements they may enter into will be carried out in good faith.

Y. P. M.—All who have tasted this delightful brand of pure whisky pronounce it superior to anything brought into this market for a long while. Physicians have tested it, and recommend to their patients its use as a pure stimulant, equal if not superior to the best brandy; and as a liquor for ordinary use, it is not surpassed. It can be had, at wholesale or retail, at the store of Mr. PHILIP H. KEOLER, No. 173 East Bay, where a choice variety of brandies, wines, ales, &c., are on hand, and for sale at fair prices. Country merchants are invited to call.

PUFF! PUFF! PUFF!—"Unaccustomed as we are to public speaking," we cannot resist the temptation of publicly puffing one of the choicest Havana segars, to be found in that well known establishment, No. 121 Meeting-street, opposite the Ice House, where a "good fellow holds forth—the 'light' to all who 'desire' it. They smoke very free, producing an odoriferous flavor, as welcome as the flowers of May. Also tobacco, for chewing and smoking purposes, of superior quality. Our lady friends will find superior French confectionery, and fruits of ever variety in season.

MESSRS. SCREVEN & NISBET.—These gentlemen having formed a copartnership, place their card before the public this morning, as Produce Brokers, and are ready to purchase or ship cotton, rice and all other articles which may be entrusted to them. The experience of this firm, and the knowledge which the public have of their capacity and energy, prompt us to believe that in a very short time they will be doing a large and profitable business.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS.—At this particular time, when houses are being built and repaired, and improvements of every kind made, we do not know of any recommendation we could suggest to our business readers better than an examination of the card of STEINMEYER & SON, in to-day's issue, in which it will be seen that they are in possession of every article necessarily used in the erection of buildings, &c. They offer, also, machinery, belting, agricultural implements, &c., which can be had on the best of terms, by applying to them on Kerr's Wharf.

DYEING AND SOUBRING.—Mr. J. J. BOESCH, who for many years has conducted this business in our city with great success and satisfaction, still continues, at his old stand, No. 80 King-street, to renovate all kinds of clothing, &c. In these times of poverty, when the fortune of war has put many on a short supply of clothing, it is fortunate that we have one among us like Mr. BOESCH, who will take one's old habiliments, and, for a small sum, make them look like new.

SHIPPING AND COMMISSION MERCHANT.—Mr. D. J. STUBBS, at No. 16 Vendue Range, publishes his card in to-day's issue, to which we desire to draw the attention of our readers. He is also the agent of the "Star" line of New York packets.

RICE.—Dealers in rice will do well to note the card of Messrs. NEWMAN & FOWLER in our paper of this morning.
