

LOCAL MATTERS.

COL. W. A. HEMMINGWAY is the authorized agent of the "Daily News" for the State of South Carolina. He will visit different sections of the State where mail facilities are afforded, when our friends can have an opportunity of subscribing to a constant and reliable Southern journal.

THANKS.—We return our acknowledgments to Messrs. M. M. QUINN & BROTHER for copies of the New York Mercury, New York Weekly, The Sportsman's Oracle, Frank Leslie's Ladies' Magazine, and Bell's Life in London.

THE PROPRIETORS of the Central Ice Cream Garden will accept the acknowledgments of the "Daily News" for the delightful gift sent last evening to it.

MR. JOHN MARION, Confectioner, at No. 254 King-street, gave us, last evening, a most satisfactory intimation that he is still manufacturing Ice Cream, and a great variety of other choice comforts, which please and gratify the inner man. The public, who are fond of sweet things, will be well served by calling at this establishment.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. SAXTON.—Gen. RUFUS SAXTON and Staff, with Mrs. SAXTON, arrived here on Wednesday morning, from Beaufort, S. C., and we learn that this city will be the residence of Gen. SAXTON for the future.

THE STEAMER Reinder, which is well known to many of us as the successful steamer Syren, of blockade notoriety, arrived here yesterday from Boston, after a passage of eight days. She has been raised upon and otherwise improved, and is bound to Mobile, at which place she will be employed for the future. She was, in respect to draft and most other requirements, one of the most successful runners of the blockade ever constructed. She was at Commercial Wharves yesterday, where she will take in a supply of coal.

BILL OF MORTALITY.—We find by the return of deaths, which has been sent to us by the City Registrar, that the city not only continues extremely healthy, but that less have died than on the previous week—the number of whites being the same and the blacks five less. Of fever there has been but one white adult, and one colored adult and three children, and the rest which are recorded are diseases generally found in our weekly bills of mortality.

AN INQUEST was held on yesterday, by Coroner HAMMOND, on No. 64 Hasel-street, on the body of Jack Provost (colored). Verdict—"Visitation of God."

NEW STORES.—We are very much gratified to hear that the contractors have entered upon the rebuilding of those two large and spacious stores known as Nos. 137 and 139, on the west side of Meeting-street, the property of ROBERT ADAMS, Esq., and which were burned down some time ago. The contractor for the brick work is Mr. NICHOLAS CUTLER, and the carpenters are Messrs. D. LOPEZ & SON.

CLOTHING HOUSE.—The return of Mr. WM. MATTHIESSEN to business pursuits in our city must excite pleasurable feelings in the minds of his many friends who have known and appreciated him for a long time as a courteous and attentive merchant. By referring to his advertisement, it will be seen that he offers a fine assortment of Clothing, &c., and has also resumed the tailoring business as of yore, at No. 119 King-street, where he will be glad to see the faces that were so familiar at the old corner.

CENTRAL ICE CREAM GARDEN.—The music-loving public will certainly be pleased to observe in our paper of to-day, that there will be to-night another "concert of sweet sounds" at this attractive spot, and accordingly will visit it as usual. The happy throngs that assemble on these occasions, and the delight with which they seem to pass their time, makes as pleasant a scene as one would desire to witness.

PAINTS, OILS, ETC.—While there is so much repairing and fitting up of residences, stores, &c., going on in the city, the most essential articles which it will be necessary to obtain are, paints, varnish, glass, and other things in that line, and which can be found of superior quality, and bought on the most favorable terms, of L. WEISKOFF, No. 829 King-street, as per advertisement.

MESSRS. LUMSDEN & MAGEE.—These gentlemen advertise in our paper of to-day that they have established themselves at Columbia, in the Auction and Commission business, and as Forwarding Agents. The senior member of the firm is well known among us—having been for a long time connected with the South Carolina and the Greenfield Railroads—as a man of energy and business habits; and the latter, who is from Richmond, is highly spoken of for capability. We feel satisfied that, possessing the merit which they do, they must succeed. See advertisement.

GROCERIES OF ALL KINDS.—Our friends, J. & F. DAWSON, of No. 96 East Bay, have just received a fine assortment of groceries of every description as they have been put in store for a long time. The dealers with this firm always expect, in making their purchases, to be furnished with goods of the first quality, and we have never heard of the slightest dissatisfaction on the part of any of those as yet, and presume never will, as long as those experienced gentlemen remain at its head. See advertisement.

STEAM LINE TO CHARLESTON.—The call which is published in another column for a meeting of merchants and others interested in the commercial advancement of the city, with a view to furthering the projected steamship line to Charleston and other Southern ports, indicates a unity of action which ought to secure speedy practical steps and ultimate success. The propriety, indeed the actual necessity, of the addition of such a line to the increasing steam marine of Baltimore is fully recognized, and the future of our trade. The present juncture and the future of our trade. The present juncture and the future of our trade. The present juncture and the future of our trade.

It is said that the Papal authorities have decided to hold a grand commemoration of the martyrdom of St. Peter, next year, on the eighteen hundred anniversary of that event. It is expected that the faithful of all nations will, in great numbers, crowd to the Eternal City, and thus demonstrate that in spite of the troubles which beset the Holy Father and his counselors, the Roman Catholic Church has not lost its hold upon the affections of a large part of the world. The shrewd Cardinal Antonelli has the credit of planning this grand festival gathering.

J. & F. DAWSON, 96 EAST BAY.
