

LOCAL MATTERS.

The following is the result of the election held yesterday in this city for Mayor and Aldermen. There were 2172 votes polled:

Table with columns for Candidates, Ward No., and Total. Lists names like J. C. Gilliland, J. P. Schriener, and others across various wards.

These marked with a star (*) are elected.

Mr. HORACE P. RUGG, wholesale news and medicinal dealer, Market-street, has our thanks for kindly favors in the way of books, newspapers, etc.

MESS. M. M. QUINN & BROTHERS, the indefatigable News Dealers of the Up-town News Depot, laid upon our table, this morning, a large and varied roll of Southern and Northern papers.

WE LEARN, with a great deal of pleasure, that strenuous exertions are being made by many of our large capitalists for the establishment of a National Bank in this city.

THERE WAS quite an exciting time at the poll in Ward No. 4 yesterday afternoon, just previous to the hour of closing. Two gentlemen, of highly excitable temperaments, commenced the interchange of exceedingly uncomplimentary remarks about each other.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—A Coroner's inquest was held yesterday morning, in the rear of No. 195 St. Philip-street, by C. E. KANAPAUX, Magistrate, Acting Coroner of Charleston District, upon the body of an infant (colored). Verdict: "Death from visitation of God."

THE CIRCUS performance last night was honored with the presence of Major-General GILLMORE and staff, Brevet Major-General DEVENS and staff, and Brevet Brigadier-General BENNETT and staff.

WE WOULD call attention to the advertisement of Mr. D. HODGMAN, No. 27 Maiden Lane, New York. Mr. H. is one of the most extensive manufacturers of every description of India Rubber Goods, and we would suggest to those interested to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

REAL ESTATE, STOCKS AND BONDS AT AUCTION.—We would call attention to the sale at auction this day, at 11 o'clock, by Messrs. J. S. RIGGS & Co., at the Exchange, in Broad-street. Several desirable dwellings, building lots, shares in the Charleston Gas Company, City of Charleston Stock, and State Coupons, will be offered.

WE WOULD direct particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. H. KLATTE & Co., which will be found in another column. These gentlemen have just received a large importation of New York State Flour and Rangoon Rice, which is offered at reduced prices.

MESSRS. WILSON & FRASER.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. WILSON & FRASER, as Brokers, Auctioneers and Collection Agents, at Georgetown, S. C. Col. B. H. WILSON is known to most of our citizens as representing his District for the last eight years in the Senate, and as a lawyer of large practice on the Eastern Circuit.

WE ARE gratified to be able to state that Mr. P. H. KEGLER, Banker, has engaged the services of Mr. FROST, formerly Teller of the Union Bank, to act for him in his Banking Office, corner of King and Huel streets.

Mr. KEGLER is prepared to buy and sell gold, as also exchange on the principal cities of the Union. We commend Mr. KEGLER and his business to the community; and beg to say, in this connection, that, from a long personal acquaintance with him, we are prepared to speak in the highest terms of his honorableness and respectability.

"GOWNS! GOWNS!"—By one of those strange laws of association, whose tangled thread we are often puzzled to unravel, these sharp, crisp days, about the first of November, have always been connected in our recollections with flannel cakes and medical students.

Had it fallen to our lot then to set up almanacs, we should have certainly introduced at this season, under the prophetic head of WEATHER, "About this time expect double raps at midnight, and look after your bell-handles." But times and the moon have changed.

But though the idiosyncrasy has vanished, the man remains; the signs of his coming are still visible to the educated and observant eye, and his appearance can be predicted from elements as constant and certain as those by which we calculate an eclipse ten years before-hand, or prophecy beefsteaks and onions for dinner, whilst scraping our shoes on the door mat.

When a commotion, rather to be felt by the inward than seen by the outer vision, is noticed among the faculty—when obscure boarding-houses and instrument makers are seized with an epidemic of advertising, when the steps of Junior Doctors tread visibly westward, and signs of life exhibit themselves on the outside of hospitals and almshouses—the medical student is coming.

All of these prognostics (we insensibly fall into the phraseology of the school) are now before us, and we did not need the hint of an advertisement to assure us that our Medical College was soon about to resume its activity, after a hibernation of more than four years.

The Clinical material here now, both for pathological and anatomical purposes, is equal to the best anywhere, and far superior to what it has ever been. The Museum is rich in its variety and wealth of specimens for instruction and illustration—the hospitals crowded with just the kind of stuff out of which Doctors are made.

From the land of Sunrise, far-off Asia, come the aromatic roots of which fragrant Soudont is composed. In this preparation the chemistry of the toilet has achieved its most remarkable triumph.

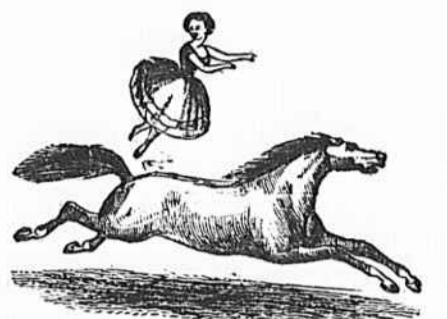

REPUTATION ESTABLISHED.—Mrs. S. A. ALLEN, for twenty years past, has been manufacturing her World's Hair Restorer and Zolobalamum, or Hair Dressing; and the millions of bottles sold every year in the United States, Great Britain and France (each year largely increased sales over the previous), is a guarantee that the articles are unequalled.
