

LOCAL MATTERS.

MISS M. M. QUINN & BROTHERS, of the Up-Town News Depot, King-street, have sent to us a large and varied lot of late Northern weekly and daily papers...

THE ENTERTAINING AND TRESPASSING RUCO, newsdealer, book-publisher, etc., Market street, has laid upon our table ten to twelve late daily and weekly Northern journals...

WE REQUEST to learn, through a private letter from Hil- ton Head, that JAMES BENNETT, late Captain U. S. N., was drowned on the 1st instant, in attempting to cross St. Helena Sound in a dug-out.

CARELESS DRIVING.—An aged and respectable lady was run over yesterday morning at the intersection of Market and Meeting streets, by a white tomcat, and considerably injured.

COOPER'S INQUEST.—C. E. KARAPAX, Magistrate, acting Coroner, held an inquest, yesterday, on the body of a colored child, named Frances Ann Brown, aged one year.

IMPORTANT.—The following has been addressed to us, and we publish it for the information of the public: CHARLESTON, S. C., November 15, 1865.

AT a meeting of the Stonehill Fire Company, held last evening at the Hope Engine House, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.—Among the many exchanges, which come to us pretty regularly, there is one which we should give more attention to than merely glancing over its contents...

THE EXERCISES OF MY SCHOOL, AT WILLING- TON, Abbeville District, will be resumed as early in the next year as circumstances will permit.

MISS MURDEN'S SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES. West end of Calhoun-street.

CLASSICAL SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES. THE REV. DR. LORD PROPOSES TO OPEN A CLASSICAL SCHOOL, for a limited number of young ladies...

ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13, MR. W. C. HYNDE, late Principal of the Pendleton Female Seminary, having had eight years' experience in teaching...

PUBLIC WEIGHTER'S OFFICE, MARKET-STREET, CHARLESTON, NOVEMBER 6, 1865. The attention of Coal Dealers is requested to the City Ordinance regulating the sale of Coal by weight...

Mrs. C. C. FRENCH.—Thi lady, who has been so long catering in the most tasteful manner, for the sex, is still engaged, at No. 4 George-street, in stamping, em- broidering, &c.

J. N. ROBBIN.—See his advertisement of Twine, Bopo, Rice, Tobacco, Starch, and Omburga, which he sells at No. 62 East Bay, at as reasonable rates as can be obtained.

GEORGE HUNTER.—This gentleman has entered into the Auction and Commission business at No. 18 Vendue Range, where he will also deal in Groceries, &c., at wholesale.

WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES.—EDGERTON & RICHARDS, as formerly, are the Agents of this wonderful machine, which is so popular in all establish- ments where much sewing is to be done.

WE WOULD request attention to the auction sales by JOHN S. RIGGS & CO., advertised in to-day's issue as taking place this morning, at 11 o'clock, at the Exchange, Broad-street. Two dwellings, a farm, and a building lot comprise the valuable property which will be offered.

WILLIAM MARSHALL & Co.—This firm, at No. 78 East Bay, always has in store, and is constantly receiving, a fine supply of groceries of every kind, which can be obtained at moderate prices.

BOOKER, AUCTIONEER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT.—Col. FRANCIS LANCE publishes a card in our paper, informing the public that he has resumed business in this line, at No. 33 Queen street, and solicits patronage.

BOOKER, AUCTIONEER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT.—Col. FRANCIS LANCE publishes a card in our paper, informing the public that he has resumed business in this line, at No. 33 Queen street, and solicits patronage.

A Hon.—It will be perceived that a hop is to be given at the Four Mile House, or Oak Grove, on Monday evening next. At this season, a trip to this delightful spot will be very pleasant, and we have no doubt the party will be large, and the occasion a very gay one.

DUCKS AND TURKEYS.—As the sporting season is at hand, and wild fowls are more than abundant, we would bring to the notice of those who indulge in bogging through morasses and swimming creeks, with a heavy "Manton" and twelve pounds of shot attached, that Messrs. HART & Co., at the corner of King and Market streets, have the things on hand by which they may en- joy themselves.

FORCHER & HENRY.—A copartnership having been entered into between these two gentlemen for the carrying on of a General Commission business, and dealing in Grain, Hay, and other produce, we would say that, known in the community as they are for energetic, stirring, business men, we presume that a liberal patronage will be bestowed upon them by the community, which we are satisfied they well deserve.

W. H. CHAFER.—The rapid manner in which this gentleman has recuperated since the fire is wonderful, and his store, at No. 203 East Bay, filled as it is with the best of everything in his line, is an evidence of what energy and a stout heart like his can do.

ARCHIBALD GETTY & Co.—On referring to our columns this morning, an advertisement of large quantities of goods of superior quality will be seen, as now being on hand in the spacious establishment of this firm.

ONE BOTTLE DID IT.—That is the expression of many who have had their grey hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Hair Dressing.
