AMERICA IN CORRES.

A NOBLE PURPOSE

A GLORIOUS RESULT.

AND

H THERE ARE AS MANY ROADS TO FAME AND FORTUNE as there were gateways to the ancient Thebes.
Your ambitious warrior is for carrying his way with the sabre; your aspiring politician for scheming his way by intrigue and consummate art. But there is one grand broad path to the goal, along which nothing base can travel. It is the path set apart for the march of talent, energy, and noble purpose; and though full of obstacles,
it contains none that a brave man cannot surmount.
This fact has been exemplified in innumerable instances, but in few more forcibly than in the rise and progress of DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
For over fifteen years its course has been onward and upward, scattering blessings at every step, until it now stands on the topmost rounds of the ladder of fame, as

FROM THE HON. THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

WASHINGTON, January 1, 1864.

Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofand's German Bitters.

During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renswed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed; and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged, if they desire to, be.

Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

D

From Rev. W. D. Seigiried, Pastor of Twelfth Baptist Church.
PHILADELPHIA, December 26, 1863.—Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to patent medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to paim off sweetened and drugged lignor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tehdency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation,
I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectically yours.
